The Glencoe Transcript. THURSDAY, MARCH 1, 1877.

A meeting of the Ekfrid Branch Agricultural Society, was held at Appin, on Saturday. From what took place we learn there is not much probability of the Townships combining with the Glencoe Society in holding the show in the town this year.

Mr. Holmes, of Appin, and James McRae, of Glencoe, have both been fined at the instance of the Inspector for selling liquors without license.

The Inspector of Weights and Measures has been busy during the week in town, rectifying the articles in use to which his office assigns him.

Last Friday evening, the Rev. W. R. Sutherland, of Knox's Church, Ek-frid, was waited on, principally by the frid, was waited on, principally by the rural portion of his congregation as a be finished with 36 seats, with iron surprise party, at his residence, where arms complete, the 1st day of July next, a pleasant evening was spent, and a purse of upwards of $70 presented to ground has not yet been let. the pastor's amiable lady.

INCENDIARY FIRE.—This morning about one o'clock, the house of John Cattle food is getting short and is being enquired after. Hay is selling Waudby as well as a shed distant about in town at from $9 to $10 a ton. 4 rods from the house, were set on fire, by some one unknown.
