LITTLE POMP FOR CEREMONY AT FUNERAL

Remains of Sir James Whitney Buried in Morrisburg Cemetery.

PUBLIC MEN PRESENT

Members of Parliament, Judges and Civil Servants Paid Respects.

By a Staff Reporter.
MORRISBURG, Ont., Sept. 29.—The premier of Ontario had been laid to rest in the tomb of his fathers. In a little old-fashioned cemetery on a hillside fronting a stretch of the St. Lawrence River, the body of the late Ontario statesman was buried late this afternoon and a whole countryside turned out to do him reverence. A fitful rain storm which had threatened all day gathered as the burial proceeded, and at the moment when the mourners assembled about the grave, broke in a smart patter of drops. For ten minutes the congregation stood with bared heads as the last rites were read out. The body was then lowered into a vault in the Whitney family plot and the service was over.

Little Pomp or Ceremony
There was little pomp or ceremony about the administration of the last sacred rites. There were, however, circumstances uniting to accentuate the solemnity of the occasion. At no time since the news of the death first flashed out across Canada has the sense of loss been so deeply experienced. The effect of the last few moments at the graveside served to bring home more clearly than ever the fact that this death brought some havoc into other people's lives, and that here a pin was knocked out by which many subsidiary friendships had been held together.

The fact that Sir James had lingered so long on the confines of the next world did not detract from the pathetic appeal of the last ceremony accorded him. Persons turned away feeling that for the moment at least the proof and touchstones of provincial politics had been removed.

Winding slowly up from the railroad track, the funeral cortege swung thru iron gateways to the picturesque little brown stone church erected within recent years by the Whitney family. Scores of people who had driven from the surrounding country formed long lines of approach and, marshaled by a detachment from the local militia, dotted the hillside as the solemn procession approached. The service then proceeded in the interior of the church.

Familiar Hymn Sung.
It was late in the afternoon and dusk was settling down outside when the choir began to chant in subdued tones the old familiar hymn "Nearer My God to Thee." Three small oil lamps alone were lit and the radiance flickered out faintly over the solemn faces of the visitors massed in the auditorium. There was no marked departure from the regular burial service, but the solemnity of the moment was enhanced by the solemnity of the Scripture passage included in the triumphant ringing appeal of the Apostle Paul, "O, Death, where is thy sting? O, Grave, where is thy victory?" "Jesus, Saviour, Pilot Me." Then with the assemblage kneeling, prayer was offered by Rural Dean Carson, who has the parish in charge. Behind the bar as it was borne out thru the portico and down the short road into the cemetery followed the immediate relatives of Sir James. Behind, walking two by two, came the Ontario cabinet, and lengthening out in the rear, representatives of civil, legal and religious organizations, including the sprinkling of civil service officials who had come by train; government representatives in the legislature assembled almost to a man; members coming from over the north and westerly ridings to tender parting tokens of respect.

The venerable Canon Jarvis at the grave uttered reverently the closing words of the burial service. A heavy gust of rain sprang up. In the river a passing freighter boomed hoarsely and the funeral was over.

Crowd Slowly Disappeared.
The crowd slowly melted out of the enclosure, the visitors spread out along the road to the tracks and in ten minutes the special train from Toronto began the return journey.

There were not wanting instances during the day to show the regard which the province held for Sir James Whitney. At stations thru which the special whirled flags stood at half-mast, and at two or three of the larger stops small parties were permitted to remain. In one of these there were three old men who claimed an al-

TSINGTAU BOMBARDED BY A BRITISH WARSHIP

Joined Japanese Cruisers in Lively Skirmish With Forts of Enemy.

Canadian Press Despatch.
TOKIO, Sept. 29.—A British warship joined with the Japanese in the bombardment on Sept. 28 of two of Tsingtau forts. One of the forts replied, but without effect. The result of this bombardment is not known, but a building, believed to be a barracks, was demolished and the defence works were damaged.

The work of mine sweeping continues successfully, despite the fire of the defenders on shore. One Japanese boat was hit and two men were wounded.

Seaplanes have been invaluable in reconnoitering and one is believed to have demolished a portion of the defence works with a bomb.

LONDON IS WATCHING ATTITUDE OF TURKEY

Italy, Roumania and Greece Also Shiver on Brink of Plunge.

Canadian Press Despatch.
LONDON, Sept. 29.—There is more talk of Italy, Roumania and Turkey becoming involved in the war, but for the moment Italy is being held back by the government. Turkey, it is believed, would like to take a hand, in the hope of recovering some of the territory she lost in the Balkan wars, but the moment she does, Greece would be in arms against her, while this would also be the signal for Roumania to come in.

Dutch steamers are being examined, and in this way a check has been put on commodities being shipped to Germany thru the Netherlands, and the big Dutch steamship lines announce that they will only accept cargo from America consigned to the Netherlands Government, which, to avoid a breach of neutrality, must see to it that this cargo does not get into Germany.

PARTY CAUCUS TO BE CALLED IN FEW DAYS

Members of Legislature May Meet to Select New Premier.

STRONG DEMAND FOR IT

Eastern Ontario Will Press Claims for Two Cabinet Members.

The Ontario cabinet will face the preliminaries of a general reorganization within the next few days. The first step likely to be taken is the calling of a party caucus in which every member on the Conservative side of the house will have a vote. This will be for the purpose of gaining the pulse of the ridings in the matter of a new premier. It is understood that the issuing of this call has been practically decided upon as the rank and file of the membership of the legislative assembly have been very outspoken in their demand for it. Beyond this Ontario Government matters stand in the same position as on Friday last.

The general expectation is that Col. J. S. Hendrie will be sworn in as lieutenant-governor today and will devote his immediate attention to the calling of a premier.

Caucus Next Week

Indications point to a party convention coming very soon; perhaps next week. Members state that the government should be placed under the direction of the new premier as soon as possible. It is learned that in the shake-up eastern Ontario is coming forward with some very strong claims for representation in the cabinet, and at least two portfolios are being kept in mind. Little advance has been made in regard to the premiership. As the matter stands today the eligible persons are well recognized and each seems to have a distinct following. Members agree that a caucus provides the quickest and most reliable solution.

ITALIANS FORBIDDEN TO JOIN IN CONFLICT

Will Lose Citizenship and Be Liable to Prison Terms.

ROME, Sept. 29.—The Official Gazette has published a warning issued by the government to Italians who have taken or intend to take service in the army of any country now at war.

This is against neutrality and punishable under article 18 of the penal code with from five to ten years in prison, or sixteen years in case Italy becomes involved. Article 18 also deprives any Italian who engages in military service abroad, of his Italian citizenship without exempting him from military service at home.

Lloyd George Asks Wales To Contribute 50,000 Men

Thirty-Six Thousand Have Already Rallied to Colors—No Picnic for Recruits, But Stern Enterprise From Which Vast Majority Will Return With Glorious Memories.

Canadian Press Despatch.
CARDIFF, Wales, Sept. 29, via London, 6:55 p.m.—At a big meeting here today, over which the Earl of Plymouth presided, David Lloyd George, the chancellor of the exchequer, spoke of the government's decision to raise a Welsh army of 50,000 men.
Mr. Lloyd George, who delivered a rousing speech, said that Glamorgan-shire already had recruited 24,000 and Monmouthshire 12,000 men. He frankly told his hearers that the recruits were not going out for a picnic, but for a stern enterprise, which would involve hardships, wounds and danger. But he added, a vast majority would return and would have glorious memories to the end of their lives—memories that they would not barter for all the gold in the Bank of England.
He pointed out that under conscription Wales would be compelled to contribute 250,000 men but that a voluntary army of 50,000 men would be just as good as a forced army five times that number.

The first lists passed thru the American embassy today. They were not very extended, but additional lists are expected shortly. Up to the present time these exchanges have been arranged only for women and children and men over 55 years or less than 18 years of age or physically disabled. The war office promises a speedy publication of the lists of English prisoners in Germany to relieve the anxiety of relatives.

All Motor Cars in Northern France Requisitioned for Purpose of Pursuit—Peronne Has Been Recaptured—Part of Tournai Destroyed by Germans—Japanese Occupy All High Ground Around Tsingtau—Russians Occupy More Towns in Victorious March Thru Galicia—German Casualties so Far Estimated at 300,000 and Allies 160,000.

LONDON, Sept. 30, 12.25 a.m.—A Paris despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company says:

"It is stated here tonight (Tuesday) that the German right has been entirely broken and is now being pursued by the allies. All the automobiles in northern France have been requisitioned for the purpose of pursuit.
"Armored motor cars with mitrailleuses are also being used to pursue the retreating enemy.
"The official communication issued at 3 o'clock demonstrates unmistakably that the Germans have been surrounded in the Somme Department, the French front extending further east.
"It is officially stated that Peronne has been recaptured."
The above message has been referred to the British official press bureau which, while not objecting to its publication, takes no responsibility for its correctness.

JAPS OCCUPY TSINGTAU HEIGHTS.

The Japanese occupied all the high ground outside Tsingtau (seat of government of the German concession of Kiaochow), overlooking the Germans' main line of defence, before noon Monday, says a statement given out by official news bureau tonight. The communication continues:
"They began an attack on the advanced positions four kilometres (two miles and a half) from the enemy's main line at dawn. In a spurt of fierce flame from sea and land they drove the enemy from his position."

The official press bureau issued tonight the following regarding the operations in northern France:
"There is practically no change in the situation. The allied left have had some heavy fighting, but they are holding their own."
MORE BRITISH CASUALTIES.

The following casualties among British officers have been reported from headquarters at the front:
Killed, 3; died of wounds, 5; wounded, 8; officers previously reported missing who have now rejoined their commands, 4.

VON KLUK WANTED TO PARLEY.

Direct Copyrighted Cable to The Toronto World.
LONDON, Sept. 29.—The report is current that General von Kluk, commanding the German right, opened a peace parley on September 26 with General Joffre, offering to surrender if his men were allowed to retire to Germany and guaranteeing that they would not again take part in the war. According to the story, General Joffre flatly refused to consider such terms and directed that the attack continue. It is said the army of Von Kluk is slowly disintegrating under the terrific assaults of the last few days and that a general backward movement has already set in. Large quantities of ammunition and many guns are being abandoned, according to the rumor.

VERY HEAVY CASUALTIES.

The tighter censorship is felt in the absence of news from the seat of war where the greatest events are taking place. New estimates of German casualties place the German losses at 300,000 and those of the allies at 100,000.

An official statement made by the press bureau tonight confirms previous statements that the German position on the Aisne was chosen and prepared long before the battle.
WATCHING FOR THE EMDEN.

The British admiralty is exceedingly anxious to locate the German cruiser Emden which recently dropped a few shells into the City of Madras, while casually passing that port. She also tendered her respects to Pondicherry. But it is not for these affronts that the admiralty seeks the Emden. She has sunk four British steamships and a collier since the outbreak of hostilities. Every captain of England's forces has strict orders to run the Emden down at the very first opportunity.

GERMANS OCCUPY BELGIAN TOWN.

ROTTERDAM, via London, Sept. 29, 11.50 p.m.—The Belgians were driven out of Moll, a town 28 miles northeast of Louvain, on Sunday and the place is now occupied by the Germans, according to a despatch to The Rotterdamse Courant.

RUSSIANS TAKE MORE TOWNS.
