ADJOURNMENT

Hon. Mr. MACKENZIE said that considering the late session they had had last night he would move that the House do now adjourn.

Right Hon. Sir JOHN A. MACDONALD asked the Minister of Justice whether he intended to go on with his Election Bill on Tuesday next.

Hon. Mr. MACKENZIE said if the hon. gentleman, the leader of the Opposition, desired that the Election Bill should not be gone on with until Wednesday, the Government had no objection to postponing its consideration until then. They would take such Government measures as could be gone on with tomorrow, and after they were disposed of, the business of private members could be taken up.

The House adjourned at 10.30 p.m.

NOTICE OF MOTION

Hon. Mr. CAUCHON—On Friday next—That a Special Committee be appointed to consider whether any facilities can be given for the despatch of business in Parliament, especially in regard to the relations of the Houses; and that the said Committee be composed of Messrs. Dorion, Smith, Right Hon. Sir John A. Macdonald, Holton, Cameron (Cardwell), Blake, and the mover.

Hon. Mr. MITCHELL gives notice of his intention on Friday next to ask whether the Governor in Council has made the necessary rules and regulations referred to in section 53 of part 4 of the Act entitled “An Act relating to Shipping, and for the registration, inspection and classification thereof.” If they have not, then he will ask when they will be made and published in the Canada Gazette, as provided by the said Act.

Mr. THOMPSON (Haldimand)—On Friday next—An Act to provide for better egress from railway cars in case of fire.

Mr. ROSS (Durham East): Whether it is the intention of Government to take the telegraph lines into their own hands, the
