

MR. ANSTET ON CATHOLIC LAW.—The following criticism appeared in the Morning Herald of Thursday week:—A Guide to the Laws of England affecting Roman Catholics. By Thomas Chisholme Anstey, Esq., of the Middle Temple, Barrister-at-law.—“This is an exceedingly useful work, and is written with learning and ability commensurate with the utility of its design. It has filled up a void in our law libraries, which one now wonders has been so long unsupplied; and though it is strictly speaking a compilation, it is not to be classed amongst the hosts of compilations which yearly issue from the press, bringing down the law on any given subject to the latest date or the most recent decision. Mr. Anstey has compiled a very valuable treatise from original materials, which, while most interesting personally to a large class of religionists, will be of great assistance to the legal profession as a rapid, succinct, and dependable summary of law, which has hitherto been scattered over the entire surface of text-books and reports. To both we strongly recommend this very serviceable ‘Guide.’ Mr. Anstey has confined himself to a treatise on the actual state of the law, and has not burdened his work by historical and antiquarian researches into the progress of legislation on the subject of legislation affecting Roman Catholics since the Reformation; and this gives to his book an air of every day practical utility, and enables him to lay before the profession a bird’s eye glance of the law as it now stands. To render his task still more valuable, he has added a most important chapter on the habits and duties of Catholics in the Colonies—points on which all our commentators have hitherto been silent.”

The Abbe Helsen, founder of a new sect which has left no traces, and author of many impious and immoral writings, was arrested near Louvain lately for “vagabondage,” and committed to the Hospice of the Alexians at Louvain. There falling dangerously ill, and being visited by the Dean of Louvain, his ancient class-fellow at the seminary at Malines, he had the happiness to renounce his errors, return to the Catholic faith, and be made partaker of the Sacraments of the Church. To repair the public scandal he had given, the abbe signed, in the presence of witnesses, two of them medical men, a retraction, the original of which has been deposited in the Archives of the archbishop of Malines.—Journal de Bruxelles.

THE best remedy ever yet discovered for WORMS. It not only destroys them, but invigorates the whole system, and carries off the superabundant slime or mucus so prevalent in the stomach and bowels, especially those in bad health. It is harmless in its effects on the system, and the health of the patient is always improving by its use, even when no worms are discovered. The medicine being palatable, no child will refuse to take it, not even the most delicate. Plain and practical observations upon the diseases resulting from Worms accompany each bottle.

PHILADELPHIA SATURDAY COURIER.
40,000 Subscribers.

The Proprietors of the far-famed Philadelphia Saturday Courier known and acknowledged as the best Family newspaper in the World, stimulated by the already vast and rapidly increasing patronage, have resolved to commence the New Year with redoubled energy and enterprise. It would seem unnecessary to say one word in commendation of the past or present excellence of the Saturday Courier. Its mature age, (twelve years,) and its unrivalled circulation—nearly 40,000,—are its best recommendations. The Courier is independent in its character, fearlessly pursuing a straight forward course, and supporting the best interests of the public. IT IS STRICTLY NEUTRAL IN POLITICS AND RELIGION. It will maintain a high tone of morals, and not an article will appear in its pages which should not find a place at every fireside. It has more than double the number of constant readers, to that of any other paper published in the country, embracing the best families of our Republic. Every one should be proud to patronize the Philadelphia Saturday Courier, as by its unbroken series of original AMERICAN TALES, by such native writers as Mrs. Caroline Lee Hentz, Mrs. St. Leon Loud, "The Lady of Maryland," Professor Ingrahame, T. S. Arthur, Esq., Miss Sedgwick, Miss Leslie, and many others, it has justly earned the title of the AMERICAN FAMILY NEWSPAPER.
