CHILDREN'S FANCY DRESS BALL. Pupils of Miss Sternberg's Dancing

Academy Make Merry. The second annual fancy dress ball gives Dancing Academy, was held yesterday af-Hall. J. W. Scott occupied the chair, and 7 o'clock. The affair was largely attended by the parents of the little ones. The hall was prettly decorated and this, combined with the quainty-dressed young sters, completely transformed the place in to a verifable fairy land. At the conclusion of the overflow meeting.

Truth goes to the length of stating definitely that the Bishop of Winchester will be offered the appointment. But there are others who are desirous that the Bishop of London shall get the coveted post. Then, it is expected, should the Bishop of Winchester be made the primate the Bishop of Ripon will be transferred to Winchester.
