

gains which I have received.. To say, then, that I leave my work without the most sincere regret would be quite false. I have enjoyed teaching,, I have enjoyed far more studying, and I have enjoyed the companionships I have formed. Before me lie hard work, and, I hope, ultimate success; but the four years I have passed as a teacher will always be mine to look back upon with pleasure..

I am very grateful for your words of thanks and good wishes. I hope that the latter will be more than fulfilled.

Yours faithfully,

Harold R. A. Rose
H. R. A. Rose