THE TROUSSEAU.

Where You Are Going Will More or Less Influence Your Choice.

Some very smart weddings of recent years have been followed by a retreat to the country, to a bungalow or camp loaned for the occasion, where an idyl-lic week or so might be passed in solitude a deux. The girl who hopes to avoid trousseau problems by such a ruse only postpones her difficulties, or rather privileges, in this respect, for upon her return to civilization she will be expected to display as many pretty frocks as her neighbor.

Many girls from the small towns find in their wedding journey a delightful opportunity for a trip to a great city, and this idea has a good deal to recommend it. Both will find an inspiration and a refreshment in the thorough change of environment. In this case the trousseau need not occupy an unreasonable portion of the bride's time. Indeed, it is a mistake to be burdened by too much impedimenta. A smart slik suit for a "going away" gown, a chiffon or net afternoon frock or two, a one piece gown for the street and a couple of taffeta theater and restaurant gowns, with hats and blouses, dainty shoes and stockings, a pile of ethereal lingerie and some charming negligees for resting hours will be suf-

If the young couple are spending their first summer at a smart resort, the bride will need a greater variety. It is well to remember that nothing is more appropriate for morning wear than the simple white skirts and blouses in which a girl often looks her best. Pique is the newest material for the skirts, and they should be cut to flare somewhat, though not unduly.

The wardrobe for morning, afternoon and evening being settled, there remains that crux of the whole affair the wedding gown. Stately tradition is somewhat relaxed here also. Satin that "stands alone" and a three yard train, the whole ensemble as dignified and matronly as possible, were We have changed all that too. White satin with a court train is still permissible, even desirable, if the wedding is to be a formal one in a great city church.

For a country or small church ceremony, or for a more intimate house affair, however, the gown of lace net or chiffon seems more appropriate and wearable. The skirt is neither short nor long, but just sweeps the ground all round and is apt to be made up of ruffies. The tulle veil and orange blossoms still reign supreme—but have a care in the arrangement, for they can be most horribly unbecoming. It is a fairly safe rule to keep the head as small as possible and to avoid bunching. A garland around the head of orange buds or seed pearls is charming if a line across the forehead is becoming to you. If not, a tulle veil that is pulled on at the back and a short plain veil of lace over the face and head often make a better arrangement.

The gown in the illustration is pretty and not too elaborate. It is short, the train being supplied by the long tulle veil which is fastened to a pretty little Dutch cap. The gown is of white chiffon made with a rose point bodice and peplum.

The Time to Call.

The well bred woman is more than particular in the matter of calls—calls of common courtesy, dinner calls, calls of condolence or of congratulation. For the woman of few social obligations there is absolutely no excuse for ignoring the few rules to be observed in calling. Only the woman whose so-cial life is one mad round of entertainments is justified in making her cards serve calling duty without her.

In a large city women call between the hours of 3 and half past 6 o'clock in the afternoon.

If the woman on whom you intend to call has an afternoon at home always select that day for your call,

In the small towns, the suburbs and country colonies calling is permissible both afternoon and evening, but even suburbanite does not like to be caught unawares in the morning.

CHERRY SEASON.

This Is the Time of Year When Fruit Is at Its Best.

WAYS TO USE

Desserts and Salads Can Be Made as Well as Frozen Dainties-Several Recipes For Use of Cherries Given Below.

Try a cherry dessert with rice for the children's dinner. Drop large cherries into a hot rich sirup until they are heated through. Have some boiled rice ready and pile the cherries on a nest of it on the platter, serving the whole with whipped cream. Garnish, if possible, with a few cherry leaves or two or three clusters of the dipped cherries to which the stems are still Cherry Salad.

Select some firm, ripe bananas that are not too long. Loosen a strip of the skin, turn this back with a spoon carefully and remove the inside in small pieces. Allow half a cup of the banana to each cup of cherries. To make the dressing, take the juice from the cherries and mix with lemon and orange juices to taste, sweetening with pulverized sugar as necessary. Pour this over the salad and put the mixture on the ice. Just before serving stir the ingredients together lightly, pack them into the banana cases and serve on in-dividual plates garnished with cherry leaves and pitted cherries.

Cherry Betty.

Butter a deep baking dish and cover the bottom with a layer of stoned cherries. Sprinkle the fruit with sugar, nutmeg and cocoanut. Add sufficient cherry juice to moisten. On top of this spread a layer of breadcrumbs and continue in alternate layers of fruit and crumbs until the dish is full. See that the top layer is one of bread-crumbs. Cover and steam in the oven for one hour; then uncover and brown quickly. Serve hot with sweetened cream as a sauce.

Cherry Roll.

Sift together two cupfuls of flour, teaspoonfuls of baking powder and a pinch of salt. Beat two eggs, add to them a cupful of milk and a rounding tablespoonful of melted butter. Mix with the dry ingredients to a light batter and stir in two cupfuls of pitted cherries. Turn into a well greased pudding mold having a tightly fitting lid and steam for two hours. Turn out, garnish with cherries and serve with hard sauce

Cherries In Jelly Mold.

To one pint of juice drained from stewed cherries add sugar to make quite sweet and let it come to a boil. Dissolve a tablespoonful of granulated gelatin in cold water to cover, pour over it the boiling hot cherry juice and strain into a border mold. Set aside to become firm; then turn out carefully on a low glass dish, fill the center with pitted, sweetened cherries and heap over all whipped cream.

Cherry Shortcake.

Sift together two cupfuls of flour, a heaping teaspoonful of baking powder, two tablespoonfuls of sugar and a teaspoonful of salt. Rub in half a cupful of butter and mix with a well beaten egg added to a half cupful of milk. Make the dough soft, roll out about an inch thick and bake for about twentyfive minutes. When done split care fully, butter well and cover with half of the cherries, from which of course the stones have been removed. Sprinkle with sugar. Butter the top layer, cover the cherries, sprinkle with pow-dered sugar and serve with whipped cream. The cherries should be very ripe.

Cherry Toast.

Cook a pint of pitted cherries with a cupful of sugar until the fruit is tender. Have buttered slice of toast ready, pour this mixture o and when cold serve with whipped

A girl always likes to mention some highbrows who were to have attended her wedding, but at the last moment tound it impossible to come.
