

necessary on the occasion, and for navigating the latter; in all, not less than fifty or sixty men. The grants and other requisites for this purpose were even nearly compleated, when the present troubles in America began, which put a stop to an enterprize that promised to be of inconceivable advantage to the British dominions.

F I N I S.