

The Senate adjourned during pleasure.

The Honourable

The Speaker of the Senate

27059-1

Ermond Butler

Your obedient servant,

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Secretary to the Governor General.

The Honourable

Role I shall try to encourage the best features range of their activities and attitudes. In this representing the Canadian people in a broad

Her Majesty the Queen of Canada, that of Governor General as the representative of the final and constitutional functions of the Indian breeders have added to the tradition careers of my two distinguished Canadians sets an example to inspire all Canadians.

Long devotion to all that is good and honourable developed predecessor. His courageous and life-longy General Georges Vanier, my much beloved predecessor. His integrity encouraged of our loss in the recent death of His Excel-

On this occasion we feel again the sadness of his passing.

Every region who have so freely offered their sisters and by the countless Canadians from Queen on the advice of her Canadian Minister.

been repposed in me by Her Majesty our will be to merit the confidence which had instillation: that my sole purpose and effort

May I renew my pledge at the ceremony of open the Centennial Session of Parliament.

that he had received the following communication:

The Hon. the Speaker informed the Senate

that he had received the following communication:

I have the honour to inform you that

His Excellency the Governor General will arrive at the main entrance of the Parliament Buildings at 4 P.M. on this day, Monday, the 8th May, 1967, and when it has been signified that all is in readiness, will proceed to the Chamber of the Senate to open formally the Second Session of the Twenty-seventh Parliament.

May I renew my sole purpose and effort to open the Centennial Session of Parliament.

that which brings me here today to for Canada of my new office and duty concernous of the possibilities for good for the House of Commons, and that House being

come, with their Speaker, His Excellency was pleased to open the Second Session of Parliament.

Parliament having been summoned by

Proclamation to meet this day for the dispa-

re of business:

The Senate met at 4 P.M., the Speaker in

the Chair.

Members of the House of Commons:

Honourable Members of the Senate:

As my words are being broadcast throughout Canada I should like to begin on a personal note. I want to say that I am deeply

conscious of the possibilities for good

for the House of Commons, and that House being

come, with their Speaker, His Excellency was pleased to command the attendance of the House of Commons, and that House being

come, with their Speaker, His Excellency was

pleased to open the Second Session of Parliament.

Parliament having been summoned by

Proclamation to meet this day for the dispa-

re of business:

The Senate met at 4 P.M., the Speaker in

the Chair.

Members of the House of Commons:

Honourable Members of the Senate:

As my words are being broadcast through-

out Canada I should like to begin on a

personal note. I want to say that I am deeply

conscious of the possibilities for good

for the House of Commons, and that House being

come, with their Speaker, His Excellency was

pleased to open the Second Session of Parliament.

Parliament having been summoned by

Proclamation to meet this day for the dispa-

re of business:

The Senate met at 4 P.M., the Speaker in

the Chair.

Members of the House of Commons:

Honourable Members of the Senate:

As my words are being broadcast through-

out Canada I should like to begin on a

personal note. I want to say that I am deeply

conscious of the possibilities for good

for the House of Commons, and that House being

come, with their Speaker, His Excellency was

pleased to open the Second Session of Parliament.

Parliament having been summoned by

Proclamation to meet this day for the dispa-

re of business:

The Senate met at 4 P.M., the Speaker in

the Chair.

Members of the House of Commons:

Honourable Members of the Senate:

As my words are being broadcast through-

out Canada I should like to begin on a

personal note. I want to say that I am deeply

conscious of the possibilities for good

for the House of Commons, and that House being

come, with their Speaker, His Excellency was

pleased to open the Second Session of Parliament.

Parliament having been summoned by

Proclamation to meet this day for the dispa-

re of business:

The Senate met at 4 P.M., the Speaker in

the Chair.

Members of the House of Commons:

Honourable Members of the Senate:

As my words are being broadcast through-

out Canada I should like to begin on a

personal note. I want to say that I am deeply

conscious of the possibilities for good

for the House of Commons, and that House being

come, with their Speaker, His Excellency was

pleased to open the Second Session of Parliament.

Parliament having been summoned by

Proclamation to meet this day for the dispa-

re of business:

The Senate met at 4 P.M., the Speaker in

the Chair.

Members of the House of Commons:

Honourable Members of the Senate:

As my words are being broadcast through-

out Canada I should like to begin on a

personal note. I want to say that I am deeply

conscious of the possibilities for good

for the House of Commons, and that House being

come, with their Speaker, His Excellency was

pleased to open the Second Session of Parliament.

Parliament having been summoned by

Proclamation to meet this day for the dispa-

re of business:

The Senate met at 4 P.M., the Speaker in

the Chair.

Members of the House of Commons:

Honourable Members of the Senate:

As my words are being broadcast through-

out Canada I should like to begin on a

personal note. I want to say that I am deeply

conscious of the possibilities for good

for the House of Commons, and that House being

come, with their Speaker, His Excellency was

pleased to open the Second Session of Parliament.

Parliament having been summoned by

Proclamation to meet this day for the dispa-

re of business:

The Senate met at 4 P.M., the Speaker in

the Chair.

Members of the House of Commons:

Honourable Members of the Senate:

As my words are being broadcast through-

out Canada I should like to begin on a

personal note. I want to say that I am deeply

conscious of the possibilities for good

for the House of Commons, and that House being

come, with their Speaker, His Excellency was

pleased to open the Second Session of Parliament.

Parliament having been summoned by

Proclamation to meet this day for the dispa-

re of business:

The Senate met at 4 P.M., the Speaker in

the Chair.

Members of the House of Commons:

Honourable Members of the Senate:

As my words are being broadcast through-

out Canada I should like to begin on a

personal note. I want to say that I am deeply

conscious of the possibilities for good

for the House of Commons, and that House being

come, with their Speaker, His Excellency was

pleased to open the Second Session of Parliament.

Parliament having been summoned by

Proclamation to meet this day for the dispa-

re of business:

The Senate met at 4 P.M., the Speaker in

the Chair.

Members of the House of Commons:

Honourable Members of the Senate:

As my words are being broadcast through-

out Canada I should like to begin on a

personal note. I want to say that I am deeply

conscious of the possibilities for good

for the House of Commons, and that House being

come, with their Speaker, His Excellency was

pleased to open the Second Session of Parliament.

Parliament having been summoned by

Proclamation to meet this day for the dispa-

re of business:

The Senate met at 4 P.M., the Speaker in

the Chair.

Members of the House of Commons:

Honourable Members of the Senate:

As my words are being broadcast through-

out Canada I should like to begin on a

personal note. I want to say that I am deeply

conscious of the possibilities for good

for the House of Commons, and that House being

come, with their Speaker, His Excellency was

pleased to open the Second Session of Parliament.

Parliament having been summoned by

Proclamation to meet this day for the dispa-

re of business:

The Senate met at 4 P.M., the Speaker in

the Chair.

Members of the House of Commons:

Honourable Members of the Senate:

As my words are being broadcast through-

out Canada I should like to begin on a

personal note. I want to say that I am deeply

conscious of the possibilities for good

for the House of Commons, and that House being

come, with their Speaker, His Excellency was

pleased to open the Second Session of Parliament.

Parliament having been summoned by

Proclamation to meet this day for the dispa-

re of business:

The Senate met at 4 P.M., the Speaker in

the Chair.

Members of the House of Commons:

Honourable Members of the Senate:

As my words are being broadcast through-

out Canada I should like to begin on a

personal note. I want to say that I am deeply

conscious of the possibilities for good

for the House of Commons, and that House being

come, with their Speaker, His Excellency was

pleased to open the Second Session of Parliament.

Parliament having been summoned by

Proclamation to meet this day for the dispa-

re of business:

The Senate met at 4 P.M., the Speaker in

the Chair.

Members of the House of Commons:

Honourable Members of the Senate:

As my words are being broadcast through-

out Canada I should like to begin on a

personal note. I want to say that I am deeply

conscious of the possibilities for good

for the House of Commons, and that House being

come, with their Speaker, His Excellency was

pleased to open the Second Session of Parliament.

Parliament having been summoned by

Proclamation to meet this day for the dispa-

re of business:

The Senate met at 4 P.M., the Speaker in

the Chair.

Members of the House of Commons:

Honourable Members of the Senate:

As my words are being broadcast through-

out Canada I should like to begin on a

personal note. I want to say that I am deeply

conscious of the possibilities for good

for the House of Commons, and that House being

come, with their Speaker, His Excellency was

pleased to open the Second Session of Parliament.

Parliament having been summoned by

Proclamation to meet this day for the dispa-</