Queen's Birthday Honors.
The Queen's Birthday Honor List contains one hundred and twenty-nine names, of these twenty-three being colonial. Chief Justice Strong, of the Supreme Court, Ottawa, is made a Knight Commander of St. Michael and St. George.

Origin of the Word "Picnic."
Everybody knows what a picnic is, but most folks would find it hard to say how it got that name, and yet it is simple enough when you come to learn it. When a picnic was being arranged for, the custom originally was that those who intended to be present should supply the eatables and drinkables. A list of those necessities having been drawn up, it was passed around, and each person picked out the article of food or drink that he or she was willing to furnish, and the name of the article was ticked or checked off the list. The open air entertainments thus became known as "picnic and tick." The custom is said to have dated from 1802, so that the picnic is wholly an institution of the nineteenth century.

Curiosity Gratified.
"Travel on this road party often" inquired the passenger with the long, slender, pointed nose. "Yes," replied the sleepy looking passenger on the same seat. "Come to town most every day, I reckon?" "Yes." "In business of some kind, like as you?" "No, I work for another man." "Dry goods business?" "No. Wet goods." "Saloon?" "No. Fish market." The inquisitive stranger was quiet a moment. Then he came at him. "Find it cheaper to live out of the city?" "No. Dearer." "Rents are cheaper, ain't they?" "Yes." "Groceries and things don't cost any more, do they?" "No. Cost less." "Have to pay out too much for railroad fare?" "Railroad fare doesn't cost me seventy-five dollars a year." "Then what makes it dearer?" "Renting has been promoted to the office of Prefect of State at the Vatican, and that Rector Lorenzelli, of the Bohemian College, succeeds Monsignor Rilandini as Internuncio to the Netherlands.

Doctor Leonard Freeman, of Cincinnati, has been on a visit to Montreal. He spent two days in the office of Prefect of State at the Vatican, and that Rector Lorenzelli, of the Bohemian College, succeeds Monsignor Rilandini as Internuncio to the Netherlands.

Cardinal Logue, of Armagh, Ireland, was presented with a very beautiful address in the form of a book, and a check for $3,000 in a crimson purse, on May 19th from the general committee of the lady of Ireland. The address was eight pages, all illuminated in rich Celtic designs from the famous Book of Kells.

Dr. James Field Spalding of Cambridge, Mass., has returned to the Catholic Church, which he left shortly after his conversion about a year ago. It is said that the pressure brought to bear upon him by his family and friends was the cause of his renouncing the vows he made when he entered the Church.
