A Terrible New Year's May.

A terrible New Year's May.

A terrible New Year's surprise was suffered by a married counter at Paris. France. Their only son, a little fellow of 6, hid in the safe which the father had in his office in the famility dwelling, expecting that his mether would miss him and look for him. The father, being auddenly called away, locked the safe. All might the parents searched in vain for the child. On the morning of New Year's Day when the safe was opened the child was found in it sufficested.

They Died Together

Jules Donat and the little Francisca lived on the same flat in Champoinnet street at

They first met some eighteen months ago, when he was near 18 and she just past 14.

They liked each other, and the parents allowed Jules to visit their daughter, evely evening and stop till late. It was in the first week of the month when the couple went into the country and did not get home until next day. On their arrival the girl's parents proceeded to have Jules arrested for leading astray a girl under age. Then the lovers met and took poison. In the morning the old people found two corpses.

With stamp, or dye, or pen, I make
Ineffaceable impressions.

My linen has besides the marks
Of Chinaman (Chung Lee).
The name that doth exclusively
Belong to none but me.

My dog, so black that contrast makes to hunt the wild boar. Finding a large beast, the younger prother shot it and the boar hid in the bush. The elder brother, more impatient and careless than the younger, entered the thicket and began teasing the wounded animal, trying to make it leave its hiding place. Suddenly the boar sprung on him and with one blow of his powerful tusk ripped the man open to the chest. Upon his agreement two other hunters came to his assistance and rapidly finished the boar. The carpenter is in a precarious condition. Has my name on her collar, too, Beside the name of "Night." Than I've a nice umbrella, too,
