

importance to them to attend the annual meeting than to stay at home to make money.

Dr. Atkinson said he had been requested by Dr. Evans, of Paris, to say that he had expected to be present at this meeting (having been mistaken as to the date of its session), but that he had to return to Paris to be present on the fete day of his pet emperor. He had been greatly pleased with what he saw of Dr. Evans during his short stay; he was one of the few men who could be petted without being spoiled; he had received, without solicitation, many orders of knighthood; and he (Dr. A.) indorsed him as a Christian and a scholar. Though dwelling so long in a foreign land, he had maintained his loyalty to American principles and American dentistry, and he desired to be so recognized by his fellows in this Association.
