Pather Sheehau, Hugh Ryan, Thomas Davies, Captain Sullivan, Captain Harbottle, inspector for hulls; John Bull, inspector of boilers. At exactly 3.05 the dogshores were knocked away and the huge hull began to move very slowly, so slowly that the movement was scarcely perceptible at 3.12. Miss Daisy Ker of St. Catharines pronounced the words, "Il bereby name this boat the Garden City," and at the same time let go the ribbons which held the bottle of champagne. The boat slid gracefully into the muddy waters of the Bay.

The Garden City when completed will be one of the handsomest steamers on Lake Ontario. She is 180 feet long, beam 25 feet, width 44 feet, depth Il feet, and will carry 500 passengers. She is expected to run 16 miles an hour. The engines will be generated by two boilers of 1100 horse power.

The Garden City was built under the supervision of Engineer Redway, and it is expected she will be ready for service about June 18.

The Lakeside brought over about 150 passengers from St. Catharines and the Port sengres from St. Catharines and the Port sengres of Police Commissioners yester. Carlyle, Maguire, Lawrie, Wright, Driscoll and Keating, Captain Larkin, J. A. Pay, P.

Ladies, the Time Is Rips.

Easter is coming, Lent will soon be over; and the season of penitence will be succeeded by the reign of the dainty bonnet. As the ladies lay their plans for coming conquests the choosing of the dainty weapons that win by charming becomes an object of great importance to them, and as their sagacity in such matters is well known we may expect them to repair to the place where the largest, finest and most tasteful stock is to be found. And Botsford's is that place. The splendid display in his window, 526 Queen-street.

orme years has acted as Mr. Abraham Orpen's private secretary, died very suddenly yesterday at 23 Jordan-street at about 2 p.m. The decased had been ill for about two months and yesterday he took a hack to the office, but collapsed on entering. He was carried upstairs and placed in his favorite chair, but died in a few moments without being able to speak. The decased was a man of considerable culture, speaking several languages, and connected with some of the best families of Ontario and Quebec. The St. Lawrence Boute to England.

Commencing with the Sardinian, May 7, the royal mail steamships of the Allan Line will sail from Montreal every Saturday at daybreak (Quebec 9 a.m. Sundays) for Londaybreak (Quebec 9 a.m. Sundays) for Londonderry and Liverpool.

Passengers can embark at Montreal the evening before the day of sailing.

The rates of passage are very low and passengers purchasing return tickets have the privilege of going or returning by the Allan State Linesteamships, which sail betweenNew York and Glasgow (calling at Derry). Mr. H. D. Warren, president of the company, made the presentation and fitly expressed the warm feelings of friendship and respect with which Mr. Candee is regarded by the company and its employes, Mr. Candee thanked his confreres for their gift and the gratifying expression of good feeling accompanying it. Mr. Candee leaves for Memphis, Tenn., to-day.

Parmaelee's Vegetable Pills contains Mandrake and Dandellon, they cure Liver and Kidney Complaints with unerring certainty. They also contain Roots and Herbs which have specific virtues truly wonderful in their action on the stomach and bowels. Mr. E. A. Cairncross, Shakespeare, writes: "I consider Parmelee's Pills an excellent remedy for Billousness and Derangement of the Liver, having used them myself for some time.

The Hospital Must Be Built Forthwith. Chairman Ald. Graham has instructed Architect Simpson to prepare plans for the $20,000 isolation hospital. Mr. Greer is willing to raise the injunction for six weeks to give the city time to commence work on the building, and if the work is commenced within that time to raise it for a longer time to allow the completion of the hospital.

The plans of the proposed new hotel at the sorner of Yonge and Alexander-streets have been filed with the City Commissioner for approval by H. A. Knowles. The building is an laborate one and will cost from $30,000 to $35,000. The contractors are James Orang for the brick work, Frank Jackson for the carpentering and Pendrith & Hutton for the plastering.

Fish for Good Friday. Cleghorn, 94 Yonge-street, has in stock for Good Friday the finest assortment of fish ever shown in Toronto, comprising salmon, shad, blue fish, halibut, etc., etc. Also fresh strawberries, banannas, pineapples and all the fruits of the season.

Phonograph Parlors. The Phonograph Parlors, 12 King-street east, will be open on Good Friday. A number of new selections have recently been added and are well worth hearing. Severe colds are easily cured by the use of Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, a medicine of extraor dinary penetrating and healing properties. It is acknowledged by those who have used it as being the best medicine sold for coughs, colds, infiammation of the lungs, and all affections of the throat and chest. Its agreeableness to the taste makes it a favorite with ladies and children.
