GOVERNOR AND PREMIER WILL VISIT CAMPBELLTON MONDAY

Will Advise With Town Authorities and Will Later Call a Special Session of the Provincial Legislature if it is Deemed Necessary

Fredericton, July 14 — This morning arrangements were made for Lieutenant Governor Tweedie and Premier Hazen to visit Campbellton on Monday next where they will consult Mayor Murray and other officials at Campbellton. It may be that special legislation will be needed immediately to enable the town to go ahead with its part of the work of rebuilding, and the Lieutenant Governor and Premier both feel that it would be well for them to advise with the authorities at Campbellton. The town of Campbellton has a debt of about $300,000, and its future is a matter of much consideration. That the town, under ordinary conditions, will be rebuilt and without delay seems certain, as from a commercial and industrial standpoint it was one of the busiest centres in Eastern Canada, and its citizens have been an industrious lot of people. If it is deemed necessary a special meeting of the Legislature will be called after Lieutenant Governor Tweedie and Premier Hazen visit Campbellton and personally look into the situation.

A MIGHTY DRAFT.

The Great Drink That Saved the Town of Rothenburg.

Whitsuntide of each year witnesses in the historic town of Rothenburg, on the Tauber, the acting of a drama which recalls a deliverance in the Thirty Years' war, when the vicar of Gustavus Adolphus had endangered the Catholic league.

Tilly came to besiege Rothenburg, which was in league with the Swedes. The town was at that time wealthy and well fortified, standing upon steep cliffs above the Tauber and having massive tower crowned walls.

Against this town came Tilly with great guns that soon put fortune on his side. The defenders of the place, however, contested every inch of ground. Not until the powder tower exploded, through a grenade of the enemy, did the Swedish garrison and citizens reluctantly hang out the white flag after a fight of thirty hours.

Tilly would hear nothing of terms of capitulation. The Swedes might withdraw, but unconditional surrender was demanded of the town.

When he had taken possession of the beautiful Rathaus he sent for the vicar, with Burgomaster Besold at their head, and announced their condemnation to death for their obstinate resistance and their disobedience to the imperial commanders.

In vain did the women and children crowd into the market place, throwing themselves at the feet of the victors and begging for mercy. Tilly had already summoned the executioner when some of the wives succeeded in penetrating into the council hall.

The conqueror at last allowed himself to be softened, but he coupled his clemency with a clause that apparently made it of no avail. The senators should be spared if one of their number could empty at a draft the great loving cup of Tauber wine presented to the victor.

Hopeless as the case seemed, the condition was fulfilled by ex-Burgomaster Nusch, who thus saved his own life and the lives of his colleagues.

The cup, which is of glass and holds about three quarts, is to this day in the possession of one of the lineal descendants of the mighty drinker.

Duty of Christian Nations.

The work of heaving the white man's burden has too often taken the form of filling the white man's pocket. Is it any wonder that the behavior of men who are nominally Christians, Christians in profession if not practice, has checked the spread of Christianity? The missionary comes preaching a gospel of justice and love and peace. But when the natives see how men behave who profess the religion which the missionary preaches the preaching loses their value.

An African chief is said to have described the process of the contact of civilized men with his people in these words, "First missionary, then trader, then army." It is not much to say that the lives of men nominally Christians have been the greatest of all hindrances to the spread of the gospel.

What, then, is our duty as citizens of Christian nations who desire to see the light of the gospel illumine the world?

The force of public opinion ought to support Governments in keeping a strict watch upon all those who try to exploit the native, either by getting hold of his land or by trading with him. It ought to insist on the absolute prohibition of the sale of drink to natives.

It ought to secure full justice for the native when he brings complaints against those who try to injure him by force or fraud. It ought to punish severely those who abuse the power of a superior race and, above all, those who demoralize it by the sale of liquor or who, as sometimes happens, behave ill to native women. It ought to be our aim to compel those who go forth from among us into non-Christian races to set a better example of conduct worthy of civilized men than many have done. The time in which we live is a critical time, not only critical for ourselves, but critical for the relations of the advanced to the semi-civilized peoples.

G.G.S GULNARE HARD ASHORE

At Entrance to Strait of Belle-Ile—Crew Not in Danger

Halifax, July 15—The Canadian Government steamer Gulnare of the Hydraulic Survey is ashore on the Labrador coast, near the entrance to the Straits of Bell Isle. The steamer has been ashore for three days. The government steamer Earl Grey will leave Picton tomorrow morning to go to her assistance. The Gulnare is commanded by Captain Knowlton, formerly of the Canadian Government cruiser Canada and has been at work since May on the present survey. The crew are not in danger but whether it will be possible to get the steamer off remains to be seen.

BOTH COMFORT AND HEALTH

Women should dodge the hot stove in summer as much as possible. Clark's delicious Pork & Beans are a great help for this. They save work, fuel, and worry. W. Clark, Mfg., Montreal.

Jack Johnson eats cake for breakfast. What is the use of being champion if the possessor of the title cannot eat what he likes and when he likes it?

MASON TO BEAT JOHNSON

A Mason residing on the Woodstock road is said to have developed pugilistic tendencies and has offered to wager his farm that he could knock out Jack Johnson, the present title holder.
