STOCK MARKETS.

New York, Jan. 4-Noon.—Opening prices this morning on the stock market reflected a little hysteria on the part of traders, and heavy advances were for coughs and colds. nearly every stock on the list. was a reaction from the excessive de-ession which prevailed during Satur-y, when traders went to the other extreme in selling stocks. As might have been expected, it did not take long for market to get over this undue excitement and to sober up considerably. Towards the end of the first hour it yeakened, and has been heavy ever sin it is getting remarkably dull, and it is not at all likely that it will run away during the afternoon. The railroad stocks are behaving very well. The bond market is very quiet. Sales to noon were Consols closed in London 1/8 to Ratepayers Did Not Rush to the Polls—Protests Entered With City Clerk Edwards.

It was all right, as they had been left off the list through errors in the assessment caused mainly by people changing their places of residence and by trainsfers of property. Consequently one man who owns several thousand dollars' worth of real enterty was left. The indications of last week pointed to a mayoraity contest of much interest, with a large vote, today, but the cold weather appears to have utterly positively that his name is on the list When the polls opened this morning copied and dealt with each year, and There are thusands of names to be here were not knots of men huddled it is a very easy matter for mistakes
