THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1921.

THE WOMAN'S PAG

ALLIANCE RECOGNIZED THE FASHIONS BY LONDON CITIZENS [By Eleanor Gunn.] (Copyright by the Fairchild Company.)

Will Send French-Speaking Delegates To Greet Visitors.

merce asks it to produce two Frenchspeaking citizens to greet the officials who come to the city with the "French exhibit" this month. The greeting is to be given in the Franch towns as exhibit" this month. The greeting is to be given in the French tongue as Prench students of the city. Mrs. C. R. Somerville, the president, feels that the organization might be a great help to the students by letting them hear French spoken and great help to the students of the instruction. The enter into French conversation. The organization also alme at a study of French art, music and literature, and the year's program will include lectures, little French plays, etc. Prof. Squalr to Speak. At the first meeting of the Alliance of October 21, at the Normal School, Prof. Squair, for a long time head of the department of French at Toronto University and author of the French Grammar used in the Ontario schools, will be the speaker. And his sub-ject is "Les Grandes Epoques de l'Art Francals," to be illustrated with slides. A recent meeting of the Allian executive made arrangements for this meeting, and made pans towards the year's program.

W. C. A. DONATIONS.

The Women's Christian Association has recently received some splendid donations for the Victoria Home for Incurables, among the givers are the names Johnson & Earbour and Bert Wein A handsome oil painting is another gift which was sent anonyusly to the home.

London & Port Stanley Railway

Although the style changes are not to be given in the French tongue as touches are marked, and these are featured in trimming as well as in cut. The Alliance this year aims at get-ting more closely in touch with the French students of the city. Mrs. C.

hat cannot be copied in a cloth model. one of the knitted suits made from yelw wool, had a choker collar of brushed vool, and cuffs of the same, while trimnings of dark blue tricot silk-braid letters of this nature. You write a very good hand. he skirt, which also had a fancy girdle mishing the waistline. Speaking of Skirt Lengths. The all-important question of skirt engths really does not materially affect a sult, for the skirt will remain, according to the best authorities, about shoe-top length. In other words, about eight to ten inches from the floor. Satin, or velvet may be used, or cheviot and the basket weave fabrics with a velour inish are popular, and as for color while the strictly tailleur demands the combr. tones, black being preferable, the garments of the sports variety take the garments of the sports variety take on the hues of the rainbow and jauntily swagger forth in red, green, grey, yel-lov, and bright red, the latter not stop-ping with the sports clothes or sports hats, it has higher aspirations. Red velvet gowns for evening are making their appearance, and it is said by those whose social activities take them to the formal dinners and dances, that red velvet evening dresses are always in evi-dence. It would seem that in order to dence, it would seem that in order to feet away from black, which last season heid the center of the stage, the color pendulum has swung to the farther side,

Personals Cynthia Grey's The Misses Masuret and Mrs. Gento

[By Cynthia Grey.] are visiting friends in Detroit. HAVE you "phonitis"? Are you one of those persons who waste valuable time talking unecessarily over Miss Dorothy L. Back, 717 Waterloo street, is visiting friends in Montreal.

Did you ever stop to consider how boring you may be to the person on the Mrs. M. W. Bruce has returned home which is of little interest to her.

which is of little interest to ner. Unfortunately, we all meet persons possessing this habit in every walk of life, no matter how hard we try to Fred. C. Wanless, 74 Byron avenue. Mrs. W. G. Mann will receive for Mr and Mrs G J Wanless Chatham. with their son,

Mail-Box

SENDS LARGE MITE.

terns for pillow slips. Could I have them until copied, and will return If wanted? Would like some of Aunt Rose's flower seeds too, some

Our fund is increasing inclosed.

he telephone?

and charter, save it all for some time inte, on Finday anternoon, betober 14, when you get a poor defenseless victim face to face, when they have no pos-sible chance of escaping you. And Miss Evangeline Harjett and Miss think how much more you will be able to say—and repeat! Don't abuse the use of the phone, and don't be a burden to Nicholson, Petrolea. the whole community!

Mrs. Cummings, who has been visit-ing Miss Nixon, Hellmuth avenue, left Dear Miss Grey,—It is a long lime since I have written to the for New York yesterday. Miss Nixon was recently the hostess of a most in-teresting little tea given in honor of Mall-Box, but I read and enjoy the page, and I've received lots of use-ful information. I see where Gera-nium has sent in two crochet pather guest.

The members of Arts '23, Western University, are holding a class party tonight, beginning with a weiner roast on Becher's Island, below the college grounds, and ending up with a dance lar Hill, and election of the year officers in the arts building.

of each. Find inclosed $1 for sick children's hospital. Wishing the page future success. Return postage Miss Kathleen Robbins, an October The crochet patterns and seeds are already on their way to you, M. E. D. Thank you very much for such a generbride-to-be, was the guest of honor at a delightful little shower given recently by her cousin. Miss Dorothy Gillespie, Oxford street. During the evening a number of miscellaneous gifts were bedaily and with what we have already collect-ed from quilts is over $500. stowed on the youthful bride-elect. Mrs. McPetrle, Wellington street, en PLEASE GIVE NAME.

tertained the Nicholas Wilson Chapter, I. O. D. E., at her home yesterday afternoon, the members spending the time in sewing for their bazaar, which is to be held in November. Next week Mrs. Curtis, William street, is entertaining the chapter.

Mrs. Ed Gould of 910 Lorne avenue is spending a few days with friends in Detroit, and is expected to return to the city tomorrow. Previous to going to Detroit Mrs. Gould attended the fourteenth biennial convention of the London Conference Epworth Leagues, which was held in Chatham last Thurs-

Cleopatra-I did not publish your let. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cake of 913 ter, as it is against the rules to print Lorne avenue have returned home after very . enjoyable visit with Mr. and a very enjoyable visit with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rose of Sarnia. Before go-ing to Sarnia Mrs. Cake attended the WANTS DOUBLE HOLLYHOCK. fourteenth biennial convention of the Dear Miss Grey,—What a beau-tiful autumn we are having and such an abundance of flowers and London Conference Epworth Leagues. which was held in Chatham last Thursday and Friday.

no frost as yet. And how the seeds are comning in to help swell The Y. W. C. A. residence, Wellington street, presented a happy scene yes-terday afternoon, when the girls' work committee of the Y. W. C. A. enter-tained there, having as their guest the "Y" board and the leaders of the Port Bruce camp. Marigolds were used abundantly about the rooms and on the fund. Mine are not quite ready yet. Please send me a package of Aunt Rose's phlox seed, some sweet william seed, salvia and a few castor beans. Mite is for S. C. H. I wonder if any of the Boxites Bruce camp. Marigolds were used abundantly about the rooms and on the tea table, at which Mrs. Tanton officiated, assisted by the "big chiefs" would like to exchange double holly hock seed with me! I have only one color, a dark red, but it is a beauty, as large as a saucer, with a round ball in the center. Will exchange for any color, as long as It is double. My address is with Miss Grey. Please send me A Wife's of the camp, Miss Madeline Roddick, Miss Jean Buchner, Miss Kitty White and the camp librarian, Miss Elva Just. During the afternoon a pleasant interchange of camp reminiscences address, also Five Roses. Thanking kept conversation flowing, and several camp leaders spoke to the whole gath-ering, explaining the worth-whileness you in advance, i remain, A. C. VINE. Am mailing you all the seeds asked of the undertaking, and how it was bearing fruit in the girls' work of the community already. Those who spoke were Miss Helen d'Avignon, Mrs.

MASS

Lowry

Frank Anderson, Miss Jones, John Crawford and Miss Bessle Mc-Camus, Other camp leaders present WITH RDINCC were Miss Marion Pryce of St. Thomas,

Moseley

Williams and

MISSIONARY DESIGNATED

AT MOORELINE CHURCH

Mrs.

WESTERN ONTARIO WOMEN'S ACTIVITIES

Address News For This Column The Editor of Woman's Page.

OLINDA W. I. regular monthly meeting of Women's Institute was held The Olinda ecently at the home of Mrs. Harry ongland, 24 members being present. recently After the business was concluded, two papers were given by Mrs. Buchanan and Mrs. Ellen Orton on "Legal Relation of Women in Ontario to Their Own Children," and "Home Discipline.

The next regular meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. George Ryall Vov. 2. EMBRO W. I. The October meeting of the above Women's Institute is to be held at the nome of Mrs. H. W. Sutherland on Thursday, October 13, when Mrs. Walter Ross is to give an address.

DORCHESTER W. A.

The Girls' W. A. of the Anglican Church, Dorchester, is planning a con-cert to be held in the hall on Friday, October 14, when the program will include vocal solos, trios, violin and piano selections and a playlet, entitled, "Our Aunt From California."

COLDSTREAM W. I. The Coldstream Women's Institute will meet this (Tuesday) afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Foresters' Hall in Pop-

The officers elected are: Honorary president, Mrs. Griffiths; president, Mrs. D. H. McDermid; first vice-president, Mrs. Hazelgrove; second vice-president, Mrs. Roy; secretary, Mrs. Jepson; assistant secretary, Mrs. Hol-At Cupid's Call hand, jun.; treasurer for home missions, Miss C. Jeffery; treasurer for foreign missions, Mrs. Menhenick; treasurer for expense fund, Mrs. A. Gillies; agent for Link, Mrs. R. Hyslop; assistant for By May Christle.

(Copyright, 1921, by McClure News paper Syndicate.)

Mrs. A. Gillies; assistant for Visitor, Mrs. A. Gillies; assistant for Visitor, Mrs. R. G. Wilson; pianist, Mrs. A. CI.-Mary's News. Mrs. Dick Calardin descended to the breakfast room of the White Lodge at Greenslade; assistant pianist, Mrs. A. Glen; treasurer for Laura Aliyn fund, Mrs. J. W. Jones; press reporter, Mrs. half-past eight the following morning. From the slim third finger of her left hand she had-temporarily-re-Charles Tomlin.

ved her wedding ring. Eve Rochester and Julian Vandaveer were in the room before her entry Sc Union Mothers' Club, will address the regular meeting of Aberdeen Mothers' Club to be held at the school on Thurs-day night. October 13, her subject bealso was Mr. Carrington Bellairs and nis majestic aunt. "I hope I'm not late?" said Mary brightly.

"No one is punctual in this house," remarked its chatelaine. They all sat and what we must expect from then in return." The meeting will largely lown to breakfast. And then the telephone bell rang. take the form of a social evening, and "Shall I answer it?" suggested Mary. refreshments will be served at the "I'd better go myself," said Carlose ington Bellairs. "I'm rather expect ng a phone call from town about this went out to the hall.

cent bazaar to be held on November 1 and 2, in the Parish Hall. The decorations for this event will be in accordance with the Halloween sea-son, and one of the big features will Three minutes later he returned, "Been foul play at the Barley Mow "Been four play at the Barley how the landlord's just rung up," he said briefly. "They found young Dick Cal-ardin lying on the floor unconscious culy half an hour ago. He's delirious chapting for Miss Deep home." Ho be the tearoom, from which tea will be served from 4:30 to 5:30 o'clock, to be followed by high tea.

shouting for Miss Drew here-" He flung a worrled look at Mary. Mary-white-faced and trembling -had risen to her feet. CATHOLIC LEAGUE'S CONVENTION The program for the convention of "Oh, I must go at once!" she cried. atholic Women's Leagues of Western The aunt of Carrington Bellairs cast to be held in the city 25 and 26, includes two lun glance of indignant reproof at the October eons at the Tecumseh House on th ing girl 'Miss Drew, you surely forget your-I days of the convention sessions, self," said the good lady in a ringing a volce. "If anyone must go, then it's - Eve, who is Mr. Calardin's affianced wife." motor trip through the city, to be

"Oh, I couldn't!" Eve shrank back. "Tm terrified of illness, aunue. -I beg of you-don't insist upon my Mary was half-way across the room. "Miss Drew, where are you going?" With raised and quizzical brows her employer stared at the young girl. "You've eaten no breakfast at all. Whatever is the matter?" Mrs.

"I-I have some slight knowledge of pursing," Mary faltered, "and-and you sald-that he was calling for me -Dick-" "I don't think you had better go," said Carrington Bellairs. He already was regretting that he'd given Mary any message. "I'm going to telephone

· WOMEN'S CLUBS · TALBOT STREET M. CIRCLES. The Rev. M. L. Orchard of Toronto, the spent one term in India and is who spent one term in India and is in connection with the convention are low assistant secretary of the foreign the reception committee, including Mrs now assistant secretary of the foreign mission board of the Baptist Church, will address the thankoffering meeting of the Ladies' Mission Circles of the Talbot Street Baptist Church on Wed-nesday evenlog of this week at 8 o'clock, His subject is "India's Challenge to Canada's People." Description committee, including Mrs. Pocock, Mrs. H. A. Panet, Mrs. Philip Pocock, Mrs. Frank Forristal, Mrs. Foley, Mrs. W. H. Smith, Mrs. Walter Costello, Mrs. S. B. Pocock, Mrs. Amero, Mrs. Roche, Mrs. van Loon, Mrs. T. F. Sweeney, Mrs. Rich-ard Forristal, Mrs. T. J. Murphy, Mrs. T. F. Binder and Mrs. McHale; motor committee with Mrs. William Mee

ABERDEEN MOTHERS' CLUB.

Mrs. John Rose, president of the

"What we owe to our children

CRONYN MEMORIAL BAZAAR.

hurch are arranging for a big Hallow ides two lunch

Duchess Satins, good heavy weight, Lyons dye, rich satin finish, will give the best of wear and will not cut, just the satin for nice soft dress or separate skirt, full 36 inches wide; shades of navy, black, brown, taupe, grey and green. Special $2.50

Chic Millinery

For Formal

Affairs

beyond peradventure. It may be of the hat

Special this week-Children's Plush Hats, ters' plush, panne velvet or felt.

The women of the Cronyn Mem terday afternoon before the First Methodist W. M. S. by Dr. Sparling, his address being the feature of the meet-ing. The appointment of the monthly conveners for the meetings of the year Wiss Kathleen Dromgole, and the pressing convener. Cockshutt, and this afternoon two new Miss Kathleen Dromgole, and the pressing convener. was the only important piece of busi-

Miss Frizen, the prime p was the only important piece of busi-ness undertaken, the conveners being Mrs. H. E. Boomer, Mrs. W. N. Man-ning, Mrs. W. J. Brown, Mrs. J. A. Coles, Mrs. W. E. Saunders, Mrs. N. S. Williams, Mrs. S. M. Kennedy. A vocal solo by Miss Luta Laymon was W. C. A. last night, launched the work also included in the program. Plans were made to of the season. further instruction in first aid and TALBOT ST. BAPTIST M. C. Guide committee to furnish instructors in these branches of the work. The The annual business meeting of the Talbot Street Baptist Women's Mis-sion Circle was held recently. The main feature of the meeting was the election of officers for the ensuing election of officers for the ensuing election of officers for the ensuing along the line of Guide work, and make mutual plans for the advance-the deputy commissioner, and Mrs.

ys that the greatest difficulty in the rogress of the work is the scarcity f leaders, and proposes to have very any leaders' training camps throughsible that a leaders' class will be started shortly in the city to meet this going on splendidly. Mrs. Betts

SEVEN

MRS. H. COCKSHUTT

HONORARY PRESIDENT

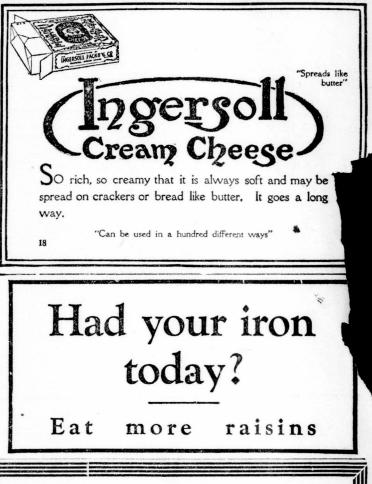

Will Be Elected by Ontario Girl

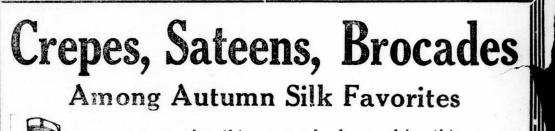

Guide Executive.

One of the chief pieces of business in connection with the meeting of the Provincial Girl Guide executive to be

M. E. D.

You did not give your name and adress, so I did not know where to send the stamp language. If you will send it day and Friday.

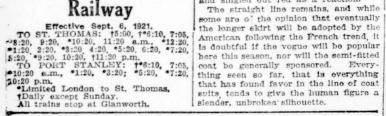

TALCUM

In Infants-

Talcum you will find the same re-freshing

Delight

and singled out red as a reaction.

ひじつじつひひひひひつつ

Infants-Delight-an altogether delightful

Toilet Soap, mild,

fragrant, refreshing

- made with the careful attention

that has earned confidence in the name

"Taylor's" through the past fifty years.

JOHN TAYLOR & CO., LTD.

IT'S WHITE

TOILET SOAP

A quiet wedding was solemnized by the Rev. Mr. McKay at the manse, Dorchester, on Tuesday, October 3, when Miss Beatrice Black, eldest daughter of Mr, and Mrs. Duncan Black, was united

A fairly large number of friends of Miss Helen McDougall gathered recent. ly at Mooreline Church to witness her designation for foreign mission work. The Rev. J. C. Forster was in charge of In marriage to Mr. King Clendenning, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Clendenning of Banner. The bride wore her traveling suit of navy blue, with hat to match the service, J. R. Hall, of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Sarnia, conduct-ing the designation services in the and carried a bouquet of Ophella roses. She also wore the gift of the groom, a pearl lavallere. After the ceremony the absence of Rev. George Aitken, moderator for the district. Mrs. J. C. Forster, as a representa-tive from the general board of the Wobride and groom motored to London. where a buffet luncheon was served at the home of the bride's grandmother. The happy couple left later for Windsor gave a short address, and according to custom, presented Miss Helen McDougall and Detroit. After their honeymoon they will take up their residence in with a Bible. Mrs. Stereet, as a representative of the Sarnia Presbyterial, gave a short address, and presented the

MCMULLIN-MEEK.

BELLS RING

WEST Floral Co.

Phone 2187

yv

Dundas St.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday, Sept. 28, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Meek, Gorham issionary with a camera, a gift from that executive. Miss McDougall made a short and of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Meek, Gorham street, Newmarket, Ont., when their only daughter, Anne Gertrude, became the bride of Mr. Willis B. McMullin, B.S.A., M.C., son of Mrs. Ellen Mc-Mullin, of Blytheswood, Ont., Rev. Capt. W. L. L. Laurence officiating. The bride, who was given in marriage suitable reply to these presentations, A solo, "He Stood in His Garden," was ung by Mrs. Arthur Elliot. The address of the evening was given by Rev. Dr. McKay, secretary of the Foreign Mission Board, his address be-ing very inspiring and instructive. Capt. W. L. L. Laurence officiating. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked charming in a gown of cream canton crepe with touches of rose point lace. Her vell, an heirloom in the family, was be-comingly arranged in coronet fashion and caught with orange blossoms. She carried a bouvot of carbide and Of Scotch Descent. Miss McDougall's ancestors come from cotland and Ireland, and in the early days helped to found the church where she was recently designated to her work. Miss McDougall herself is a true carried a bouquet of orchids and Ophelia roses, and wore the groom's gift, a necklace of pearls. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Sadie Mc-Canadian, born and educated in this country. She studied in the high schools n Sarnia and Petrolea, and is a grad-nate of Sarnia Business College. While Bride, of Inglewood, who was attired in orchid organdie, and carried butter-fly roses. Mr. Eric Weston of Windervorking at the Home Bank in Toronto Miss McDougal became interested in mission work, and studied towards that end for some time at night school. ere, Ont., was groomsman. The wedding music was played by Miss Edwinna Later she attended the Bible College at Currey of Newmarket, and Miss Sylva Toronto for two years, and has won particular honor for the college in that sweetly, "Beloved It Is Morn." The groom's gifts to the attendants were she is the first graduate to go out under the auspices of the Foreign Mission Board by the Presbyterian Church.

silver coin purses, and to the best man Masonic cuff links. After a dainty dejeuner the happy couple left, amid showers of confetti, for Niagara Falls Leaves Shortly. Under the auspices of this church she vill leave from Vancouver on November and points west, the bride traveling in a suit of navy velour with beaver trim-mings and hat to match. On their re-turn they expect to reside at Bruce Mines, Ont.

which she has devoted her life.

Some of the new gowns have skirts m three to five yards wide, reaching he instep in length.

Round toed, low French heeled slipers in black suede. French kid, and black and white satin are popular for treet and evening wear.

Bags for evening are of velvet, flower rimmed and lined with brocaded satin. The black and steel pouch bags are art with costumes.

to town at once for a good nurse. I'm sorry for young Calardin. The land-lord of the Barley Mow has informed the police of the occurrence. He thinks that the motive was robbery, for Calardin's sleeping apartment seems to have been thoroughly ransacked." "He-he isn't going to die " faltered poor Mary, the little bride of yesterday. "I understand he's badly hurt," came the slow answer. Here Bellairs' aunt once more ci

"It would be highly improper, Miss Drew, for you to visit the young man unchaperoned. Besides, the nursing you could do would be of very little used don't argue-that affair is set-Carrington Bellairs became consid-erably nettled with his interfering unt. She was taking far too much ipon herself. erably aunt.

"Miss Drew-" he began, tentatively. It was then that Mary flung her nomb into the midst of the startled assembly.

"I am not Miss Drew any longer she cried. "I'm Mrs. Dick Calardin. Dick and I were married yesterday up in town. And-don't try to stop me-for I'm going to my husband!" She darted teom the near darted from the room.

"Will he recover, doctor?" Mary gazed with anxious eyes into the doc-tor's face. The doctor and she, helped by the landlady of the Barley Mow, had worked beside Dick for an hour. He was still unconscious, and in pain. "He's had a bad blow to the head," the doctor said. "It would have killed any man with a less strong constitu-tion than this young fellow." He tion than this young fellow." He looked at the unhappy, worried little bride. "Mrs. Calardin, we must just nope for the best."

Day after day, then, Mary sat by the bedside of her husband. A nurse from town was also in attendance, and the landlady of the Barley Mowwho always had adored Dick-took who always had adored Dick-took turns in the night work, at such times as Dick was very ill. A week went by. Two weeks. There were periods when Dick was conscious, but extraordinarily weak. He would lie there, very white and helpless, clinging to his young wife's hand, a very shadow of his former salf.

Tomorrow-What Dick Vouched For.

The hems of the wide skirts are lined with crinoline having tiny ruffles, pink-ed, to trim the under part of the hem.

Many of the smart women are part-ing their hair, and drawing it down over their ears, without any curls.

Fancy or costumes jewelry is exceedingly popular and is worn with all manner of dresses, whether crepe, cloth, or silk, in the dark shades.

Anything crepe looks good for this season, so say the authorities. Among the new offerings there is a wealth of the beautiful soft crepe effects for draped frocks, and of the heavier grades, such as Canton and Satin Crepe for tailored designs.

All Wool Plaid and Stripes for separate skirts, nice heavy quality, in rich shades of brown, tan and blue, 36 inches wide $3.00, $3.50 and $4.50

Botany Serges, good all-wool quality, fine weave, heavy weight and nice soft finish, just the material for ladies' oneece dresses or ladies' suits, full 56 inches wide; shades of lack and navy blue $2.50

Silk Crepe de Chine for blouses or dresses, 52-inch All-Wool Serge for children's school wear, fine weave, heavy weight and a serge good heavy quality that washes perfectly and that will give the best of wear; shades of give the best of wear, full 40 inches wide, in navy, brown and green. Price $1.50 a large variety of shades $1.98

> Silk Canton Crepes, good heavy quality, rich crepe finish, just the material for nice soft dress, full 40 inches wide; shades of navy, black, copen and brown $4.00

> > Corsets

The new autumn models are works of art, beautifully designed and finished, achieving an unwonted degree of smartness for the costume of formal or informal design.

New model, super-bone, low bust, free hip, embroidery trimmed, formerly $5.00 per pair. For daytime wear the little hats, the thing Today's price$3.00 D. & A. Corset, low bust, free hip, elastic insert, four hose supports. Per pair $2.00 Extra special—50 pairs New Model, long hip, low bust, neatly trimmed. Per pair ...$1.00 new models. Prices $3.50 to $5.00 Full-Figure Corsets, reinforced front, wide Silk Velvets in all shades. Per yard busk steel, four hose supports, sizes up to 36.

28 for Shanghai. She expects to spend the Christmas season in Honan, and later will proceed to Pekin, where she will study the language and customs of the people for a year before she begins active service in the great work to WHEN WEDDING Dillip fairs It is the time for happiness and bliss—and Flowers, speaking a language of their own, aid won-derfully in making the occasion a cheerful one. For the bride's bouquet or decorative purposes here are Flowers you will want.