The St. Regis is a new hotel de luxe for people of discrimination at Amherst with accommodation for one hundred guests. The owners have spared no expense in making this one of the best hotels in all its appointments in the Maritime Provinces. Mr. G. C. Lewis is the manager.

Hampton

Hampton, April 9th.—Mr. John B. Tompkins has returned to Hampton after being absent four months in California visiting his sister, Mrs. Bogart and her family, and though speaking in glowing terms of the pleasant hours spent in California, and enjoying to the full the ever-pleasant company of Mrs. Bogart and family, he says Hampton is good enough for him.

Mrs. L. D. Brooks, who has been invalided, we are pleased to say is on a fair way to health again.

Mr. Harry Foster, a student at Wolfville, spent the Easter holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Judson Foster.

Mr. Robert Chute, we are pleased to report, as being much better at time of writing, although for a time his friends almost despaired of his recovery.

Mr. Elijah Risteen, who had the misfortune to cut his foot some time since, is so far improved that he goes out, but with the aid of a crutch.

Mr. George O'Neal from Spa Springs and Mr. Ritson Bent, of Outram were recent guests of W. H. and Mrs. O'Neal.

Mrs. Rueben Chute, we are sorry to report as being quite sick.

Fragrance

WHEN you open a tin of Red Rose Coffee, you will surely be pleased with its unusual fragrance, and you will note particularly the small, even grains, free of the yellow flake or chaff which you have always been accustomed to see in the ground coffee you have used. This is the result of our new crushing process. The small grains settle quickly, so the coffee is never muddy, but always bright and clear. You will be convinced before you taste it, that it is a coffee of unusual quality.
