FALSE ECONOMY.

It is often remarked by customers, "I must try and make my old clothes do for the winter." Perhaps the winter may mean very much longer. To protect your body against our cold winds you want warm woollens. An investment in a good Suit or Overcoat may save you months of illness. Durable material cut and moulded to your figure by expert workmanship in the garment at MAUNDER'S. Samples and self-measuring cards sent to your address.

China Missionary Preaches.

AT COCHRANE STREET CHURCH.

The Rev. T. W. Kennington, a Missionary of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, who is a passenger on the S.S. Winifredian, preached last night at Cochrane Street Centennial Church. The pulpit was to have been occupied by Rev. Dr. Curtis, the occasion being the annual Missionary Service. He however, readily gave way to Mr. Kennington, who has been for the past eight years on the mission in Central China. Mr. Kennington's address was listened to with rapt interest by the large congregation. Another pleasant surprise was the appearance as chairman of the meeting of Mr. Reuben Gilles, who only arrived by the Sackem yesterday. Mr. Gilles, who has been absent from his native town for more than twenty years, formerly took an active part in the early life of the Church.

Work of S.P.C.A. Inspector.

REPORT FOR APRIL.

The report of the S.P.C.A. Inspector for the month ending April 30th shows that 2 horses and 15 dogs were destroyed (shot). Eleven horses were sent off the street for treatment. During the month Inspector Barker cautioned 33 drivers, and had one fined for riding on load. He also attended to the landing of 43 head of cattle from the Sable I. One of these animals was disabled and the Inspector had it removed by a sloven. In addition, two shipments of horses, which came by train from the lumber camps, were attended to and a number of stables visited. The owners of the latter have promised to put them in better condition in accordance with the suggestions made by the Inspector.

Big Variety Show At the Nickel.

BEBE DANIELS AND CHARLIE CHAPLIN ARE FEATURED.

The most varied and interesting show for some time, is at the Nickel Theatre to-day. The first feature is the Baritone soloist, Mr. Henry G. Kelly, who sings to-night "Prologue" and "At Dawning." Secondly, Charlie Chaplin, the one and only appears in one of his famous two-act comedy riots, entitled "The Floorwalker." The feature attraction is however a big five-act Realist picture, "Class" with Bebe Daniels, the screen's most popular comedienne, in the leading role. This is the splendid social dramatic offering adapted from the Saturday Evening Post story which was read by millions of readers of this popular weekly. The Nickel announces the wonderful heart story, "Dinky" which comes to this theatre at an early date. In it is featured the famous juvenile star, Wesley Barry, the chap with the freckles.

To-Day's Big Bill at the Crescent.

VOCALIST WILL APPEAR IN SPECIAL COSTUME.

Miss Betty Donn, the popular soprano at the Crescent has something new in store for patrons attending the week-opening show. Miss Donn will sing "Killarney" which is always new to music lovers and will in special costume render "The Kerry Dance." This will be the first time that this song has been sung by Betty Donn. The picture to be screened at this theatre to-night. This is a well known story to all book-lovers. The story concerns an American sailor, born in Sweden, who by his love for a certain girl invests his money in something appertaining to her welfare, and finds that he has lost both money and girl. This, however, causes him such anxiety which is not remedied until the final reconciliation. The plot, offers the popular comedienne Will Rogers, fresh opportunities to bring off his abilities as a first class character actor.

Obituary.

JAMES BOLAND.

On Sunday morning, after a protracted illness, James Boland, a well known Veteran, passed away at his home, 148 Duckworth Street. The deceased, who was in his 43rd year, was a son of Wm. Boland, printer at the Royal Gazette office. "Jimmy" as he was familiarly known and his brother Michael fought in the great war. He was wounded in the July (1916) drive whilst Michael was taken prisoner. After recovery he again saw action but was gassed in Nov. 1917, at Cambria, the effects of which remained with him until death relieved him of his sufferings. He leaves to mourn their sad loss, a father, mother, two brothers, Alexander and Michael, the two well known painters, and one sister, Mrs. Richard English.
