Blaming the War

A plea for the recognition of the fact that Canada was due for a period of readjustment anyway, war or no war. Some suggestions as to the causes. Page 15

Buying German Goods

A correspondent suggests that Canadian houses be shown importations by those who previously bought in Germany, and asked to quote prices for similar articles. Page 9

September Bond Sales

Sales of Canadian municipal bonds last month at home were comparatively small, but larger than they were during August. No sales were made in London. Page 14

August Bank Statement

The statement of the chartered banks of Canada for the month of August indicates large recalls of loans abroad and a substantial increase in circulation. Page 5

Canadian Fire Losses

The fire waste in Canada last month was $726,278, the lowest monthly total with one exception, in the past four years. Page 13

Canadian Loans in the States

Somebody started a yarn about inquiries being made in New York for $100,000,000 of loans. The truth of the affair. Page 16

Against an Election

A word as to the talk of a general election in Canada, said to be desired by certain cabinet ministers at Ottawa. Page 16

Getting Back to Normal

Some more facts and figures of activities in Canada, cited for the benefit of occasional wavering faith in a great country. Page 10
