

THE DOMINION IN BRIEF.

James Campbell, a stonecutter, dropped dead at Kingston. Hon. C. H. Tupper has arrived in Ottawa from Washington. A furnace steamer ran into Halifax Friday completely out of coal. Fifty feet of the wall surrounding Kingston last fell Friday morning. The Welland Horse Breeders' Association have decided to disband. Gen. Renwick, a British army officer, is seriously ill at London, Ont. A fourteen-month-old child swallowed some pins in Montreal and died. The School Bill has received its third reading in the Manitoba Legislature. The Exemptions Bill has received its third reading in the Manitoba Legislature. There is a good deal of excitement in Halifax just now over the license question. On Friday, near Burlington a C. P. R. train struck and killed George Murphy, a farmer. Thieves stole $230 from a young man they found insensible in a lane at Montreal Friday. The bricklayers employed by the city of Montreal are out on strike for an increase of wages. Peter Moon, charged with shooting at his wife's paramour near Belleville, will be tried by a jury. John Andrew, Professor of Education in McGill University, died in Montreal at the age of 62. William H. Benjamin Odessa, has left for parts unknown. His liabilities are fixed at $10,000. The mail steamship Peruvian, which arrived at Halifax on Saturday, had a very rough passage. The Quebec Court of Appeal refused to grant the release of Lamontagne, the Wolfstown murderer. David George Swinton, of Penelon Falls, has been forbidden of uttering forged cheques at Belleville. Cardinal Taschereau celebrated the nineteenth anniversary of his consecration as archbishop, on Thursday. Mr. C. M. Conrad and H. C. Kelsey, Erie, Pa., were trying to purchase large quantities of ice at Kingston last week. The French Canadians of Kingston passed a resolution thanking Mr. Mercier for the $10,000 grant to Toronto University. The Dennis County Conservative Association in Manitoba are petitioning the Dominion Government for a reduction of duties. Mr. Beattie, of London, was dug out of his buggy by highwaymen, but discovering he was not the man they wanted they let him go. Portage la Prairie, Man., Board of Trade will ask the Dominion Government to deepen the St. Lawrence canal and aid the Hudson Bay Railway. Fifteen engravers in the Burland bank note printing establishment, Montreal, have gone on strike because a workman was fined $1.75 for spoiling work. A proposal to raise the price of liquor licenses in Montreal having failed in the City Council, a straight prohibition resolution will be brought in. A petition was presented to the House of Commons from the Toronto Board of Trade and City Council in favor of the 24 hour notation of time system. Miss Spring, an alleged clairvoyant and medium, has been prosecuted by Mr. Wesley Webb, officer of the Medical Society, and fined $50. Rev. George Jamieson, formerly of Amherstburg, has just died, leaving $100,000 to two nephews who have been working in the woods of Northern Michigan. L. M. Palmer's stove mill at Dawn, Ont., was burned on Friday night. Loss, over $13,000; insured. Cause of fire, the explosion of a lamp in the engine room. New Hamburg grants Lewis Hahn, lumber dealer, a bonus of $5,000 for the purpose of establishing a furniture factory, guaranteeing the employment of thirty men. A handsome brass tablet will be placed in St. George's Cathedral, Kingston, in commemoration of the five battery men killed during the Northwest rebellion. In a family row William Beers, a farmer living near Arner, Essex County, was attacked by his sixteen-year-old son with a club, and is so badly cut about the head that there is no hope of his recovery. Mr. George Bury, Jun., who has been private secretary to President Van Horn for the past four years, has been appointed Superintendent of the North Bay section of the Canadian Pacific Railway, including the Sault Ste. Marie branch. One shareholder of the Canadian Direct Meat Company is applying to the Court of Chancery for the removal of his name from the share list, owing to alleged misstatements in the prospectus. The case is still pending. The evidence taken in Barris before the Front Valley Canal Commissioners was in favor of constructing the canal on the grounds that it would develop the resources of the country and tend to lower the present high railway tariff. The American tug Mogul has been libelled by Victoria, B. C., for alleged infringement of the Canadian customs law, and bonds to the value of $800 have been deposited pending an appeal to Ottawa. The trouble arose over the towing of a schooner. Recently the city of Montreal in a liquor case subpoenaed a wrong witness, who not responding was arrested, handcuffed and retained two days in jail. He sued the city and recovered $100 and costs. Judge Wurtelle severely condemned the treatment the witness received. Some strangers are said to have been in Guelph recently, gleaming information as to firms which have not registered their co-partnership. A dozen complaints have been filed. The law requires all partnerships to be registered within six months under penalty of a fine of $100. Five hundred dollars of the fund for a memorial to the late Prof. Young of Toronto University, for which $4,100 has been subscribed, will be used to purchase a bronze bust of the late Professor, and the balance will be devoted toward the foundation and maintenance of the philosophical branch of the library of the University. Officers are endeavoring to secure a young man named James, who came to Saratoga from England a few months ago. He made claims to having had vast estates in the Old Country, and worked into good society, and cut quite a "swath." He has skipped, leaving his lands out about $130, after getting his goods out of her house without her knowing it. He was familiarly known as "Lord James." William Blair, first turnkey in the county jail at Kingston, while locking the cells was set upon by Prisoner Burns, who beat him with a heavy mop. After he had fallen on the floor Burns, assisted by Prisoner Little, sounded him on the head with a large iron key. Two men carried Blair to his quarters in an unconscious state. A physician examined the unfortunate man's head and found six scalp wounds. He is very low.

NEWS OF THE WORLD.

The Duke of Manchester is dead. Henry M. Stanley will leave Egypt on April 7th. Austria distrusts Emperor William's leaning toward the Czar. The Socialists will run 30 candidates at the coming elections in Italy. The Ohio River is 48 feet 6 inches high and rising two inches an hour. The damage done by continued floods throughout Italy is estimated at 4,000,000 francs. Prince Bismarck has made arrangements to vacate the palace of the Chancellor at an early date. Bartholdi is horrified at the use to which it is proposed to put the island on which stands his statue. The Cocopah Indians in Lower California are said to be on the warpath, and massacres are feared. Gen. Von Caprivi, commander of the 10th army corps has stepped into Prince Bismarck's official shoes. The work of the Berlin Labor Conference is so far advanced that the final sittings are expected on April 9. Five hundred students in St. Petersburg are in prison for riotous conduct against the University authorities. Gen. Francis H. Smith, for 50 years superintendent of the Virginia militia institute at Lexington, Va., is dead. Two men were blown to atoms and twenty injured by an explosion in a government powder shed at Spandan. A Congo despatch says the bodies of the victims of the recent massacre at Ubungu were eaten by the natives. Thomas Hope, of New York, bequeathed $50,000 to found a hospital at Langholm, Scotland, where he was born. Eight thousand employees of the Armstrong Gun Works at Elswick have struck for a working day of eight hours. Sister Rose Gertrude has not been permitted to enter as a nurse, the Molokai leper settlement in the Hawaiian Islands. Forged notes to the amount of 500,000 pesetas have been discovered in a package of funds taken to a bank at Madrid from Seville. A negro was killed, several people injured and fourteen houses demolished by a cyclone at Edgemont village, South Carolina, on Saturday. It is reported the three principal leather manufacturers in Newark, N. J., have made terms with an English syndicate. The selling price is less than $5,000,000. An official announcement that Great Britain disavows the occupation of the disputed Shire territory has allayed the excitement of the people in Lisbon. Mr. David Stevenson, father of Mrs. Burchell, arrived in New York by the steamer Germanic on Saturday. He will look after the interests of his daughter in Canada. A special edition of the Berlin Reichsanzeiger contains Imperial rescripts cordially thanking Prince Bismarck for his services and appointing him Duke of Lauenburg. The strike of the Liverpool stevedores has caused a scarcity of chemicals among the tint glass workers of Pittsburgh, Pa., and may be compelled to shut down. Eight hundred leather dressers made a demonstration at Paris Sunday against the prohibition of imports of live cattle. Their delegates were received by the ministers. A company has been organized in Chicago which, its promoters say, will build the largest plate glass factory in the world at Elwood, Ind. The capital stock is $2,000,000. Advice has been received from Quillman, East Africa, to the effect that a Portuguese customs official and his escort of 300 natives have been massacred near Lake Nyassa. The ejection of the boomers from the Cheyenne strip has begun in earnest. Large numbers of settlers have been escorted by squads of United States troops over the line into Kansas. A St. Petersburg despatch says the Russian Government has been disagreeably impressed by the meetings held in England and America to denounce the outrages committed upon exiles in Siberia. A man named Barr was blown to atoms, and a mother and her babe were instantly killed Saturday by an explosion of nitro glycerine near Stone, a small station north of Decatur, Ill. The statistics of the Suez canal for the year 1889 show that of the tonnage passing through during that period 78 per cent was under the British flag and 5 per cent under that of France. A sensation has been caused at Paris by the disappearance of Saint Saens, the composer. A rumor of his death was current, and another report was that he had been placed in a mad house. Gen. von Goltz will succeed Her von Maybach as Prussian minister of public works. Gen. Von Goltz was in the United States in 1875 and 1876, studying the operation of the railroads of that country. Alexander Alexander, an old resident, was struck down by a stranger on one of the streets of Saginaw, Mich., on Friday night, and soon died. A man named Weiss has been arrested on suspicion. Guthron Obsonga, a Swede and a faith-fulist in Brooklyn, N. Y., was indicted on Saturday for manslaughter in the second degree for allowing his 10 months' old son to lie without medical attendance. The Governor of New York State has issued a proclamation offering a reward of one thousand dollars for the arrest and conviction of the person who abducted and murdered Maggie Hourigan on or about October 14, 1889, in the town of Middle Falls, Washington county. The music hall singers in London are making quite a hit with a song composed on Attorney-General Webster's recent denial in the House of Commons that he had ever said he would prove the truth of the charges and all legations brought by the London Times against Irish members. Miss Emily Virgil was fatally burned at her father's home in Conestock, Washington county, N. Y. She had not been in her right mind for some time. Miss Virgil had set her clothes on fire, and after everything had been burned off her she walked to her brother's house, where she died. Clarence J. Toot, the long-missing account-keeper of the United States Express Company at Grand Rapids, Mich., who disappeared mysteriously last November, has arrived home and been placed under arrest, saying himself up. He also gave up $400 in money and a $300 package of diamonds. The result of the conference of the Executive Council of the Federation of Labor in New York last Saturday has just been made public. Vice-President Martin says no one made will be ordered to demand the eight-hour law nor strike to enforce the demand. It was optional with each trade to say whether it desired or thought it could secure the eight-hour day. Communications sent to the Federation from nearly all trades say they desire to and are able to win eight hours, action is left to the strongest trade.

Rich and Poor,

Princes and Peasants, the Millionaire and Day Laborer, by their common use of the remedy, attest the world-wide reputation of Ayer's Pills. Leading physicians recommend these pills for Stomach and Liver Troubles, Costiveness, Biliousness, and Sick Headache; also, for Rheumatism, Jaundice, and Neuralgia. They are sugar-coated; contain no calomel; are prompt, but mild, in operation; and, therefore, the very best medicine for Family Use, as well as for Travelers and Tourists. "I have derived great relief from Ayer's Pills. Five years ago I was taken so ill with Rheumatism that I was unable to do any work. I took three boxes of Ayer's Pills and was entirely cured. Since that time I am never without a box of these pills." - Peter Christensen, Sherwood, Wis. "Ayer's Pills have been in use in my family upwards of twenty years and are entirely cured. In attacks of piles, from which I suffered many years, they afford greater relief than any other medicine I ever tried." - T. F. Adams, Holly Springs, Texas. "I have used Ayer's Pills for a number of years, and have never found anything better than them for giving me an appetite and imparting energy and strength to the system. I always keep them in the house." - R. D. Jackson, Wilmington, Del. "Two boxes of Ayer's Pills cured me of severe Headache, from which I was long a sufferer." - Emma Keyes, Hubbardston, Mass. "Whenever I am troubled with constipation, or suffer from loss of appetite, Ayer's Pills set me right again." - A. J. Kiser, Jr., Rock House, Va. "Ayer's Pills are in general demand among our customers. Our sales of them exceed those of all other pills combined. We have never known them fail to give entire satisfaction." - Wright & Hannelly, San Diego, Texas. "A negro was killed, several people injured and fourteen houses demolished by a cyclone at Edgemont village, South Carolina, on Saturday.
