

firm. By its consolidation with the American Collectors Co. and the New England Stamp Co. a new power of capital, far in advance of rivals, has been formed, but everyone will miss the familiar name.

The sudden demise of Redfield's Philatelic Post was a matter of much comment, but the news of its purchase by and consolidation with Mekeel's Weekly will explain. The Mekeel Publishing Co. has been incorporated under the laws of the state of New York. It is a closed corporation, consisting of Messrs Mekeel (I. A.), Redfield and Severn.

J. M. Bartels, the dealer and authority on entire envelopes has moved from Washington to 230 Washington St., Boston. He follows in the steps of Mr. Rothfuchs who some years since left the Capital for the Hub.

STAMPS STOLEN.

Buffalo, N. Y., July 6.—A daring thief made his way into the government building at the exposition at midnight, July 4, passed the four guards, and stole $4,000 worth of stamps from the postoffice exhibit. These were rare, uncanceled stamps, composing a collection of the issue of this government from the first issue to the Pan-American issue. Some of them are quite valuable and were borrowed by the government from private collectors for this exhibition.

Jamaica is one of the few British Colonies which can be obtained complete for a comparatively small sum and it is nearly if not entirely free from the speculative taint.
