who is Visitor of McGill, will be present to receive an honorary degree, and has promised to address the graduating class.

Then, we shall have a luncheon party, and at four o'clock you will present the Fountain, which will be received on behalf of the University and unveiled by His Excellency. In the absence of the Chancellor, Mr. E. W. Beatty, I shall make a few remarks.

Following the ceremony, there will be a garden party on the University grounds. How the evening is spent has yet to be arranged.

Looking forward with much pleasure to seeing you,

I am,

Ever yours faithfully,
