Milwaukee, Sept. 14.-Wheat-No. 1 North- | Special to C. E. Turner, broker, Masonic Temple. Chicago, Sept. 14.-Wheat-The morning papers had considerable news regarding new issue of bonds. The stock market broke badly and wheat followed that. The shorts who covered yesterday were noticeable as the best sellers, although some of the old time bears were seen helping the decline. If the money situation had been agitated wheat would have sold higher. Cables strong; clearance only fair. Corn-Good buying of May corn again, but receipts continue large. Market fairly steady. Provisions dull but easy. Trade has been confided to the pit traders. Dairy Markets.

GUELPH. Guelph, Ont., Sept. 13.—Six factories were represented at the cheese board today, and 1,470 boxes offered. No sales; 7 1-2c was the highest bid.

Montreal Star. —Squires J. B. Smyth and R. F. Lacey yesterday gave judgment in the case of Nellie Cornelius, charged with taking liquor on the Indian reserve at Oneida. They found her not guilty. This was the second case of the kind from Oneida within a few weeks.
About Aug. 20 the Cornelius woman had Washington Doxtater, and Indian constable, before Squire Lockwood, at Delaware, and charged him with ringing whisky into the reserve. Washington was fined $20 and costs, and within a few days he turned up and furnished information which led Detective Ward to lodge complaint against Nellie Cornelius. At the trial the defendant admitted having liquor in her house, but swore it was taken there by Doxtater. Several other wit-nesses corroborated her evidence.

WILLIAM F. BULLEN, MANAGER. OFFICE-Corner Dundas Street and Market Lane, London, zxt

tice. Some interesting matches may be expected in the near future. STRUCK BY THE TROLLEY.

Mr. Joseph Leah, builder, Elias street east, was nearly a victim of the trolley yesterday. He was engaged in hauling a load of lumber on Dundas street east, and by some means the wagon got too close to the track. A trolley car controlled by Motorman Busby came along and struck the wagon, breaking the reach, driving the wheels together, and spilling Mr. Leah and the lumber on the road—luckily on the side farthest away from the car. He escaped with some bruises. THE LETTER CARRIERS' CONCERT. The letter carriers' concert at the new London Music Hall last night was a pronounced success. From beginning to end each and every number went with a boom. Where everything was so good it is hard to discriminate, but the most pronounced successes were Mr. H. R. McDonald, Mr. Alex. Furness, Miss Anna O'Keefe, Miss Jennie Woodward, the male quartet, Messrs. Lockhart, McCormick, Welch and Capt. T. Robson; and Mr. J. T. Dalton, under whose direction the concert was given. Mr. Dalton sang a new song, entitled the "Noble Boy of Truth," and was most cordially received and encored. The letter carriers are to be congratulated on a most successful encitizens. The new Music Hall is an acquisi-ion to the city, and under proper management will fill a long felt want for first-class entertainments.

A NARROW ESCAPE. The driver of Joseph McLeod's milk wagon narrowly escaped meeting with a terrible accident, at the Maitland street Tuesday Sept. 17, and following days crossing of the Grand Trunk at 8 o'clock this morning. He was driving south on Maitland, and as he approached the tracks a yard engine passed westward. He pulled his horse up, and after the engine was over the crossing, proceeded to drive across. a leng coal shed obstructs a view of the track to the west and the milkman had nearly driven on the north track when the eastbound accommodation came along. The man jumped from the rig and pulled the horse around in the nick of time. One of the shafts was broken and the horse's hoof cut by the cow catcher. The crossing watchman, Mr. Johnston, had signaled the driver to halt, but the warning was apparently unnoticed owing doubtless to the fact that a wagon stood in the way. ASSAULTED A CONSTABLE.

Wm. Bacon, a respectable looking young man, got drunk last night in company with Timothy Sullivan, Fred Lyons and two or three other chaps well known to the police. On King street, near Richmond, the crowd became disorderly, and Sullivan began to yell at the top of his voice. He was placed under arrest by P. C. Ralph, when Bacon jumped on the officer, caught him by the throat and endeavored to force him to re-lease Sullivan. Ralph did so, and took Bacon to the lock-up, while the ungrateful Timothy disappeared down a dark alleyway. The prisoner was fined $20 or one month in jail by the police magistrate this morning. 'If you keep on with that gang you will wind up in the penitentiary," said the P. M., as he levied the fine.

Fred Lyons wanted to get out to his work, but his appearances in the dock were numerous considering his age and he was fined $5 or twenty days. He murmured at the sentence and was threatened with the Central Prison if he didn't keep mum. Patrick Tierney and Wm. McKinn were fined $2 or ten days. Archie McLellan, an old timer, and Arthur Cook, were discharged. BOOKS FOR THE FREE LIBRARY. Messrs. E. R.
