CITY BOXING TOURNAMENT.
Course Seat Sale Begins To-Day at Wilson's—Entrée Close Monday.
Entries to date for next week's city amateur boxing tournament would indicate that the different clubs will be well filled, mostly with boys making their debut in Toronto. Scotty McEwan, who was on his way to training, has decided to wait on his initials, and Turler of the British Legion will probably be the only Canadian Amateur to participate in the bout, on Tuesday, Friday and Saturday. Thus the winners will have all the better chance of winning the prize.

OKENITE WINS EASILY IN THE ARVERNE STAKES

Fresh, at 60 to 1, Beat the Good Thing, Youthful, in the Two-Year-Old Race.
NEW YORK, April 19.—A big killing was attempted to-day in the third race at Aqueduct with Okenite, but it failed, as Fresh, a 60-to-1 shot, beat Youthful in the last stride. This saved the books from a good scorching. Youthful opened at 20 to 1, but was pounded so hard that at the close the betting was 7 to 2 against him. Youthful and Fresh were to the fore nearly all the way, fighting it out to the half. It was only in the last jump that Fresh was able to get his head in front and win. Okenite, the favorite, won the Arverne Stakes easily. Summary:
