MAUDLIN SENTIMENT NOT THE GOLDEN RULE

Rev. E. J. Etherington Says Law Should Be Enforced-London Man For Deputy Chief.

HAMILTON, June 19 .- (Special.) --Rev. E. J. Eetherington, rector of St Thomas Church, addressing the local Masons, who celebrated the annual festival of Ct. John there this afternoon, delivered a trenchent criticism of those who mistook the spirit of love that underlay the golden rule for maudlin sentiment. He asked that the law be enforced against those who committed crimes, particularly crimes of violence against the person. Mr. Etherington also denounced the impure literature and postcards that he saw in stores, and said they were a comment on the class of people who created a demand for them. He said further the introduction of more love into our attitude toward our fellow-men would erush out socialism, which was only the reply to another kind of "ism" which was prevalent to-day.

In ideal weather the Wanderers and Corinthians of Toronto played the league fixture at the Woodbine on Saturday and ended as the score will show, in disaster for the Corinthians, none of whom made double figures. Gasson proved their hest bowler, getting 2 wickets for 19 runs. Pirth for the Wanderers was top scorer, with 2 not out, closely followed by C. Dalton 40 and A. Dalton 36. H. Carter 8 was the other not out. Frank Spence and George Brown certainly are some bowlers. Both have averages less than 3 for the season so far and on Saturday they seemed unplayable. The scores:
