CHICKEN THIEVES MAKE RAID.
Chicken thieves paid the Huron College henchmen a very informal visit on Saturday night, and as a result of their call a dozen fat fowls are missing. Footprints in what little snow there was showed that the thieves had come in at the west gate and left by the same way, but further trace of their movements could not be secured.
KERR HAS RECOVERED.

William Kerr, who, while drunk, created somewhat of a sensation at Delaware Village not long ago, appeared before Squire Nugent yesterday to answer the charge of being drunk and disorderly. Kerr, at is a stranger at Delaware, had been drinking hard, and when he reached the village he was in a very bad way. He was desired to be locked up, to prevent doing harm to himself or to anyone.
He has been in jail for a couple of weeks, and the magistrate discharged him, as Kerr appeared to have recovered from the effects of his jamboree.

THOSE JOLLY DRUMMERS

Travellers to Hold First of Three Smokers Saturday Night.

Keep Saturday night disengaged.
You cannot afford to even consider the making of an engagement if you are a traveler, or have a traveler for a friend. The reason is that the travelers intend to entertain at their club on Richmond street on Saturday night, the event being the first of three smokers which are to be given. The drummers and their friends are expected to be present in large numbers.
There will be plenty of music supplied by Tony Cortese's orchestra, and there will be cigars, cards and a good time for all.

BOTH WERE FINED

Harry Steele and Fred Wyatt Assessed for Playing Rough House.

Harry Steele and Fred Wyatt were each fined $1 and costs yesterday afternoon by Squire Lacey for going into Dennis Flanagan's house, in London Township, and smashing the furniture on a Sunday not long since.

Each also has to pay one-third of the damage inflicted on the property.
The chief culprit, Fred Blackwell, was unable to be in court owing to illness. It developed from the evidence that the work was done at the instigation of Blackwell. The trio went to Flanagan's house without an invitation, and had a "rare good time," smashing furniture, flower pots, etc.
They had annoyed Flanagan some before that, also. Blackwell will appear as soon as his health permits. He is at present serving 21 days for being disorderly and carrying obscene pictures.

DATE NOT YET FIXED

Time of Tariff Commissioners' Sessions in London Still Undecided.

President Arthur White, of the board of trade, has been notified by Secretary Bain, of the tariff commission, that the date of the London sitting of the commission has not yet been decided upon, but that as soon as the date has been fixed he will be informed without delay, so that the manufacturers will have ample time to prepare their arguments.

President White also informed The Advertiser today that arrangements have been made with Mr. Heaton, the insurance expert of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, to read a paper on insurance before the London Board of Trade, on the occasion of the regular meeting on the last Friday of the month.

the ballot, Mrs. Wright won out by a vote of 56 to 14.

The returns of the vote on the informal ballot were as follows: Mrs.
Wright, London, 43; Mrs. Sanderson, Quebec, 13; Mrs. Thornley, 11; Mrs.
Gordon, Ottawa, 2; Mrs. Rutherford, Toronto, 2; Mrs. Craig, Alberta, 1. On the second ballot Mrs. Wright, London, received 56 votes, and Mrs. Sanderson, Quebec, 14. Mrs. Wright was declared

GOOD VAUDEVILLE

BILL THIS WEEK

Acts Are First Class, With "A Matrimonial Revolution" as the Top Liner.

Bennett's Vaudeville last night played to record-breaking business, the audience being one of the largest which has as yet filled the cosy theatre on a Monday night. The bill proved a decided success, and all went away pleased.

At the matinee in the afternoon a decorated shovels was given to each lady who had purchased a fifteen-cent seat. Shovels will be given away at each matinee during the week. Thursday night the ladies will also be presented with these pretty decorative articles, which are handsomely painted by Herbert, the armless wonder, and on Friday night an amateur contest will be held.

There are several good acts on this week's bill. Chief among them is the sketch of Lillian Leighton and John Byrne entitled "A Matrimonial Revolution." It last night made a big hit with the crowd.

Cassie and Collins, who have been in London before, are a pair of black-faced comedians who are worthy of the name. They sing and dance well, and tell jokes cleverly that you all most forgive them for ringing in a hassle once in a while.

The Gregory family of acrobats—the father and three daughters—are extraordinarily clever. A feature of this act is the work of a little tot who performs some astonishing feats of strength.

A very neat sketch is that of Louise Arnott and company entitled "Regan's Luck." Miss Arnott is probably the cleverest Irish comedienne ever seen in London, but the story upon which the sketch is built is not exactly of entrancing interest. But this much must be admitted—the sketch is natural and the acting is natural.

The two Macks—a pair of children—sing and dance in a somewhat amateurish fashion, but make a very pretty appearance on the stage.

The moving pictures are excellent.
An engagement notable in the current theatrical season is that announced for the Grand (on Thursday evening, when the opera house, "The Yankee Consul," will appear, together with the original supporting company chorus, augmented orchestra and production. "The Yankee Consul" is one of the best-equipped vehicles ever sent on tour, and the critics on the New York dailies have said that the opera was the best comic developed in almost a decade.

In two acts, the story of "The Yankee Consul" is told. The locale of the story is Puerto Plata, San Domingo, and the principal role is that of an American consular representative at the port. He has earned his appointment through the intervention of friends and relatives, who objected to his trying to turn backwards the time, and in addition to his salary, he receives a remittance from home, so long as he remains at his post. The story of "The Yankee Consul" is not improbable, and this fact alone would commend it for consideration above the average comic opera, did not other good points show throughout the action of the work.

The Fall a Time

Of Failing Health

It is the quick-changing temperature that is trying on the human system. In fall as well as spring the body needs a restorative.

You find yourself easily fatigued, feel that you are unable for the work before you, have unrefreshing sleep at night, the digestion is impaired, the bowels irregular, you dread the future because you realize that you are losing health and strength.

There is no medicine which will so certainly bring you out of this terrible condition as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.
Your blood is weak and your nerves exhausted, and because Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is composed of the elements of nature which go to form new blood and nerve force every dose of it is certain to be at least of some benefit to you.

While this great food cure is sharp-ening your appetite, regulating the organs of digestion and gradually rounding out the form, you will feel new energy and vigor in every nerve and muscle of the body; 50 cents a box, at all dealers or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

NOTHING TO DRINK

State Authorities Close Up Indiana's Saloons Tight.

Indianapolis, Nov. 13. — All Indiana was dry today. The sale of liquors was stopped in every city and town, and the officers were specially vigilant to see that the orders issued last night for severe years, were not violated.
In the state the saloonkeepers were warned that violations of the laws would not be permitted, and arrests have been made in all centers where saloons were found doing business.

Early this morning sixty-one Indian
