GOVERNMENT IN MINORITY OF 776 THRUOUT COUNTRY

Outside Quebec Conservatives Polled 303 Votes More Than Liberal Candidates—The Record By Provinces.

OTTAWA, Jan. 18.—(Special.)—With single exception of the Yukon the figures for the votes cast at the general elections are now all in. Owing to the number of independent candidates in the field an absolutely accurate classification of the vote is difficult to get at. The following table, however, indicates pretty fairly the trend of the voting:

Province.	Liberal.	Conservatives.	Independent.
Ontario	223,501	235,509	2,730
Quebec	150,844	126,424	10,759
Nova Scotia	56,588	54,500	None
New Brunswick	40,716	34,945	None
P. E. Island	14,496	14,286	None
Manitoba	30,915	35,071	2,078
British Columbia	13,412	17,503	6,453
Alberta	23,777	19,746	2,439
Saskatchewan	33,415	25,563	434

Total . . . . . 587,664 563,547 24,893

Independent column includes Verville (Labor), Maisonneuve; Joe Martin (Exclusionist), Vancouver; all the Socialist candidates in British Columbia, and Independents, Laborites and Socialists elsewhere.

The popular majority of Liberal votes over Conservatives is 24,117. In Quebec the Liberal popular majority was 24,420, so that outside of Quebec the government actually received 303 fewer votes than the Conservatives. Counting the Independents as opposed to the government the popular minority is 776.

Outside of These Roosevelt May Be All Right, All Right

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—A sensational and bitter attack on President Roosevelt was made in the house of representatives to-day by Mr. Willett of New York.

His remarks, which were delivered under the license of general debate on the Pension Appropriation Bill, were cut short by a vote of the house that it would hear no more of them.

So vehement was the denunciation of the chief executive that it seemed as if the New York member raked the dictionary for words which would properly express his feelings. The president was characterized as a "gangster, tyrant, pigmy, descendant of Dutch tradespeople, hay tender, fountain of ill-faith, a jocular, imitation of a King and a Bogus Hero."

As it was, Mr. Willett had completed the reading of about three-fourths of his speech when, after repeated appeals to the chair by numerous representatives, that he be called to order, he was compelled to take his seat. It was a motion by Mr. Chandler of Mississippi that the New Yorker be allowed to proceed, "in order," that the house voted him off the floor by 78 to 126.

Mr. Willett frequently remonstrated on the floor that the action of the body "put an end to free speech."

ADMITS KILLING MRS. GANDIANO

Italian Murderer of Niagara Falls Woman Identified by Daughter of His Victim.

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y., Jan. 18.—(Special.)—"He killed my mother!" shrieked Mary Gandiano when she was to-day brought face to face at police headquarters with James Noc, the young Italian who stabbed Mrs. Nettie Gandiano to death at her home Saturday afternoon.

After his identification by the murdered woman's daughter, Noc made a complete confession of the crime to District Attorney Ackerson.

"I killed her because I loved her," declared the murderer. He told the district attorney that the woman had been wooed by him long before her husband died and that she had repulsed his advances.

He was greatly agitated when told that his victim was dead and wept like a child when the information was imparted to him.

It was only after a long and tedious chase that he was caught. He put his left arm in a sling thinking the police would not seek a foreigner with an injured arm, but Detective Sergt. Callinan recognized him from the description given by the dead woman's children. He will appear in police court to-morrow morning to answer to the charge of murder in the first degree.

To-morrow, at noon, the senate and assembly will meet and formally nominate the candidates named at to-night's caucuses and on Wednesday at noon, both houses will meet jointly and declare Secretary Root elected for a term of six years.

SIXTY YEARS CIVIL SERVANT

Students of history will recall this as the year the parliament buildings were burned down by an angry Montreal mob, who pulled Lord Elgin, then governor-general, with stones. Taylor was an eyewitness of these and other stirring events which marked the introduction of a constitutional government in Canada.

In June last Mr. Taylor received the Imperial service order decoration in recognition of his long service to the country.

BAPTIST CLERGY BOOST MAYOR FOR SOLD

Rev. Dr. Fuller Charges Four of His Pittsburg Brethren in Ministry With Taking Political Retainers.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 18.—The Rev. Dr. A. W. Fuller, pastor of the Second Baptist Church, a wealthy and prominent congregation, avers that the managers of W. A. Magee, candidate for the Republican nomination for mayor of Pittsburg, dickered for the services of five Baptist clergymen as press agents, the work to be done from the pulpit.

Those in charge of the Baptist congregations here, in addition to the Rev. Dr. Fuller, are the Revs. Sims, Webb, Henderson and Scott. The five of them, according to the Rev. Dr. Fuller, were summoned last Wednesday to the office of William A. Magee, a rich business man and friend of Magee. Fuller says he will produce witnesses whom he stationed outside the office to hear what took place. The five pastors were invited, he says, to "boost" Magee in talks or sermons from their pulpits, and also to surrender personal letters which each had received from John Steele, another candidate for mayor. Each of the ministers was to receive $100 in payment for services rendered.

The Rev. Dr. Fuller alleges that the Rev. Mr. Scott made the arrangements with Magee, and apparently was conducting the affair. Fuller revealed the proposed transaction to friends' office and was advised to see it thru.

When all were assembled the Rev. Mr. Scott is alleged to have assured Roberts that the five pastors were willing to accept the terms, suit fighting Magee and surrender the Steele letters.

The Rev. Mr. Fuller alleges that all except himself delivered their letters. He declares he balked and declined to have anything to do with the matter.

Roberts says the Rev. Dr. Fuller is angry with him because he refused to extend a mortgage on the house that Fuller more than any of the others arranged the meeting in the office. The other ministers say they have done nothing wrong, and were in the office "on business." Their charge, that the Rev. Dr. Fuller first told of the alleged compromise to Steele's manager, is not denied by Fuller.

Trying to Reach Front Platform of Van, He Fell Under Wheels of Freight Train

Mike Carney, a C.P.R. switchman, 21 years of age, living with his parents on Marguerite-street, in West Toronto, met with a shockingly sudden death in the yards there shortly before 1 o'clock this morning.

The accident was noticed by the other train hands, and the body was at once picked up, but life was extinct.

Dr. Clendinning and Dr. Gilmour, the latter a coroner, were at once summoned, when Dr. Gilmour ordered the removal of the body to Spenser's undertaking parlour, where an inquest will be held to-night at 8 o'clock.

Deceased was well known in the city, and among the railway men, and was a member of the C.P.R. Association. His father was for many years in the employ of the G.T.R. as an engineer, and is at present in receipt of a pension by reason of his long service.
