

the treaty with the Indians, their conduct during the campaign, and the burning the country.

An amendment was proposed by Mr. Fox to insert, after the word consider, these words “ of the transactions of the northern army “ under Lieutenant General Burgoyne, and “ of ”

The motion thus amended, would have run as follows: “ That this house will now “ resolve itself into a committee of the whole “ house to consider of the transactions of the “ northern army under Lieutenant General
 “ Burgoyne, and of the state and condition
 “ of the said army, &c.”

In the course of the debate General Burgoyne spoke nearly as follows:

Mr. Speaker, not imagining there would be any motion by the honourable gentleman who spoke first; but that merely a desire of information would be expressed upon certain subjects, I had myself prepared a motion for an address to the king, to have such papers laid before the house, as are now in possession of the secretary of state, and contain an account in detail, much too long for me to give in my place, of every circumstance expressed in the questions of the honourable gentleman. Those papers
