YOUR KING and COUNTRY WANT YOU

The above is one of the most popular of the many fine patriotic songs now being sung wherever the British flag flies. It has a sweet, pathetic melody and a tender appeal in the simple words. This song has been sung specially by Miss Maggie Teyte (the greatest British Prima Donna) for the Columbia Graphophone Company, who are paying a royalty on each record sold to the Prince of Wales' Patriotic Fund.

↑ We have just received a shipment of 2,000 Columbia Records direct from England—the largest consignment ever received in Newfoundland at one time—consisting chiefly of Patriotic Anthems, Marches and Songs. Among these are:—

God Save the King.

La Maresillaise.

Arrival of the British troops in France.

Russian National Anthem.

Belgian National Anthem.

My Bugler Boy.

Follow the Drum.

Bravo, Territorials.

Soldiers of the King (new version).

My Volunteer.

↑ Come and hear Miss Maggie Teyte sing "Your King and Country Want You" at the U. S. Picture & Portrait Co.

The Kaiser When A Boy.

Even when a child the Kaiser was a very precocious youth. The late Mr. W. P. Frith, the famous painter, used to tell a story of the Kaiser's childhood. Wilhelm, when a little boy, was staying with the artist, and on one occasion wiped so much color on his face when in the studio that Mr. Frith had to remove it with turpentine. This painful process annoyed the rebellious young prince, and at its conclusion he administered a violent kick to the surprised artist and then flung himself under a table, where he yelled until he was tired. While Mr. Frith's method of removing paint from the Kaiser's face was not altogether unlike our process of Dry Cleaning, we are exceedingly grateful that our patrons do not adopt the Emperor's way of showing their appreciation of our good services.
