

Literary Notes.

F. Hopkinson Smith's new novel, "Tom Grogan," will begin in the Christmas number of The Century. The labour problem enters into it, and in its plot Mr. Smith is said to have utilized some of his experiences as a builder. C. S. Reinhart furnishes the illustrations.

The late Professor Boyesen's just published article on American humorous habits of speech and writing acquires a pathetic interest from its posthumous publication. In the course of it, he remarks incidentally that "the only contemporary American authors who have really international fame are Bret Harte and Mark Twain."

AN OLD RHYME RESET.

"Affliction sore long time she bore Physicians were in vain."

At last one day, a friend did say,
"You'd soon be well again"

if you would take, as I did, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for that is the cure for all the peculiar ailments of women. It is a safe, simple and sure remedy. It banishes those distressing maladies that make woman's life a burden, curing all painful irregularities, uterine disorders, inflammations and ulceration, prolapsus and kindred weaknesses. As a nerve it cures nervous exhaustion, prostration, debility, relieves mental anxiety and hypochondria and induces refreshing sleep." She took the advice and is well. "Favorite Prescription" is the only remedy for the delicate derangements and weaknesses of females, sold by druggists. A pamphlet free. Address World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.
