NOTES.

THE Rev. W. Almon DesBrisay, of Toronto, who has but recently recovered from a severe illness with typhoid fever, has resumed his missionary work, travelling in the interests of this magazine.

THE death of Canon Liddon has removed another bright light from the Church of the Mother land. How fleeting and frail is the life of man, however vigorous may be the mind and intellect!

WE have received the "Fourth Annual Report of the Women's Auxiliary," of the Diocese of Ontario, the same of the Diocese of Montreal, and the same of the Diocese of Niagara. They all indicate a large amount of faithful work and thorough organization.

A SCHOOLMASTER and schoolmistress are wanted for Rupert's Land Indian Industrial School. Here is a grand opening for any seeking missionary work. Apply to the Principal, Rev. W. A. Burman.

THE Rev. Jervois A. Newnham has resigned his rectory in Montreal to undertake missionary work in the Diocese of Moosonee. The missionary spirit must indeed be strong when it thus influences a young man to give up the rectorship of a city church, with every prospect of advancement in his profession, and betake himself to a cold and desolate region such as that embraced by the Diocese of Moosonee to undertake hard missionary work almost exclusively among Indians. Well may we pray that the Master's blessing may go with our brother in his self-denying work.

IT is a subject for much congratulation that a Church school for girls is about to be established in Windsor, Nova Scotia. Particulars regarding it may be obtained by writing to H. Y. Hind, Esq., D.C.L., of Windsor, to whom the promotion of the scheme is largely due.

AN excellent photograph of the bishops, clergy and laity, composing the conference lately held in Winnipeg regarding the consolidation of the Church in Canada, may be obtained from J. F. Mitchell, 566 Main st., Winnipeg; price, $1.50.

MEMORIAL CHURCHES.

Mr. J. W. H. Rowley, of Yarmouth, Nova Scotia, thus writes to us:—

The June No. contained a most interesting account of the Trivitt Memorial Church in Exeter, Ont., with a short biographical sketch of the donors. It was in just such a manner and with just such feelings moving the minds of good people of old time, that many of the old village churches and cathedrals throughout England were originally erected, hundreds of years ago, and there they stand to this day, in good condition, hoary monuments of the piety and loving kindness of those who have long passed away, but whose works remain in everlasting remembrance.
