Comfortable Homes

For... June Brides

There are emphatically good reasons why this store is of great importance to newly-married couples about to furnish comfortable homes. We are Homefurnishers in the truest and fullest meaning of the word. It is a part of this business that is more to our liking than perhaps any other. We have nearly everything that is required for the home. The best market affords is to be found here, with variety enough to satisfy every taste and please every fancy. We can furnish homes as modestly as could be desired and at a comparatively small outlay, or we can supply the artistic and finest furnishings, and even then it would be done with the strictest economy. We can save money on every purchase, because our unequalled advantages and facilities for buying and selling are such that we can make prices that are not easily duplicated for values. There is but little satisfaction in reading a long list of prices. The best way is to come and make personal investigation and comparisons. However, we'll print these few items just to show how prices are running:

THE TORONTO WORLD

ONE CENT MORNING PAPER.
No. 85 YONGE-STREET, Toronto.

IN MEMORIAM: THE OLD CHIEF-TAIN.

The Toronto Conservative Club, in deciding to inaugurate an annual decoration of Sir John A. Macdonald's monument in the Queen's Park, has undertaken a function which will at once become popular with all loyal Conservatives and with the public generally. The party which Sir John A. so ably led for so many years is to-day not so united or as strong as it used to be. Its chief point of weakness is the lack of men who can command the loyalty of the whole party. Sir John A. Macdonald, when alive, was a chief whom every member of the party esteemed it an honor to serve. Even now, when he is gone, we do not know of anything around which the party can rally with more unanimity than around the monument of the greatest statesman in Canadian history. Although the notice of the Toronto Conservative Club's proposal has been a very short one, we have no doubt it will be largely attended and that the ceremony will be put a precursor of others of increasing popularity.

A RELIGIOUS BEAR GARDEN.

The Presbytery of Toronto have resolved to exclude the press from their convocations. The preachers in attendance are evidently ashamed to let their congregations know how they quarrel with one another at their meetings, and they have reason to be. They preach to their congregations about peace and goodwill and tell them that he that ruleth his spirit is greater than he that taketh a city, yet they apparently make no effort to control their own tempers, but bandy words, charge each other with falsehood and make unkind insinuations.

The disturbance on Thursday was not the first one of the kind. On the 3rd of May last, they had an equally disgraceful wrangle, and one of the elders present charged the ministers with red tape, wire-pulling and tricky proceedings. The Presbyterians look to the newspapers for true reports of what goes on at the Presbytery. They do not want cooked reports, concealing unseemly quarrels, such as might be given out by representatives of the press were they present.

Even the public at large has some right to know what goes on at these meetings. The churches are exempt from taxation, so that every taxpayer has to contribute toward their support, and the taxpayer has a right to know whether they are deserving of such consideration.

The ministers should set an example to their congregations by showing as much kindness, good temper and good manners in their assemblies as would characterize the meetings of a body of scientists who make no professions of Christianity. Instead of avoiding publicity the Presbytery ought to court it. Publicity will improve their mental and moral qualities. This proposal to bury their heads in the sand, ostrich-like, will not cure, but will only aggravate the evil. When the press is ostracized from the Fair will come out in all its original colors. No, ministers, the public expect more of you than this. A policy of concealment is a policy of hypocrisy. If you cannot control your tempers you had better let the light of publicity flood your debating chamber, and you will be surprised how rapidly you will improve. Be men. Face the evil. Don't run away from it.

A WRONG THAT SHOULD BE RIGHTED.

It is painful to know that such things can take place in Canada as are revealed in the report of the Royal Commission appointed to enquire into the treatment of workmen on the Crow's Nest Railway. Prompt measures should be taken by the Government, not only to prevent the recurrence of such outrages in the future, but to punish the guilty contractors, and force them to compensate the defrauded and abused workmen for their sufferings. The Canadian Pacific Railway Company received a subsidy of three million dollars from the Dominion Government for this Crow's Nest Railway, and Sir William Van Horne has no right to engage contractors as slave drivers in its construction. All the workmen who have survived should be provided for, and the families of those who died from the effects of ill-treatment should be compensated. This is not a matter that can be shelved like most reports of Royal Commissions. It demands the earnest attention of the Government. These men were engaged under false pretences and deliberately defrauded. They were underpaid for their work, overcharged for their board, and made to pay for things they never received and for services that were never rendered. They were regarded as beasts rather than as men, and a man who treated his beasts as badly as they were treated.

Under the auspices of the Conservative Club the monument of Sir John A. Macdonald will be decorated on Monday afternoon. Addresses by prominent members of the party will be given.

Near the corner of King and Bay streets yesterday morning the rear axle of a broad wagon belonging to G. Weston, Queen street west, broke. The driver was thrown out, but was not hurt seriously.

Another very delightful recital was given by Mr. J. A. Brew, pupil of Mr. F. H. Torrington, at the Toronto College of St. Margaret, Thursday evening, assisted by pupils of the college. The program was carried out very successfully.

York County Council.

The annual session of the York County Council will be held to Niagara Falls on Wednesday next, on the Monday following the June session of the Council will be opened at the Court House.

the Government to protect our people—even the poorest of them—against home tyranny as against foreign aggression, and until this great wrong is righted the name of Canada will be disgraced for the story of it has gone abroad to other lands and was believed there before it was believed in Canada.

THE SENATE AND THE FRANCHISE.

The Liberals will not be able to make much political capital out of the action of the Senate in amending the Franchise Bill, providing for judicial appeal from the decision of a revising officer who is not a judge. The change will not affect Ontario. It merely gives to the voters of Manitoba, New Brunswick and Nova Scotia a privilege that the voters of the other provinces already possess. If it were proposed to even things up by taking away this privilege from the voters of Ontario, Quebec, Prince Edward Island and British Columbia, there would be good ground for a popular agitation against the Senate, but the voters of the provinces who already have the privilege will not object to the other provinces getting it, while the electors of Manitoba, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick will be glad to see this remedy applied to the parliaments of the provinces.

The idea that the Franchise bill is too sacred to be touched by the Senate, because the Liberals, while in opposition, proposed that the Federal Parliament should surrender its control over the franchise, is absurd. The Liberals have no ground for saying that they have a special mandate from the people to give the provincial legislatures complete control over the federal franchise. They said very little about the franchise during the last general election campaign, except to refer to the expense of the present system. It is true that this was one of the planks of the platform laid down at the Ottawa Liberal convention several years before, but "free trade as the basis of the franchise" was another one of the planks in the same platform, which was carefully kept out of sight during the campaign of 1886, and the Liberals will not now pretend that they have a mandate from the people to give the country free trade.

SANITATION OF THE SCHOOLS.

Editor World: Your editorial on the sanitary condition of the schools is most timely. It is a pity that the report of the Public Schools Board is not more widely known. The Public Schools Board have always condemned the temporary accommodation quite as strongly as Dr. Bryce did, but the City Council have refused to accept the measure. The Government will now be responsible for any deadlock that may occur, if it refuses to accept the simple and just amendment of the Senate.

CARDINAL VAUGHAN ON UNITY.

The Prince of the Catholic Church in England, Cardinal Vaughan, in a letter to Mr. W. T. St. John, an Anglo-American relations, rejoices at the prospect of a closer friendship of those who are united by Englishmen in blood, language and ideas. The letter closes: "Personally, I deplore the fact that the United States has chosen war with a weak power like Spain, instead of arbitration, which was the alternative. But I would not allow such disapproval to stand in the way of the great benefits that may result from an entente cordiale between England and America."

Valuable Art Portraits.

It is a pretty and artistic souvenir of the exhibition of the Ontario Society of Artists, prepared by Professor Mavor, containing pen and ink sketches of the principal pictures and valuable art portraits. The book is published by George M. Mavor, and those who avail themselves of the last two days of the exhibition cannot do better than provide themselves with this unique production.

THE LATE MAJOR UROUHART.

"Go On, Lads; Don't Mind Me!" Said the Gallant Officer, After Receiving the Fatal Bullet.

Ottawa, June 3.—Lord Aberdeen's private secretary, Major Urouhart, died at his residence in Ottawa on May 12, by Mrs. Duff of Hutton, from Colonel Moberg, commanding the 1st Battalion, Cameron Highlanders, with reference to the death of the late Major Urouhart.

"Dunsmuir Camp, April 12, 1898.

"I have a very painful letter to write to you regarding the death of your brother, whose loss was very greatly felt by myself and his brother officers. It may be some small consolation to you to know that he was shot while gallantly leading his company.

"He just uttered the words: Go on, lads, don't mind me!" and then fell dead. He was shot through the body, and the doctor tells me he could not have suffered, as death was almost instantaneous. Previously to being killed, a bullet had passed through his helmet, just grazing his head. I need not say how deeply we sympathize with you in your loss and sorrow.

Just before leaving for Egypt, Major Urouhart expressed a strong desire to his sister to return to Canada, because, he said: "Quite apart from my wish to be again with my dear friends, there are so many people who showed me such great kindness, I should be very sorry to think that I could not see them again."

Griffith's Menstrual Linctament is a complete remedy for all sore throats. It removes the inflammation and soothes the throat and chest. It is of special benefit to new beginners. It relieves the pain and aches the minute applied.

KNOCKED OUT BY THE SENATE

The Franchise Bill So Amended as to Kill the Effect Intended.

Senator Miller's Amendment Providing for a Final Appeal Over the Revising Officer Was Passed in Spite of the Opposition of the Government—The Principle of the Provincial Franchise for Federal Purposes Not Aimed At.

Ottawa, June 3.—(Special.)—The Senate last night in committee on the franchise bill knocked out that measure for the present. In proposing his amendment, providing for an appeal from the final decision of the lists by the revising officer in the Provinces of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Manitoba, to a judicial tribunal, Senator Miller said he believed that a majority of the Senate were opposed to the principle of the bill, which was the intention, however, to allow the bill to pass without amending it, so as not to interfere with the principle of adopting the provincial franchises for federal purposes.

Senator Miller's Amendment.

Senator Miller, in seconding the amendment, said that the principle of the bill was to allow the revising officer to appeal from his decision to a judicial tribunal. He pointed out that in New Brunswick there was a Provincial coalition Government, and the bill was passed in a full manner, with an appeal to the judges.

Hon. David Mills said the Government had a special mandate from the people to give the provincial legislatures complete control over the federal franchise. He said that the bill was one of the planks of the platform on which the Liberals had fought the last general election, and the Senate had no right to prevent the Government from carrying out that promise made to the people.

Senator Boulton said he did not think the Senate ought to insist on passing a small amendment to the bill which it was known the Commons would not accept. Then the vote was taken on the amendment, and the Senate decided to reject it.

After some further debate, the committee divided on Senator Miller's amendment, which was carried by a vote of 16 to 16.

The Conservative Senator who voted with the Government were: Messrs. Vail, Macdonald, and Brown. The Liberal Senators who voted with the Government were: Messrs. Duff, Hutton, and Moberg. Further amendments were made to reconcile the bill to the open voting system of Prince Edward Island.

A Peculiar Dispute

A Mortgage Deed and an Insurance Policy once fell into dispute as to which was the stronger contract. The Mortgage Deed said: "I have just killed a man who broke his back paying interest to keep me from taking away his home." "Good work," answered the Insurance Policy, "I can lift the mortgage and feed and educate the family."

Insurance covers a multitude of business errors, is an effectual safeguard to the home, and a means whereby protection is afforded the estate against insolvency or depreciation in value. Invest in it and thus make secure the future welfare of the home by creating for the benefit of defendants an estate which would not be subject to the claims of creditors. The North American Life is the Company in which you should insure, as its financial standing is unexcelled. Its ratio of assets to liabilities and net surplus to liabilities is greater than that of any other Canadian Company.

Address the Company, or call at the Head Office, 112-118 King Street West, Toronto, for copies of the last Annual Report, illustrated, which gives full information respecting the financial position of the Company.
