SOCIETY

Conducted by Mrs. Edmund Phillips

Colonel McNaught's birthday tea in the women's committee room at the Exhibition yesterday afternoon, was even a greater success than in years gone by, and the room was well filled with his friends, which are as the sands of the sea for number.

Mrs. McNaught accompanied her husband, and wore a handsome gown of black and violet silk and lace. The table in the centre of the room was arranged with golden flowers and the birthday cake, very elaborately iced with maple and cherries, which was cut by Colonel McNaught's pretty little granddaughter (Mrs. Tadhoe's daughter).

Colonel McNaught made a little speech of congratulation, Mr. C. A. B. Brown, also made a graceful little speech, and Colonel McNaught responded. A few of those present included Mrs. Dignam, the hostess of the day; Mrs. D. B. Hanna, Miss Aileen Hughes, Mrs. Oliver, Mr. Joseph Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Allen, Mrs. Ian Bond, Miss B. Bond, Mrs. George Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Dryden, Mrs. Edmund Bristol, Mrs. and Miss Campbell (Buffalo), Mrs. C. A. B. Brown, Mr. W. T. Fraser, Miss Fraser, Mrs. W. E. Groves, Mrs. McLaughlin, Mr. Stewart Lyon, with his guest, an officer of the United States army and his wife; Colonel J. A. MacDonald, Mrs. Hirschfelder, Mr. and Mrs. John Kent, Miss Constance Boulton.

Lieut.-Col. R. Innes is at the Chateau Laurier, Ottawa.

Mrs. Knox wife of Colonel Knox, Melbourne, Aus., and Mrs. Paton (wife of General Paton, Sydney, Aus.), are at the King Edward, en route to Australia, leaving on Monday night for Winnipeg, Banff and Vancouver. A great many small entertainments have been given in the honor, they have arrived in Canada by the ship which brought many well-known Torontonians back to Canada from overseas.

Mrs. Phipps is giving a small dinner tonight in their honor and also for her daughter, Mrs. Clifford Gilmore (Winnipeg), who is staying with her. During the evening an expedition to Niagara Falls was given for the Australian visitors, and on Sunday night, Mrs. Boulton is giving a supper for them.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Christie, who have been at the Queen's, left for Winnipeg in private car last night. General John Hughes is expected in town today from the west, and will join his brother, Sir Sam Hughes, at the King Edward.

Mr. Harold D. Warren, Mrs. H. D. Warren's son, who was reported to have been in the hospital, is recovering at Matlock hospital.

The play for the Ontario championship at the tennis club commences today and goes on all next week, part of the proceeds being for patriotic purposes, the last tennis week at the club for the Red Cross, and the proceeds for the cause. Among the players will be Mrs. Marburg, wife of the Kingston and Mr. Kasilo, two Japanese players; Mr. Harold Taylor, junior champion of the United States; Mr. Lindley Murray, national champion of the United States; and a double champion of the United States, Miss Zimmerman, a native of the United States, who is only 15 years of age.

Harold Throckmorton, United States champion, will also play on Monday. The tea hostesses for the week will be Mrs. Henderson, Miss Summerhays, Mrs. J. J. Gibbons, Mrs. D. Lang.

When Madame Yvonne de Treville comes to town on Sept. 24, for her home concert for the Infants' Home, she will stay with Mrs. R. S. Williams.

Mrs. McCallum has returned from a summer spent on the Georgian Bay. Mrs. Campbell and Miss Campbell are in town from Buffalo, guests of Mrs. Thomas Davies.

Highlights is at the Chateau Laurier, Ottawa.

Sir Charles Blair Gordon of the British war mission to the United States, is at the King Edward.

Mrs. Nicholson is leaving tonight for Atlantic City.

Mrs. Cromwell Gurney and Mrs. Stewart made not yet returned from their country house at Eastbourne.

Mr. Robert Stark, late 50 Matland Street, after having spent the spring and summer in New York and Grimsby, has returned to Toronto, and will in future live at Mrs. Macklem's, 112 Bedford road.

RETURN FROM OVERSEAS.

Flight-Lieut. Karl D. Kayler, son of Dr. and Mrs. Kayler, 183 Annette street, has returned home on three months' furlough. His services overseas included that of being a despatch rider with the Canadian Signal Corps, at the front. He is a member of High Park Avenue Methodist Church.

Lieut. Walter S. Palmer, son of Dr. Palmer, 34 Hewit avenue, has returned from overseas to complete his medical studies. He served in France with a machine gun unit of the Canadian army.

JAPANESE VISITORS.

Military and Y. M. C. A. Officials on Inspection Tour.

A deputation of Japanese Y. M. C. A. officials, consisting of Mr. Sagara, associate national secretary of Japan, and Mr. Okumura, Y.M.C.A. secretary at Kobe, arrived in Toronto yesterday afternoon.

They have made an inspection of Y. M. C. A. military work at various points on their trip across Canada, and the work of the association in the training camps in Ontario will be investigated before the visitors proceed to New York to sail for France.

The Japanese "Y" men are accompanying Col. H. H. Hiramama of the Japanese Army on a mission to Europe.

The honorary governors who will visit the Toronto General Hospital during the week commencing on Sept. 8, are A. S. King, Esq., F. A. Mulholland, Esq.

PLAYS PICTURES AND MUSIC.

"Everywoman."

One of the largest, musical and dramatic productions which have ever been housed at the Princess Theatre, will be offered next week, when Henry W. Savage will present his world-famous production of the mighty spectacle, "Everywoman." One hundred people appear in the various ensembles of the famous play and the organization is accompanied by a special symphony orchestra.

"The Man Who Came Back."

No play ever presented in a local theatre has made such a strong appeal to local theatregoers as "The Man Who Came Back," the play of youth and idle dissipation, which has been present all this week at the Royal Alexandra, and which is being held over for next week, commencing Monday evening, with matinees on Wednesday and Saturday.

"The Million Dollar Doll."

One of the novelties in musical comedy is "The Million Dollar Doll," which will be the offering at the Grand Opera House next week. It is said to be a production in which hilarity, jingling music, dances and comedy go together in a capital entertainment.

The new play has a well defined plot with a love romance closely woven.

Next Week at Shea's.

The Four Men will head the bill at Shea's Theatre next week. Clara Morton shares headline honors with her parents, brother and sister. Nonette, the singing violinist, returns with her usual high class repertoire, while Tarzan is an educated monkey.

The Van Brothers in "Gettem and Holden," Hope and Dutton in a "Solo Songologue," Bell and Wood in a new vaudeville act and the British Gazette with new pictures, complete the bill.

Furnace Management

Ease of the Sunshine

Feeding the furnace;

—shaking down the ashes,

—removing the ashes,

—keeping the health-giving water pan filled,

—fixing the drafts for the night,

—those are the five major operations in managing a furnace—and what a trial of the temper and destruction of your raiment any one of them may be.

If your furnace is the famous McClary Sunshine these operations will cause you little more trouble or effort than winding up the clock.

The feed door of the Sunshine is big—you don't hit the side and damage your shovel and temper and scatter coal and naughty words all over the basement.

You don't shake the Sunshine grates, you merely rock them a few times,

—and the ashes drop from the perpendicular fire-box walls and grates and are guided into the big ash pan,

—and you lift the ash pan out with handles that are always cool.

No shovelling of ashes—no ash dust on your clothes or in your hair or in the house.

And at night, without going down to the basement, you drop the damper and open the check with pulls that always work.

And the water pan is right above the fuel door—very accessible—in plain view, where you can't forget it.
