

7. Each Contracting Party shall have the right, within sixty (60) days following the serving of a notice, for its aeronautical authorities to conduct an assessment in the territory of the other Contracting Party of the security measures being carried out, or planned to be carried out, by aircraft operators in respect of flights arriving from, or departing to the territory of the first Contracting Party. The administrative arrangements, including the setting of specific dates for the conduct of such assessments, shall be mutually determined between the aeronautical authorities of both Contracting Parties and applied without delay so as to ensure that assessments will be conducted expeditiously.

8. When an incident or threat of an incident of unlawful seizure of civil aircraft or other unlawful acts against the safety of such aircraft, their passengers and crew members, airports or air navigation facilities occurs, the Contracting Parties shall assist each other by facilitating communications and taking other appropriate measures intended to terminate rapidly and safely such incident or threat thereof.

9. When a Contracting Party has reasonable grounds to believe that the other Contracting Party has departed from the provisions of this Article, it may request consultations. Such consultations shall start within fifteen (15) days of receipt of such a request. Failure to reach a satisfactory consensus within fifteen (15) days from the start of consultations shall constitute grounds for the Contracting Party that requested the consultations to withhold, revoke, suspend or impose conditions on the authorizations of the designated airlines of the other Contracting Party. When justified by an emergency, or to prevent further non-compliance with the provisions of this Article, the Contracting Party that believes that the other Contracting Party has departed from the provisions of this Article may take interim action at any time.
