OPEN HUDSON BAY

Management Figuring on Large

Cobalt-Arrangements are being made for the reopening of the Timiskaming & Hudson Bay Mine. Manager George G. Thomas will be in Cobalt this week, 130. and operations should be in full swing and operations should be in full swing in two weeks.

The Hudson Bay management is figuring on installing an oil flotation plant with a capacity of 150 tons a day. It is purposed not only to run thru ore from the low-grade bodies alongside of the Nipissing line, but to also treat the large pile of mill tailings by oil flotation. Most of the mill tailing dumps in Cobalt contain five to six ounces of sliver, and it is figured that for the price of one ounce this can be treated, leaving a nice profit.

There was a large amount of ore left in the Hudson Bay workings when the mine was closed down that could not be profitably treated at that time. It is also purposed to prospect the northeast part of the property, where there was no further work done than determining the depth of the conglommerate at 130 feet.

NEW YORK, May 19.—Today's broad and excited market was in its superfiand excited market was in its superficial aspects strongly reminiscent of the unrestrained sessions of the second and third quarters of last year, with the significance, however, that rails completely eclipsed "war brides" and other issues of unknown value.

Reading was again the pivot around which the entire list revolved, sometimes in bewildering fashion. Reading common touched a new high quotation on its forenoon rise of 6% points to 106%, falling back to 102 at mid-day, recovering to 105% again, yielding to 101% and closing at 103. The second preferred, in which trading was negligible, also advanced into new ground at 52, but closed with a net loss of 3% at 47%.

There was again an utter absence of news or surface developments by which Reading movement could be traced to a reasonable elucidation. Nevertheless the speculative community and not a few of the conservative element seemed of the opinion that the long deferred and much discussed segregation of the company's assets would soon be announced.

Other coalers were naturally influencof the company's assets would soon be announced.

Other coalers were naturally influenced by Reading's impressive strength, their gains ranging from 1 to 3 points. Virtually all rails were embraced in the rise. Pacifics, grangers, the southern group and minor issues of no fixed class trailing along irregularly.

A sharp reaction at mid-day, which was attributed to continuous profit-taking, was followed by belated covering in the later dealings, when U. S. Steel, coppers and marines were at their best. Advantage was taken of this move to include in further realizing, and just before the close a considerable part of the day's general gains was forfeited. Total sales amounted to 1.290,000 shares, the largest output since last October.
Reading's contribution to the day was about 230,000 shares.
General news, for the most part of a routine character, was ignored in the happenings on the exchange. Foreign exchange was practically unchanged, aitho sterling eased a trifle.
