

PRETTY BLINDS

Make a home look complete. To have good ones you must go where the purchase can be guaranteed, where the stock is large and varied and prices are cheap. If you look over our stock you will see styles and colors that no other store can show.

O. B. GRAVES,
222 Dundas Street.

Souvenirs.

We have just opened out a new line of Souvenirs, with cuts of the following buildings: St. Paul's Cathedral, St. Peter's Cathedral, Dundas Street Methodist Church, and the London Court House. Bring your friends in to see them when they come to the city, or if you would like a nice present to take to some friend when you go out of the city give us a call.

YEO'S CHINA HALL
177 Dundas Street.

GUNS...

Fine gun repairing is our specialty. Restocking, Stock Bending, Choke Boring, Barrel Boring. Loaded Shotgun Shells, $1.50 per 100.

W. A. BROCK,
192 Dundas St., London.

DARK DAYS

and long evenings will soon be on us. You'll need more artificial light than now. Let us give you estimates for Electric Lighting. It's the cleanest and softest light.

London Electric Co., Limited,
620 Richmond Street. zxy

NOTICE

R. K. GOWAN, Barrister, etc., has removed his office to the County Buildings, Court House Square, corner Dundas and Front streets, where he will continue his law practice.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Stoves, Stoves, Stoves.

Box stoves, big stoves, cook stoves, little stoves, parlor stoves—all kinds of stoves and furniture, bedroom suites, mattresses, pillows, feather beds and mattresses cleaned. Stoves brought at HUNT & SONS, 593 to 597 Richmond Street North. Telephone, 597.

We guard against low-grade furniture, and also have a desire to please our customers. We keep only furniture of the best, at lowest prices. TRAF-FORD'S, 95 and 97 King Street.

Photography Artist. Photography. Portraits. Unusually so essential in first-class portraiture to be had every day at Frank Cooper's old established studio over 159, 161 and 173 Dundas Street.

Excursion to Chicago.

On Sept. 29 and Oct. 1 and 2, ticket agents in Canada will sell round trip tickets to Chicago via Wabash Railroad, at less than the one-way fare. Tickets good to return up to Oct. 18. All tickets should read via Detroit and Wabash new line, the short and best route to the Windy City. Trains leave London 11:55 a.m. and 8:15 p.m., and vestibuled trains for Chicago. Detailed information from any railroad agent, or J. A. Richardson, Canadian passenger agent, northeast corner King and Yonge streets, Toronto. 531F

Screen Doors.

Our combined storm and screen door is a screen for summer, with removable panels for winter. The price of one, since there is but one left for hardware and hanging, and no trouble to store. Saves its cost each year! Changed in one minute! With our carter a door cannot sag. McMann & Co., 209 Clarence Street.

A New York insurance company is getting a good deal of lucrative business in China.

A DINNER PILL.—Many persons suffer excruciating agony after partaking of a hearty dinner. The food partaken of is like a ball of lead upon the stomach, and instead of being a healthy nutriment it becomes a poison to the system. Dr. Parnele's Vegetable Pills are wonderful correctives of such troubles. They correct acidity, open the secretions and convey the food partaken of into healthy nutriment. They are just the medicine to take if troubled with indigestion or dyspepsia.

A mechanical device recently patented pastes paper labels on 100,000 rings in ten hours.

The Wonder of the Age.

Dear Sirs—I must honestly say that I have tried your valuable medicine, B. B. B., for the disease called prairie itch, and have found this remedy to be the wonder of the age. I took only three bottles, and to my great satisfaction was completely cured. I can highly recommend it to all who suffer from any skin disease or impurity of the blood.

HAROLD DIX, Rat Portage, Ont.

The Western Negro Press Association, at its recent meeting in Kansas City, Kan., passed resolutions advocating the spelling of negroes with a capital "N," but Henry Watterson will continue to spell it with a little "n" and two "g's."

ANGUSTURA BITTERS are the best remedy for removing indigestion and all diseases originating from the digestive organs. Beware of counterfeits. Ask your grocer or druggist for the genuine article, manufactured by Dr. J. G. B. Siegert & Sons.

COUGH SYRUP OF LINSEED CURE, AND TAR.

The old reliable never fails to effect a cure. Beware of imitations.

—FOR SALE BY—

N. W. EMERSON,
DRUGGIST,
491 Richmond Street.

When It's Cold

Then it's time to think of your stoves. If you require stoves of any style, come to us. We can show you the largest assortment in the city.

'Phone, 462.
STEVELLY'S,
362 Richmond Street.

FAIR AND MODERATELY WARM.

Toronto, Ont., Sept. 21—11 p.m.—The storm center which was off the New England coast yesterday has moved rapidly northward to Newfoundland, causing high wind with rain throughout the Maritime Provinces. A West India hurricane now off the Florida coast is likely to move northward. The weather has been fine and warm in the Northwest Territories and Manitoba, and fair and a little warmer in Ontario. A few showers have occurred in the Upper Lake region. Minimum and maximum temperatures: Esquimaux, 48-60; Kamloops, 52-80; Edmonton, 44-84; Calgary, 40-80; Qu'Appelle, 46-86; Winnipeg, 38-80; Port Arthur, 42-72; Parry Sound, 28-58; Toronto, 34-62; Ottawa, 34-58; Montreal, 40-52; Quebec, 42-52; Halifax, 53-64.

PROBABILITIES.
Toronto, Sept. 22—1 a.m.—Probabilities for 24 hours for lower lake region: Moderate to fresh southwest and west winds; fair and moderately warm.

LOCAL TEMPERATURES.
The highest and lowest readings of the thermometer at the observatory yesterday were 64 and 29 above.

Asters Superbium!

Our potted Asters are grand. Come and see them. Beautifully decorative and they'll last.

GAMMAGE & SONS, Corner Dundas and Clarence Sts.

HAVANA CIGAR,

FIVE CENTS.

AT JOE NOLAN'S, Masonic Temple.

Your Eyesight

Your health and your comfort rests with the health of your glasses. Consult the only exclusive refractor in Canada.

F. C. LaGrange, M. O.
212 Dundas Street.

In the Dining-Room.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 22.

BREAKFAST—Bananas. Cup of omelet. Baked potatoes. Corn and rice muffins. Coffee.

LUNCHEON—Ham and egg sandwiches. Spiced peaches. Jam and puffs. Tea with lemon juice.

DINNER—French shoulder of veal. Mashed potatoes. Sweet potatoes, baked. Jellied grapes. Coffee.

Cut out these recipes and paste them in a scrap-book.

Cup Omelet—One and one-half cups cold meat (any kind) chopped fine, one and one-half cups of bread crumbs, three beaten eggs, one cup of milk, one-half teaspoonful of salt, one-half teaspoonful of pepper. Stir all together and fill five small buttered cups; set cups in pan of hot water and bake until firm in center. Turn out on a platter and serve.

Corn and Rice Muffins—Two cups of white cornmeal sifted with a teaspoonful of salt, one and one-half cups of milk, one-half cup of melted butter, enough boiling water to scald it all and leave it thick (about three cups); let cool, then add one cup sour milk, one-half teaspoonful of soda dissolved in milk, and two well-beaten eggs. Bake in gem tins one-half hour.

Ham and Eggs Sandwiches—Chop one cup of cold boiled ham very fine, put three fresh eggs in boiling water, and let simmer one-half hour, then place them in a colander to remove the shells easily; chop the eggs fine, add to the ham; season with a salt-spoonful of dry mustard and one-half cup quantity of cayenne pepper. Slice bread a day old very thin, cut in rounds with biscuit cutter, spread thinly with butter, then with the ham and egg mixture, cover with another buttered round. (The crusts and pieces of bread should be dried in a slow oven and rolled to be used in croquettes, etc.)

Spiced Peaches—To seven pounds of peaches take four pounds of sugar and a pint of vinegar. Stick two cloves into each peach, prick with a fork and stew until tender. Lay them in a jar and pour on them the well-boiled and boiling syrup. Let them stand 24 hours, pour off the syrup, scald and pour again over the fruit. When cold they are ready for use. Peaches that are not soft enough to slice may be used.

Jam Puffs—Roll out puff paste very thin, cut in rounds with large cookie-cutter, lay a tablespoonful of jam (any kind) on each, roll the edges with white of an egg, fold over and pinch the edges firmly together, brush over with the egg, and bake fifteen minutes.

The above makes a good school lunch, in which case each separate piece should be wrapped in tissue paper, the peaches put in a small glass or earthen dish with cover, and a bottle of milk or milk and coffee substituted for the tea.

French Shoulder of Veal—Cut the meat into small pieces, lay the bones and trimmings into another pot and stew them slowly for two hours (to make the gravy) in a quart of water. Put the meat into the dish in which it is to be served, sprinkle over it a teaspoonful of salt, a fourth as much cayenne pepper, the yolks of four eggs, a lemon juice, and a half a pint of nutmeg. Use the juice of lemon.

New Shoes.

The Good Will Of the Masses

Is of inestimable value to any establishment. Fair treatment, honest dealings, and liberal business methods, has always won for us the trade of the vast army of purchasers in London.

We invite you all to call on us, whether you desire buying footwear or not, and inspect our new stock of Men's, Women's and Children's Shoes, Trunks and Valises at low prices. Seeing is believing.

POCOCK BROS

London Advertiser.

TELEPHONE NUMBERS.

157.....Business Office.
154.....Editorial Rooms.
175.....Job Department.

on for tea. Add a tablespoonful of butter rolled in the same quantity of flour; strain the gravy, pour it over the meat and bake until brown in a hot oven.

Jellied Grapes—Place two cups of washed and stemmed grapes in a deep dish (a good way to use the loose grapes in a basket), sprinkle among them one-half cup of each of boiled rice and sugar, pour over them one-half cup of water, cover closely, and bake two hours in slow oven. Serve very cold with cream. A delicate dish.

A Local Budget

—Mr. Geo. C. Gibbons, Q.C., went to New York on business last night.

—Master Frank Hobbs left yesterday to attend college at St. Catharines.

—The sale advertised by Neil Cooper to be held at 241 Horton street, has been postponed until further notice.

—Mr. James Murdoch, having spent a pleasant visit with Mr. Chester Wilson, has returned to his home in Wingham.

—Mrs. C. W. Davis, of the Tecumseh House, is rapidly recovering from her long illness, and was able yesterday to receive the calls of her friends.

—The regular meeting of the water commissioners was not held yesterday afternoon, as there was no business of importance to come before the board.

—Miss May Shopland has been engaged as soprano soloist in the First Congregational Church. She will assist the choir for the first time on Sunday next.

—Corp. H. Millie re-engaged on Monday for another term of three years in No. 1 company. Corp. Millie has just completed nine years of faithful and efficient service.

—A notice of appeal from the chancellor's order for a mandamus has been served on Mr. Bartram by Messrs. Meredith, Cameron, Judd & Dringdale, on behalf of Treasurer Rockett.

—Mr. W. H. Liddell, principal of London West public school, gave an evening with Longfellow at the Kensington Methodist Mission Monday evening, which was much enjoyed by the large audience present.

—Mr. W. C. Fitzgerald, the solicitor for the plaintiff in the well known cases of Parkhouse and Baker against the Oddfellows, left for Toronto this morning to appear on his clients' behalf in the court of appeal.

—On the occasion of his marriage yesterday, Mr. Karl Wildern, inspector for the Bell Telephone Company, was presented by his fellow-employees with a combination bookcase and secretary. It is an elegant piece of furniture. Mr. Wildern is deservedly popular with his associates.

—A meeting of the board of managers of the Y. M. C. A. was held last night. A number of minor matters were dealt with, and final arrangements made for Rev. C. H. Yattman's meetings. Although no report was submitted regarding the sporting grounds, the prevalent opinion is that Tecumseh Park will be secured.

—Among the Western Fair exhibits which attracted much attention were the ideal galvanized steel windmills, the Maple Leaf grinders, and the gearless fanning mills—the manufacture of the Gould, Shapley & Muir Company (Limited), of Brantford. The Advertiser commented favorably on the display during the fair, but the address of the company was inadvertently omitted. The galvanized steel flag-pole, made by the same firm, was another novelty mentioned at the time.

—A harvest home supper in connection with the Ark Methodist Church was held last evening. Tea was served from 6 to 8 o'clock, after which addresses were given by Rev. Mr. Fair and Rev. J. P. Morden. An excellent programme was then provided by Messrs. H. R. McDonald, the celebrated elocutionist and vocalist, and Reginald Hudson. Mr. McDonald's selections delighted the audience in the highest degree, while Mr. Hudson's instrumental quartets were not only heartily enjoyed, but served to display his versatility, as no fewer than four instruments were mastered at once. The evening's entertainment was brought to a close by singing "God Save the Queen."

—Rev. C. H. Yattman, the well known evangelist, who has recently returned from a trip around the world, and who is well known here, will be in the city

Our Latest Offer!

CORN COB PIPE FOR ONE CENT.

SAM. K. STEWART, 202½ Dundas St.

on Saturday next, on invitation of the Y. M. C. A. He will conduct a union service on Saturday evening in the Auditorium, and will tell something about his travels in South Africa. On Sunday he will preach in the First Methodist Church, morning and evening, and in the afternoon a big men's meeting will be held in the Auditorium, when Mr. Yattman will speak on "Preaching to the Lepers of Hawaii" and the Kaffirs of South Africa." Monday afternoon service will be held in the Auditorium, and evening service in one of the large churches.

—Rev. John Robertson, D.D., of Glasgow, resumed his services to men only at the Y. M. C. A. Auditorium last evening before a large audience. Mr. C. R. Sayer, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., presided. The speaker described a type of character, which he described as all front, like a shop with a great glass window outside, and small boxes inside. Polish was not salvation, and it hid hearts as black as the pit, and as rotten as hell. Earnestness, morality, culture, education, riches, position may all be good, but with them, and only them, the soul will be damned. Salvation was the one thing needful. Dr. Robertson will speak tonight on "The Man Who Missed It."

—David Yokom is missing from his home at 299 George street, Toronto, and his wife and family are anxious as to his whereabouts. The missing man is a carpenter by trade, and left his home on July 5, with a man named Gratton, to go to Stratford, to work for the Grand Trunk Railway. Since July 26, Mr. Yokom has not been heard of by his family. This morning he was going on that date saying he was going to Brussels and London. He was employed by the Toronto Railway Company for over twelve years, and is temperate in habits, and was highly thought of by his fellow-workmen. He is 49 years of age, 5 feet 7 inches in height, dark, but turning gray, and walks with a limp, there being about an inch difference between the left and right leg.

REV. FAY MILLS AND HIS WORK.

No topic is being discussed so eagerly and generally in Boston religious circles this autumn as the movement soon to be inaugurated in music hall there by Rev. B. Fay Mills, who conducted special services in this city last year. This well-known evangelist, hitherto connected with the Presbyterian and Congregational denominations, has in years past held frequent evangelistic campaigns in Boston, of the old-time orthodox order. Now, however, he returns to that city under totally different auspices, coming as the apostle of what he calls the "Gospel of Social Reconstruction." While he is not ready to avow himself a Unitarian to the exclusion of his connection with evangelical denominations, he was raised to a committee of representative Unitarian laymen, and several thousand dollars have already been raised to carry out his plan to begin his Sunday evening services about the middle of October.

STUPID DEATH OF MRS. GEORGE T. HISCOX.

The very sudden death of Mrs. George T. Hiscox, of this city, occurred at Clinton last evening. The news will be heard with the deepest regret by her wide circle of friends in London. Mrs. Hiscox left the city on Saturday morning to visit relatives in Clinton, and the same evening was stricken with apoplexy. Her husband was at once summoned, reaching Clinton on Sunday morning, to find Mrs. Hiscox hovering between life and death. She did not rally, but died at 6 o'clock last night. She was the daughter of Mr. R. H. Tenbury, the founder of Clinton, and was married to Mr. Hiscox in 1877. Three daughters and one son survive. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the community, in which Mrs. Hiscox was a valuable and deeply respected member. By her numerous friends Mrs. Hiscox was much loved for her amiable disposition and good deeds. She had not enjoyed robust health for years. The remains will be brought home this evening.

REV. DR. WILDT.

Mr. J. J. Speltigue, of this city, a friend of Rev. Dr. Wildt, the well known Congregationalist, has received a letter from him, in which he says: "I have just finished six weeks of vacation. The time I put in mostly at the Santo Catalini Island, situated in the Pacific Ocean, about 35 miles from the southern coast of California. It is the best fishing place I have ever known, and I enjoyed my visit there very much. I am well and my church is doing

Those Old Shoes You're Wearing

Don't suit you, do they? Call and see our new American styles and shapes for ladies' and gentlemen's fall and winter wear. They are new, up-to-date and cheap, made specially for us. You don't need to buy; just see them and examine them at

JOHNSTON'S,
198 Dundas St.

New Trunks, Valises and Purses.

Special

Designs IN

HATS AND BONNETS

Kingsmill's

Announce the Opening of Their Imported Designs
of

Hats and Bonnets

ON

Wednesday, Sept. 22

YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED TO ATTEND.

finely. The weather here is always fine. How is Mr. Padley and his church getting on? The present trouble in Europe will not amount to much—time not yet come. Am pleased the Laurier government is doing so well. The venerable doctor is now living at Los Angeles, Cal., where his church is

HE PULLED THE TRIGGER.

Bullet holes through three windows in the study of Joseph Fox, King street, opposite the fire hall, serve as reminders to Mr. Fox of an accident which occurred there last evening. A young man, who, Mr. Fox says, is a bank clerk, came into the store, and after dickering awhile for an English 22-caliber revolver, which was lying in the window, he drew from his pocket a 22-caliber, self-cocking revolver, and tried to effect a trade. While the two men talked over the matter the customer carelessly played with the trigger, his hand resting on the counter. Suddenly there was a report, which created some excitement in the neighborhood. The revolver had accidentally been discharged while directed towards the front window. Luckily, no one was passing the store at the time.

Butcher Shop Burned!

Mysterious and Destructive Fire at F. J. Webb's.

Flames Spread With Marvelous Rapidity—Loss About $1,000.

A frame building on the corner of Wellington and Grey streets, occupied by F. J. Webb as a butcher shop and dwelling, was badly damaged by fire last evening.

Mr. Webb was waiting upon a customer about 5:45 p.m., when his little boy opened the door leading to the work room in the rear portion of the building. The flames burst through so suddenly that the customer, a young lady, ran for the street, leaving her purchase and change behind. With marvelous rapidity the greasy material about the shop was licked up by the fire, and in very short time the whole building was ablaze.

A telephone message was sent to the central fire hall, and the department responded promptly. A hydrant was close at hand, and two streams of water were soon turned on the fire, speedily checking its progress.

The damage was about $1,000, and only the building, which was the property of Mrs. Emma Ryder, of Simcoe street, was insured. Mr. Webb unfortunately had no insurance on the contents of either the shop or dwelling. The origin of the blaze is a complete mystery.

Give Holloway's Corn Cure a trial. It removes corns from one pair of feet without any pain. What it has done once it will do again.

There will be a bigger demand than ever for players, now that the Southern League has been reorganized.

"Five years ago I was taken so ill with rheumatism that I was unable to do any work," writes Peter Christensen, Sherwood, Wis. "I took three boxes of Ayer's Pills and was entirely cured. Since that time I always keep them in the house." They are easy to take.

GRAHAM BROS.

NEW FALL UNDERWEAR

GRAHAM BROS.

AVOIDANCE OF COLDS.

Practical Suggestion for Preventing the Disagreeable Results of Drafts and Wet Feet.

[Youth's Companion.]

In a recent issue of the Companion, a few words were said concerning the usual modes of catching cold, and mention was made of the various especially sensitive areas of the body, or "cold spots," but nothing was said as to the best means of protecting these spots and preserving the body in general from colds.

It is not always sufficient, however, to point out a danger; it is often even of greater importance to show how the danger may be averted. Most people properly recognize a cold as avoidable, and think they are greatly to be commended for the prudence they exercise in protecting themselves; but if they did but know it they are really doing all they can to make themselves susceptible to colds by weakening their resistive powers.

A German professor once wrote a long treatise with a learned title on how to avoid catching cold. After tracing the history of colds from the earliest ages, studying their causes and symptoms and cataloguing the remedies which have been used by the most eminent physicians of all times he concluded with a short chapter on prevention.

His plan was to inure the back of the neck to drafts by having some one direct a current of air upon it from a bellows three times a day.

The writer had the correct idea, although his practical application was clumsy and he was a long time in reaching it. The best and only way to escape colds is to meet the causes that produce them and not to run from them.

Let the body be hardened by a cold sponge bath, or even a cold plunge, followed by brisk rubbing with a "scratchy" towel, every morning. Let the clothing be adapted to the season, though always as light as possible. Keep the neck uncovered, no turndown coat-collar, no muffler, no box. Never let the temperature in the house rise above 70 degrees in the winter. Air every room systematically every day, no matter what the outdoor temperature may be. Always have fresh air in the bedroom; there is nothing poisonous in "night air," popular belief to the contrary notwithstanding. In a word, don't always be afraid of catching cold; don't coddle, but meet cold and wet changes of temperature

GRAHAM BROS.

Gentlemen,—Just Opened, a Big Stock of Medium-Weight Underwear, that We are Showing at Special Prices.

GRAHAM BROS.

AVOIDANCE OF COLDS.

Practical Suggestion for Preventing the Disagreeable Results of Drafts and Wet Feet.

[Youth's Companion.]

In a recent issue of the Companion, a few words were said concerning the usual modes of catching cold, and mention was made of the various especially sensitive areas of the body, or "cold spots," but nothing was said as to the best means of protecting these spots and preserving the body in general from colds.

It is not always sufficient, however, to point out a danger; it is often even of greater importance to show how the danger may be averted. Most people properly recognize a cold as avoidable, and think they are greatly to be commended for the prudence they exercise in protecting themselves; but if they did but know it they are really doing all they can to make themselves susceptible to colds by weakening their resistive powers.

A German professor once wrote a long treatise with a learned title on how to avoid catching cold. After tracing the history of colds from the earliest ages, studying their causes and symptoms and cataloguing the remedies which have been used by the most eminent physicians of all times he concluded with a short chapter on prevention.

His plan was to inure the back of the neck to drafts by having some one direct a current of air upon it from a bellows three times a day.

The writer had the correct idea, although his practical application was clumsy and he was a long time in reaching it. The best and only way to escape colds is to meet the causes that produce them and not to run from them.

Let the body be hardened by a cold sponge bath, or even a cold plunge, followed by brisk rubbing with a "scratchy" towel, every morning. Let the clothing be adapted to the season, though always as light as possible. Keep the neck uncovered, no turndown coat-collar, no muffler, no box. Never let the temperature in the house rise above 70 degrees in the winter. Air every room systematically every day, no matter what the outdoor temperature may be. Always have fresh air in the bedroom; there is nothing poisonous in "night air," popular belief to the contrary notwithstanding. In a word, don't always be afraid of catching cold; don't coddle, but meet cold and wet changes of temperature

GRAHAM BROS.

Gentlemen,—Just Opened, a Big Stock of Medium-Weight Underwear, that We are Showing at Special Prices.

GRAHAM BROS.

AVOIDANCE OF COLDS.

Practical Suggestion for Preventing the Disagreeable Results of Drafts and Wet Feet.

[Youth's Companion.]

In a recent issue of the Companion, a few words were said concerning the usual modes of catching cold, and mention was made of the various especially sensitive areas of the body, or "cold spots," but nothing was said as to the best means of protecting these spots and preserving the body in general from colds.

It is not always sufficient, however, to point out a danger; it is often even of greater importance to show how the danger may be averted. Most people properly recognize a cold as avoidable, and think they are greatly to be commended for the prudence they exercise in protecting themselves; but if they did but know it they are really doing all they can to make themselves susceptible to colds by weakening their resistive powers.

A German professor once wrote a long treatise with a learned title on how to avoid catching cold. After tracing the history of colds from the earliest ages, studying their causes and symptoms and cataloguing the remedies which have been used by the most eminent physicians of all times he concluded with a short chapter on prevention.

His plan was to inure the back of the neck to drafts by having some one direct a