The capture of Cronje's army, and battle of Paardeburg on May 24th, is going to be a great show. In fact, we believe it will be the best thing of the kind ever witnessed in this section of Ontario. While hauling some wood with "Old Tom" one of Mr. Martin Harris' big grey horses on Friday last, Billy Paupst had an exciting experience. He was in the alley on the bank of the creek and in backing up the old horse backed too far and fast and went over the bank, taking the wagon and wheel with it. They rolled down the bank about 25 feet, all in a bunch, and landed in the creek. The old horse took things more philosophically than Billy did on the bank, and came out with only a small scratch. The wagon was not hurt, and only one strap was broken on the harness.

The Maple Leaf.

As there are several different versions of the stanzas of "The Maple Leaf," we have been asked to print the following as the words that will be used by the pupils on May 24th, at the demonstration here, and to request all teachers to use these words in their rehearsals:

In days of yore the hero Wolfe,
Britain's glory did maintain,
And planted firm Old England's flag
On Canada's fair domain.
Here may it wave, our boast, our pride,
And joined in love together,
The Thistle, Shamrock, Rose entwined,
The Maple Leaf forever.

CHORUS.

The Maple Leaf, our emblem dear,
The Maple Leaf forever
God save our Queen, and heaven bless
The Maple Leaf forever.

On many hard fought battle-fields,
Our brave fathers side by side,
For freedom, homes and loved ones dear
Firmly stood and nobly died.
And those dear rights which they maintained,
We swear to yield them never;
We'll rally 'round the Union Jack,
The Maple Leaf forever.

God bless our loved, Canadian homes,
May plenty ever be our lot,
And peace hold an eternal reign,
Our union bound by ties of love,
That discord cannot sever,
And flourish green o'er freedom's home
The Maple Leaf forever.

On merry England's far-famed land,
May kind heaven sweetly smile,
God bless old Scotland evermore,
And England's Emerald Isle,
Then swell the song both loud and long
Till rocks and forests quiver,
God save our Queen and heaven bless
The Maple Leaf forever.
