CHINA SHORT OF SINEWS OF WAR

Government Facing a Serious Financial Situation.

TRYING TO RAISE LOAN

Revolutionists Continue to Have Successes in the South.

[Canadian Press.]
London, Oct. 25.—The Times' Peking correspondent says:
"China's financial situation is becoming desperate. The Government has made formal request to the diplomatic body that the payment of the monthly installments of the Boxer indemnity be postponed for nine months. This request has been met by the reply that some of the Governments must be consulted. Since then China has been making desperate efforts to scrape the money together. The Shanghai treasury, which at present has less than 1,000,000 taels, is unable to pay the official salaries.
"Chinese and Manchus of the latter class are leaving Peking in large numbers, removing their treasure to the foreign concessions in Shanghai and Tientsin, and even to Mukden, where it is believed security will be found under Japanese protection."
Court may move.
"In event of reverse in the Yangtze Valley, it seems certain that the court will remove to Jehol, in the Province of Chihli, 115 miles to the northeast of Peking."
The Government is endeavoring to obtain a loan of 12,000,000 taels ($4,000,000), repayable in one year at 8 per cent, with the guarantee of an Imperial edict, from British, French, German and American bankers. The bankers, at a meeting held to discuss the proposal, desired to be informed exactly for what purposes the money was to be used. They also made it a condition before recommending the loan that the Government should guarantee that Yuan-shi Kai be given full power satisfactory to himself and the bankers, to deal with the situation.

CANON CRAIG NOT FOR UNION

Unless the Church of England Keeps Forms Intact.

URGES ENTHUSIASM

Tells A. Y. P. A. That the Church is Worthy of Best Efforts.

"It is no wonder that young people are leaving the Anglican Church when a text book so unfavorable to the church as Greene's History of the English People is used in all our high schools," said Rev. Canon Craig, of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, at the Inter-Diocesan A. Y. P. A. Conference in Cronyn Hall this morning. This remark of Canon Craig's was incidental to the canon's statement that Greene, the historian, who was no lover of the Church of England, admitted that the Anglican Church could trace back its connection with the early Eastern Church to have developed. From there to sub-apostolic times, and then only a step further to the early Apostolic Church, the origin of the Church of England could be followed back.
"Why We Should Be Enthusiastic for the Church of England" was the subject of Canon Craig's address, which was given in place of an expected talk on "What the Church Stands For" which Bishop Williams, who was unable to be present, had intended to deliver. The historical value of the church, the part that the Church of England forms in the Church Universal, all that the Anglican Church does for the observance of the Christian year, and the stand that the Church has always taken for the open Bible, ought to make its members enthusiastic in support of its cause.
Canon Craig declared that he would not favor union of the Anglican with other churches, unless the historical significance of the Church of England were preserved intact, together with its forms and doctrines to which it holds so closely.

CHICKEN THIEVES CAUGHT IN ACT BUT MANAGE TO MAKE ESCAPE

Street Railway Motorman Fitzsimmons Surprises Marauders and Fired at Them With Revolver, But Failed to Stop Them.

The operations of chicken thieves, who have been particularly active about the city of late, were interrupted in a rather startling skirmish in the coops of Mr. Benjamin Parker, a street railway conductor, of 202 Dundas street, shortly after midnight this morning.
The men escaped, but when fired upon dropped a bag in which they had placed one chicken. Mr. Parker was on duty during the day and was unaware of what was happening, but between 12 and 1 o'clock, Mr. Alex. Fitzsimmons, a motorman on one of the night runs, who lives on Queen's avenue, and whose lot abuts that of Mr. Parker, returned home.
On entering his backyard he noticed some person was using a flashlight in

Giants Beat the Athletics Today McGraw's Men Still Have a Chance

World's Series, the Fifth Game of Which Was Played at New York City, Is Growing in Interest.

[Canadian Press.]
Polo Grounds, New York, Oct. 25.—Some ten thousand spectators swarmed out to the Polo Grounds this afternoon to see the Philadelphia Athletics and the New York Giants clash in the fifth game of the world's series. With three victories already won, the Athletics came on the field determined to capture a fourth, and settle the question of the baseball championship for 1911. The Giants were making their last stand to win the victory to give them a further chance at championship laurels.
"If we lose, we go down fighting," said Manager McGraw. "If the Giants can't win this series, it has been determined to make a winter trip to Cuba. Inding summer never furnished a more beautiful day for baseball. The sun shone brilliantly in an unclouded sky, and the playing ground was as bright as the proverbial trivet.
The clubs were heartily cheered as they trooped on the field for practice. The infielders put in a few extra innings under the inspiration of a brass band, which played merrily near the Giants' bench.
Marquard Returns.
There was a loud cheer from the stands when the megaphone man announced that Marquard and Meyers were the battery for the Athletics. Umpire Klem went behind the bat, with Umpire Dineen giving directions on the bases, while Umpire Eganman stood at right field, and Umpire Connolly at left field.
FIRST INNING.
Philadelphia—Marquard used great speed and was inclined to be untidy, and Lord had three balls and two strikes on him, when he drove a short fly to left, on which Devore made a fine catch. Marquard couldn't get a grounder to Doyle, who made a pretty play on the ball to Markle. Oidring broke his bat in smashing the ball. Marquard seemed slightly nervous, and Meyers went down and patted him on the back. Collins was out on a fly to Snodgrass. No runs.
New York—Devore hit the first ball pitched to Barry, who got him handily at first. Doyle hit a weak foul, which Baker caught. Snodgrass gave a big cheer when he stole second. He went out, Baker to Doyle. No runs.
SECOND INNING.
Philadelphia—Baker got a big hand when he came to the plate. There was another cheer when Marquard fanned. Baker, Murphy singled sharply to left. Marquard almost caught Murphy off first on a snap throw. The crowd cheered Umpire Dineen when he called Murphy safe. Davis singled. Murphy tried to steal second, but was caught by Meyers to Doyle. No runs.
New York—Murray couldn't get Coombs' fast ones, and struck out. Markle was singled strike-out victim. Herzog singled between Barry and Baker after Coombs' hit. Doyle struck on him. Herzog stole second. It was the second base stolen by the Giants in the series. Fletcher fanned. No runs.
THIRD INNING.
Philadelphia—Barry went out on a grounder to Herzog, whose throw beat the runner several feet. Lapp singled. Doyle sent to bat in place of Marquard, who threw a ball that was far over his head. Meyers had Lapp caught off first on a beautiful throw, but Merkle dropped the ball. It was not an error for Merkle. Coombs hit a grounder to Herzog, who threw to Doyle, who the Giant second baseman dropped the ball in his eagerness to make a double play. With a man on first and second, Meyers went down and talked to Marquard.
Lord sent up a high one to Doyle. Lapp, Coombs and Oidring scored on Doyle's home-run drive into the left field stand. The crowd went wild to the Athletic players shook Oidring's hand as he came to the bench. Oidring's smash unsteadied Marquard, and Collins stroled to first on four wide ones. Collins stole second, Meyers threw was wide. McGraw sent Ames out to warm up. Baker fanned out on a grounder to Merkle, unassisted. Three runs.
New York—Meyers rapped a single which bounded off Baker's legs. Becker was sent to bat in place of Marquard, and shot a liner to Barry, who tried to double Meyers off first, but Davis dropped the ball. Under the Marver Davis the scoring Davis is not credited with an error. Devore struck out and Meyers was out attempting to steal. Lapp to Collins. No runs.
FOURTH INNING.
Philadelphia—Ames bow went into the box for the Giants. The crowd howled when Ames curved the first one over for a strike. Murphy sent up a high foul which landed in Doyle's mitt. Davis was out, when Merkle

COAL MEN SEEK BETTER CONDITIONS

Importers Want New Plan of Charging Demurrage for Detention of Cars.

AVERAGE UP AMOUNT

So Speed on Their Part Would Give Them Time When They Needed It.

Toronto, Oct. 25.—The hearing of the application of the Canadian Retail Coal Dealers' Association, of London, Ont., for amendment to the Canadian car service rules providing for optional average demurrage to be arrived at or agreed upon between consignees and railway companies for all shipments of coal and coke, was resumed before the Dominion Board of Railway Commissioners yesterday morning. Under the present rules a period of three days is allowed for unloading a car, and the coal dealers ask that if they turn a car over to the railway company at the end of the first day they be allowed five days to unload the next car.
Mr. C. H. Beeber, of the Detroit and Michigan Central Railway, said he thought the adoption of average demurrage would materially decrease the efficiency of the car service in Canada.
Mr. F. Price, superintendent of the Grand Trunk car service, said the adoption of the average demurrage rule would result in an increase in the period of detention of the cars.
John Hogan, car service inspector of the C. P. L. to Montreal, gave evidence as to the time taken by various coal dealers to unload the cars. He said that the adoption of the average rule would not only work hardship to the railways, but also to the shipping public, and would result in the congestion of terminals.
Mr. Thomas Hayes, vice-president of the Coal Dealers' Association, claimed that the question of detention was considered in making the demurrage rates. He thought, also, that the "average" plan would solve the present difficulties, and suggested a trial of the plan for twelve months.
The chairman asked Mr. Duval to prepare for the board a statement showing demurrage paid by all shippers since the first of the year. An enlargement was asked for on behalf of the lines west of Port Arthur, but the chairman did not think there should be further delay. The decision of the board was reserved.

TO PUNISH WIFE DESERTERS

Recommendation Made That Culprits Be Fined $1,000 Or Given Two Years in Prison.

MR. SANDERS SPEAKS

London Official Says That Cases of Wife Desertion Are Growing Very Frequent in This City.

"Any husband who shall without just cause, desert or refuse to provide for the support of wife and children, shall be guilty of an indictable offence, and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding $1,000, or two years in prison with hard labor, to be provided by the state or municipality, the proceeds of which shall go to the wife and children; also that some other agency besides the wife shall be empowered, if preferable, to lay complaint against the husband."

The above amendment to the criminal code was read Tuesday, in Toronto, at a joint committee meeting of the Associated Charities and the Local Council of Women. It was approved and sent to a sub-committee composed of Father Minahan, Rabbi Jacobs, Rev. S. W. Dean, Mrs. R. L. Brereton, Dr. Chambers, S. Arnold, Mrs. Robert Glasgow, Dr. Margaret Johnston, Alan Stronach, M. P. P., and Staff Inspector Kennedy.
This sub-committee will draft the amendment in final form, when it will be presented to a full meeting of the societies concerned. If approved it will be sent for indorsement to the municipal authorities and then presented as a memorandum to the Minister of Justice at Ottawa.
Rev. S. W. Dean advocated the lash for wife desertion, but his severe penalty was not generally supported.
Inspector Sanders, of the Children's Aid Society, and Charity Organization Society, was seen by The Advertiser today in regard to the matter. He came out strongly in favor of severe punishment for wife desertion.
"I find in London," he said, "that cases of wife desertion are becoming very frequent. I think the punishment for the crime, as stated in the article, is none too heavy. However, I would like to see the law so framed that men who leave their homes shall be compelled to work on a prison farm, such as the one at Guelph, where they will earn enough to support their wives and children, and thereby keep the burden off the community. Of course, we sometimes find cases where I do not blame the man very much for getting out, but as a general thing when a man and woman cannot live together there is no sympathy to be wasted on the man, and he should be punished to the limit of the law for failing to provide for his wife and children."

LUCKY MARY.

Gregory, S. D., Oct. 21.—Mary J. Kendall, of Rapid City, S. D., drew No. 3 at the opening today of the drawing for the 4,000 prizes in the Rosebud land allotment. No. 1 is estimated to be worth $10,000. The drawing will take three days.

The New Serial

Advertiser readers should bear in mind that an installment of one of the best novels of the year, "The Prodigal Judge," by Vaughn Kester, will be published for the first time in the evening edition of Thursday.
The Advertiser has exclusive territory rights to the serial, and the story promises to be one of the most engrossing published in these columns.

LADY TEACHERS WILL NOW ASK THE BOARD FOR MORE SALARY

Will Ask That the Minimum Be Raised From $450 to $500 and Maximum From $700 to $900.

The request of the male principals of certain public schools of London for an increase in salary of $200 a year will be followed by a request from the lady teachers that they be given more money. It was stated at the city hall today.
A petition is being circulated among the teachers in the Guild, and is being largely signed. While the nature of their demand is not known definitely, it is understood that they wish the minimum salary raised from $450 to $500, and the maximum from $700 to $900.
The petition will be presented to the board at the same time that the male teachers file theirs. It is understood that both communications will be referred to No. 1 committee of the board to report on.
The teachers were granted an increase in 1908. The salaries of principals in schools with seven rooms or more was raised from $1,100 minimum to $1,200 maximum. Female teachers were raised from $350 to $400 to $450 minimum to $750 maximum.
"We will give the matter our attention," one of the board members informed The Advertiser. "We will go into the whole question of salaries and report. We will be fair, but no more."

LONDON ELECTRIC CO. AND CITY MAY AGAIN COME TOGETHER

Move On Foot Amongst the Shareholders to Have Sale of Plant to City Talked Over Once More.

The shareholders of the London Electric Company will make a final effort to come to an agreement with the city, whereby the people may buy the company's plant.
Several of those who hold large blocks of stock in Toronto and elsewhere are considering the matter, and information has been obtained that a meeting will be held in that city in the near future to determine what action shall be taken. Letters have been received in London from some of these shareholders, asking information as to the possibility of the city purchasing the company's plant and business.
One shareholder, writing to a friend outside the city, asks the question whether or not the company is paying expenses at the present time. Other questions equally as important to the shareholders are also asked.
No Action.
It is understood that the water commissioners will take no action on the matter now. They regard the proposed transaction as closed.
"I do not know anything about the shareholders," said Chairman Pocock. "No proposition has been made to us since the last offer was turned down. Whether or not another offer will be made I am not in a position to state. It strikes me that the time for negotiations has long since passed. We are going ahead with our own propositions without regard to the London Electric or any other company. We intend making the city's proposition pay, and make no mistake, we will succeed."
