HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

TOMATOES (yellow).—The small yellow tomatoes, with an equal quantity of grated pineapple, and preserved according to the preceding recipe, omitting the lemon and ginger, make most delightful preserves.

TOMATOES (ripe).—Select a half peck of fine, smooth tomatoes, not overripe. Scald, peel and weigh them, and to each pound of tomatoes allow one pound of sugar, the juice and rind of half a lemon, a small piece of ginger root cut into slices. Put all together in a porcelain-lined kettle, and simmer gently for three hours, then put carefully into tumblers or jars and stand away to cool. When cold tie up as directed.

TOMATO BUTTER.—Scald twenty pounds of ripe tomatoes, and remove the skins, put them in a porcelain-lined kettle with four pounds of apples pared, cored and quartered; stand over a moderate fire to cook slowly for one hour, stirring occasionally to prevent sticking, then add eight pounds of sugar, the juice of four lemons and one tablespoonful of powdered ginger. Cook and stir continually until reduced to the consistency of marmalade. Put in tumblers or jars. When cold, tie up as directed.

APPLE JELLY.—Use fair, sour apples. Slice them, skins, seeds and all, and simmer with one-half a cup of water till well cooked and soft. Then strain through a cloth, add a pound of sugar to a pint of juice, boil a few moments, skimming till clear; then pour into glasses, and cover when cold.

TOMATO FIGS.—Allow to six pounds of tomatoes three pounds of granulated sugar. Select those that are quite ripe, small and smooth. Scald and remove the skins. Place a layer of the tomatoes in the bottom of a porcelain-lined kettle, strew them thickly with the sugar and place them over a moderate fire. Stew very gently until the sugar appears to have thoroughly penetrated the tomatoes. Lift very carefully, one at a time, with a spoon, spread them on dishes and dry in the sun, sprinkling with granulated sugar several times while drying. When perfectly dry pack in jars with a layer of sugar.

PASTRY SANDWICHES.—Roll a piece of puff paste into a large sheet and lay it on a baking tin; spread the paste with fresh fruit well sweetened or with preserves; lay over this another thin sheet of paste, press together at the edges, and with a sharp knife mark the paste into diamonds so that it may be easily cut when baked. A little before it is done take from the oven, brush with the white of egg, sift powdered sugar over it, put back in the oven to colour. When done cut into diamonds and serve either hot or cold.

SANDWICH DRESSING.—Mix together very smoothly half a pound of nice butter, three tablespoonfuls of mixed mustard, three tablespoonfuls of sweet oil, a little white or red pepper, a little salt and the yolk of an egg. Chop some tongue and ham together very fine; cut some bread thin, spread it with the dressing, then with a layer of meat, put on another layer of bread and press it hard; with a sharp knife trim off the edges, and make all the sandwiches the same size.

SOME of the wise men certainly have gone West. A law is in force in Minnesota requiring the manufacturers of alum baking powders to state on the labels: "This baking powder contains alum." The public should demand that the composition of all food preparations should be thus made known.
