Oct Beaty: Wheat had a brief moment of strength Beaty: Wheat had a brief moment of strength at the opening this morning after which it struck the toboggan slide and closed over a cent under Saturday's price. It was the selling by houses with northwest connections and rains in the northwest territory that turned wheat heavy to-day. The local crowd was nervous and lacked a leader. Altho beavy rains south-west have held back the threshing of wheat for four or five days this market has been under the pressure of new wheat. There is no doubt but the crowd was nervous and ination of conditions in Kansas declared that the yield from that state will be at least 60 million. After such a slump as we experienced to-day some reaction would not be surprising, but until some-thing sensationally bullish develops, ap-thing sensationally bullish develops ap-thing sensationally bullish develops ap-thing sensa 573 Queen West Oct 426 1-2 Yonge-street Durham .....
