AMERICA DOES NOT SEEM TO GO DOWN VERY WELL, OR AT ANY RATE, THE BULLS MAKE LITTLE OR NO HEADWAY IN THE MARKETS.

Under the influence of a strong market, the bulls make little or no headway in the markets. The market is steady, with a strong undertone, advances being mainly due to shorts covering over the week-end.

The Winnipeg market there was a fairly good demand for the lower grades in cash wheat. Cables came unchanged to 3 1/2 higher, and there was a good export market in wheat, while a fair amount was done in oats. In the option market, July opened at 94 1/2 and closed at 94 1/2.

December also had a very narrow range of 1/2. Opening strong at 91 1/2, it rose to 92 1/2 in the morning, but towards the close dropped, the final figure being 91 1/2, or 1/4 higher. Oats July closed unchanged at 84 1/2, October 84 1/2, December 84 1/2.

The weather map of the West showed temperatures had been higher with weather generally fair with the exception of Edmonton, where a heavy rain was recorded on Saturday.
