In 1901 he repaid the obligation by a gift to the institution of $125,000.

His master, when he was a "herd laddie" of the Mortlach, was the parish minister, a good, kindly man, who made the boy's hard work as pleasant as could be. When Lord Mount Stephen came home from Canada he invested $200,000 to insure all the parish ministers of Speyside at least $500 a year.

Two years ago, in conjunction with Lord Strathcona, he gave King Edward's Hospital Fund $1,500,000, producing an income of $80,000 a year, a gift now augmented by $1,000,000.

The Canadian peer has no children. Many years ago, however, he and his first wife adopted a, little girl, who, soon after they came to England, married Henry Stafford Northcote, now Lord Northcote and governor general of Australia.

Wayside Observations.

From he Dallas (Tex.) News.

If it were not for the daily grind there would be no daily bread.

I do not say that there is any significance in the fact that "honey" rhymes with "money".

in the fact that "noney raymes with "money."

Information is sometimes misinformation. Some people dislike to work because it lireaks into the day so badly they haven't time to do anything else.

People often stop to listen to the peal of a church bell. They are also stopped sometimes by the peel of a banana.

Do not think a man crazy because he is it love. He will probably get aver it.

'As you grow older you can have the consoling reflection that crow's feet have no corns on them.

Some people pray the Lord to keep them.

Pirate's Skin Sold by Auction.

Londou, Jan. 24.—A piece of the skin of a Danish pirate, slightly larger than a shiling, was sold recently to Major Ind for three guineas at Stevens auction rooms. A lock of King Edward IV.'s hair, which was taken from his tomb at Windsor when it was opened in 1789, did not find a purchaser, however.

The viking was caught and executed while pillaging Hadstook Church, in Essexover 200 years ago, and his skin was nailed to the church door as a warning to other evildoers. The relic, which looks like a lagged piece of thick parchment, became lodged in the hinge of the massive old door, where it was discovered by 1855.

The reminder of mediaeval barbarity was an object of awe-struck interest to the buyers at the sele. Sober dealers literally feit their blood run cold and their hair rise on end as they gazed on the grim let in its glazed mahogany case.
