CAPTAIN TUPPER PREACHES UNION

Urges Soldier Bodies to Present Solid Front in Gratitude Demand.

Capt. Eric Tupper, W. L. Marsh, general organizer, and Hugh Macleod, Dominion treasurer, delivered stirring addresses to several hundred men and women at last night's general organization meeting of the Grand Army of Canada, held at the Empress Theatre, Yonge street.

Capt. Tupper, who has seen 14 months' service in France and who was first minister in Canada to recruit men for service, pointed out that the religion of the soldiers' association, that of attending to the big ideals, to the needs of individual members and their families, succoring the needy, attending the ill and maimed, all these constituted service to the great cause which was unsurpassed.

General Organizer Marsh, in his address, pointed to the work accomplished not only by the G.A.C., but by all soldiers' organizations in the Dominion, as emphasizing the camaraderie which was daily becoming firmer and stronger among those who had fought for the Empire's cause.

The greatest need of the hour was a united front, and the day would come when this became a fact. However, the speaker didn't believe that any of the organizations in power now should disband or reorganize under one head, but should unite thru the medium of a great soldiers' council. The gratuity fight had not even simmered down, and by dint of this very united front the returned men would soon get what they were looking for in this respect. The speaker paid a fine tribute to the efforts of the G.W.V.A. in this connection.

Hugh Macleod, one of the real founders of the G.A.C., emphasized the points already brought out by Capt. Tupper.

POST TO GET CHARTER.
The Prince of Wales Post of the G.A.C. will have their charter presented to them by Dominion Secretary Montgomery on Thursday, Dec. 11, at the Winchester Hall, when the election of officers will take place. Important business in connection with the gratuity question will also be discussed.

MISSIONARY SHELTERED KOREAN AGITATORS
Seoul, Dec. 7.—The supreme court on Tuesday confirmed the decision of the court of appeals, convicting the Rev. Mr. Mansfield, a Presbyterian missionary of Mansfield, Ohio, of sheltering Korean agitators during the Korean revolt. Mr. Mowry was sentenced to pay a fine of 100 yen or go to prison for 20 days.

The court gave Mr. Mowry 30 days in which to decide whether he would pay the fine or serve the jail term.

U.V.L. ORGANIZING MONSTER PETITION

Decides to Get in Touch With Other Soldier Bodies.

With a view to circulating a gigantic petition in favor of the Calgary resolution, it was decided at a joint meeting of the Dominion executive and all branch executives of the United Veterans' League, held in the Prince George Hotel last night, to get in touch with other soldier organizations in order to secure their co-operation on the matter.

It was decided to hold the first general convention of the association on the 12, 13th and 14th of January, when the bylaws will be voted on and officers for the year elected.

The political candidates were reviewed and a slate prepared for the municipal elections. A committee was also appointed to examine ways and means of securing a club house for the use of members and other returned men.

A deputation was appointed to wait upon Premier Drury with the request that he look into the question of unemployment in Ontario and to ask him to take means to alleviate this condition.

Veteran Thanks "World" For Ventilating Grievances
The following letter from W. Bell and 61A Hayden street, formerly of the 14th Battalion, thanks The World for the publicity given him thru its columns for assistance in bringing his case to the attention of the authorities in Ottawa in connection with his application for vocational training. It follows:

"About a week ago you kindly took up my case in the Veterans' Column, and I am pleased to say that your paper has brought it to the attention of the authorities at Ottawa, and it is now under their consideration."

"I enlisted in January, 1916, and received injuries at Camp Borden in 1917, which prevented my carrying on my former occupation as a cook after my discharge from the army in 1919."

"Upon my applying for vocational training at the D.S.C.R. in Toronto, it was refused because of the fact that they claimed that my injuries were not serious enough to warrant my receiving vocational training."

"Your article has been the means of several of my old battalion comrades communicating with me, who will bear me out in my statement, that my injuries were received in the army, while at Camp Borden. The G.A.C. are also taking up my case."

(Signed) "W. Belland."

ENTIRE SPANISH CABINET WILL RESIGN MONDAY
Madrid, Dec. 7.—King Alfonso will be handed the resignation of the whole cabinet on Monday when he returns from his customary hunting trip, according to reports, which are general in this city tonight.

The cabinet held a meeting this evening, following the resignation of General Covarro, minister of war, which step was taken by the minister after the cabinet today published the decision of the court of honor, calling upon 23 officers to leave the army. It is reported General Covarro acted in defiance of the wishes of many of the other ministers.

Because of the strike of newspaper employees, only one newspaper, L'Action, was published here this afternoon, but no attempt was made to sell copies in the centre of the city. Even in the suburbs, where the paper was placed on sale, some disturbances occurred.

LABOR AND VETERANS COMBINE For Kingston Civic Elections
Kingston, Dec. 7.—(Special).—Labor and the veterans have combined and formed a slate for the municipal elections. H. C. Nicksie is the candidate for mayor. Aldermanic candidates will be placed in each ward. Also school trustees and a representative for the civic utilities commission will run.

A lot of people apparently are not nearly so much concerned in securing industrial rest as rest from industry.

SELINA VISITS A RICH BUT COLD FAMILY

I WAS visitin' a Hill 'n' o'mine yesterday. You know, when I say visitin', it's like this: I was sellin' 'em smart with the brush. She shore can lay on the colors with her hand, but I keep raggin' her that they look like they was done with her foot—kinda smelly!

NEW INTEREST RISES IN WILSON'S ILLNESS

they found Mrs. Wilson seated by the president's bedside. She remained around the entire interview, but took no part in the conversation.

The president was lying on his back with the bed clothes drawn up to the chin. He held out his right hand and shook hands with the senators and later on used the other hand. He seemed to be wearing a sweater, altho the room was not cold. According to Senator Fall, he turned his head from side to side but did not lift it from the pillow; neither, so far as the senator could observe, did he move his lower limbs during the forty-five minutes the interview lasted.

Intellectually, however, the president seemed to have been at his best. Senator Fall was here to deliver a philippic on the Mexican situation and especially upon the failure of the Carranza government to release the American prisoners.

In the midst of his denunciation the door opened and Dr. Grayson stuck in his head: "Just tell you," he said, "that Jenkins has been released by the Mexican government."

This brought Mr. Fall down with a jerk, and he thinks the whole thing was staged by the president. He says there is nothing wrong with the latter's mind whatever may be the condition of his legs. As they were leaving Mr. Wilson smilingly said:

"Be good enough to reassure Senator Moses about my condition. I fear he will be disappointed."

Senator Moses created a mild sensation not long ago by declaring that Mr. Wilson was physically and mentally unfit to discharge his duties as president of the United States.

SENATORS ARE CRITICIZED.
New York, Dec. 7.—(Special).—The New York World, President Wilson's chief journalistic supporter in the United States, characterizes the visit of the senatorial committee to the president's sick room as "an indecent exposure of the president's condition."

Over the legend "The Snooper" it depicts the senate as a man down on his knees peering thru the keyhole of a door which is labeled "The President's Sick Room."

Having done this much for the president, The World gives full prominence to the Washington dispatches about the senatorial visitation and the report made by Senator Fall as to the president's physical condition. Senators are criticized for their conduct in the speech of the president, altho he could understand every word he said, and the Washington correspondent of The World goes on to say:

"Mr. Fall is represented by his associates as saying that the president might be suffering from locomotor ataxia or paralysis. He inclined to the latter view, but he is not certain, having seen several cases of that disease."

BALLANTYNE, MAYOR SIMPSON, CONTROL

that relating to the appointment of a commission of three, who must be rataplanes, to govern the acquired street railway in 1921, and without remuneration.

Matter of Privilege.
The bylaw noted was opposed on the ground that it gave privileges to a section of the people only, the ratepayers. The party is of the opinion that tenants, those who pay rent, are as interested in the question of transportation as any in the city, and for this reason should be privileged to vote upon this question. Also the man who is a tenant is equally as entitled to consideration as a member of the commission. Again, it is claimed, the man who can work without remuneration must necessarily come from the financial interests or the moneyed classes. A still further defect in the bylaw, as noted by the Labor party, is that it does not give direct communication between the city council and the proposed commission which will give the council power, under certain conditions, to dispense with the services of all or any of the members of the commission if they are deemed to have failed in their duties.

An Undemocratic Plan.
James Ballantyne, in a stirring address delivered at the People's Forum, I.L.P., yesterday, expressed himself as to the lines suggested, elaborating to point out the under a commission of three a majority of one would always be liable to control the destinies of the citizen, a rather undemocratic feature of the system. Another question which arose in this connection, said Mr. Ballantyne, was the probable disposition of grievances of employees of the city railway. Would they be considered employees of the commission of three or of the city council?

Concluding, the speaker stated that both Liverpool and Birmingham had city council government of their rails, while on the other hand London, by reason of the autonomy of the city boroughs, governed its railway through a commission. Touching upon the Hydro and other such commissions it was pointed out that the Hydro Commission was in the same position as London with its autonomous boroughs.
