

spousal positions. In these jobs a knowledge of German is an asset. Submit a resume to the personnel officer.

Dependants' Employment Experience 1985-1988

U.S. Embassy:           1 lab. technician
                          1 person to give word processing training

U.S. Store:            1 clerk, part-time

Telecommunications Company, Dusseldorf: The employee was an expert in telecommunications software, spoke German, and had to promise he would be there indefinitely. He travelled 3 hours by train each day.

Accounting Firm, Cologne: Swiss citizen fluent in German, part-time

American School:     1 paraprofessional ESL teacher at $6 per hour

Canadian Embassy:   2 clerks, consular section, part-time 1 secretarial position
                          part-time temporary secretarial and clerical work Community Coordinator -- part-time contract

Potential Employers

American Embassy
International Union for Conservation of Native and Natural Resources
Institut fur Sprachvermittlung und Inter-nationulery
Fulsuvastrwscr
Intergovernmental Committee for Immigration (ICM)
UNHCR
OECD--Publications and Information Centre
Inter Nations E.V.
Lycée Français
English Seminars den Universitat Bonn
Medizinische Einrich (University of Rheinischen Friedrich W.)

Frankfurt

Reciprocal Employment Agreement: Yes
Approximate number of spouses working as locally engaged staff: 1
Community Coordinator contract work exists: No
Registered Nurse position exists at the mission: No

The American Forces, one of the largest foreign employers in Frankfurt, requires English-speaking employees but preference is given to dependants of their staff and American citizens.