

	PAGE
THE SHIP'S MONKEY.
Jacko's tricks—Mischief—Stealing from the carpenter, sail-maker and steward—Rage of the steward—Mirth and fun among our sailors—Cool impudence of Jacko—Monkeys in Burmah and Madras	49
A VOYAGE TO THE GUANO ISLANDS OF PERU.
The Start from Liverpool—Across the equator—Arrival off Cape Horn—Cold weather—Storms of wind, sleet and snow—The scurvy breaks out—Sickness among the crew—Nine weeks in doubling the Cape—Arrival at Coquimbo—The Andes mountains—Recovery of our sick—Discharging patent fuel—Its effects on the eyes—Departure for Callao—Receive water, &c., on board—Departure for the Chincha islands—Arrival at Pisco—Dangerous surf—Anchorage at the Guano islands—Loading the guano—Its effects as we load—Departure for Callao—Sailors on liberty—A mutinous crew—Refuse duty—Assisted by man-of-war's crew—Return to duty—Bad rum all finished—The passage homewards—Short of provisions—Short Allowance—Starvation—Supplied—Long passage—Bad winds—Arrival home—Soon forget hardships—Plenty of money—Reckless extravagance	55
THE MARINE BAROMETER.
The value of this instrument—How my masts were saved by its warning—Its value in hurricanes in India and on the Atlantic.....	73
A RACE ACROSS THE ATLANTIC.
The start from Quebec—The passage outside the gulf—Incompany at sea—Squally weather—The meeting half way across—Carrying on sail—The arrival on the coast of Ireland—Race won by an hour and a half.....	79
THE COOLIE TRADE AND ITS HORRORS.
Embarking at Calcutta—Passage down the river—Breaking out of cholera—Deaths—Distressing scenes—Death of John	