

- Rupp, on the population of Pennsylvania, ii. 92; on the massacre at Lancaster jail, ii. 135; on the treaty between the Paxton men and the Pennsylvania government, ii. 161.
- SABINE, on the character of William Johnson, i. 97; on Rogers, i. 170.
- Sachem, the Indian, i. 4; not an enviable office, i. 5; his councillors, i. 5; his province, i. 5; his powers, ii. 232.
- Sachemship, the descent among the Iroquois of, i. 13.
- Sac Indians, the, on Lake Michigan, i. 38; claim Pontiac, i. 191; at Michilimackinac, i. 351; their ball-play, i. 352, 353; attend Johnson's conference at Niagara, ii. 181; attend Bradstreet's council at Detroit, ii. 195; terms of Bradstreet's treaty with, ii. 197; take vengeance for Pontiac's death, ii. 330.
- Sacs and Foxes, the, i. 262; the French troops fight against, i. 262, 263; fight against the Pawnees, i. 356; on the Wisconsin, i. 376; Gorell addresses, i. 379; take vengeance for Pontiac's death, ii. 330.
- Saint-Ange de Bellerive succeeds Neyon at Fort Chartres, ii. 275; Charlevoix's estimate of, ii. 275; his position not an enviable one, ii. 275; beset by embassies, ii. 275; importuned by the Illinois, ii. 275; his letters to D'Abbadie, ii. 276, 282; correspondence of, ii. 278; his interview with Pontiac, ii. 281; declines to aid Pontiac, ii. 282; on Pontiac's great wampum belt, ii. 282; assumes a more decisive tone with the Indians, ii. 301; on Pontiac's assumed peace, ii. 304; invites Croghan to Fort Chartres, ii. 307; yields Fort Chartres to the English, ii. 315; Pontiac visits, ii. 325, 326; offers his services to the Spaniards, ii. 325; buries Pontiac's body, ii. 328.
- St. Ann's, i. 52.
- Saint-Aubin, i. 226; on Pontiac's plot defeated, i. 236; on the murder of Fisher, i. 242; on the escape of the English prisoners, i. 275; on the murder of Campbell by the Indians, i. 310; on the fight of Bloody Bridge, i. 329; on the Indian attack on the schooner "Gladwyn," i. 333; on the siege of Detroit, ii. 363.
- Saint-Aubin, Mrs., i. 226.
- St. Charles River, the, i. 133, 141, 143, 145.
- St. Clair, Lake, i. 225, 242, 271, 335.
- St. Clair, the town of, i. 263.
- St. Dusky, see Sandusky.
- Ste. Genevieve, the hamlet of, ii. 273.
- Ste. Marie, the French post of, the English take possession of, i. 177.
- St. Francis, i. 51, 84.
- St. Ignace, the Jesuit mission of, i. 339.
- St. Ignatius, i. 51.
- St. Joseph, French post of, i. 51; La Salle at, i. 63; Jesuit mission of, i. 63; French fort at, i. 67; the English take possession of, i. 177; ii. 367.
- St. Joseph's, the worship of, ii. 267.
- St. Joseph, Fort, i. 221; abandoned;