Under this bill this would be permissible. He carried out the law in respect to third class tickets, but it had now ceased to do so. He produced one of these tickets. Mr. Emmerson, after discussing the nature of the bill pointed out that return tickets were sold under special circumstances and when these were not carried out the purchaser wanted to sell the ticket to another. The law in Canada was that a rebate could be had for the unused portion of the ticket. He consented to the second reading of the bill and asked that it be referred to the committee on railroads.
