

during the winter. BRIGHTON.—This field was taken under the care of the Society two years ago, and was occupied during the summer of 1884 by brother J. B. Kennedy with good results. The field was considered worthy of the Society's continued support, and during the winter months a supply was sent to preach each Lord's Day. The congregations were large, and much interest was manifested in the preaching of the Word. During Christmas vacation, brethren Sheldon and Fraser held special meetings. The afternoon prayer meetings were blessed to the building up of God's people and the awakening of the unsaved, and some were led to accept of Christ. In May last this field was taken under the care of the Home Mission Board, with brother Sheldon as pastor, in whose hands the work of the Lord is prospering.

Early in January the Society sent two missionaries, brethren Chandler and Mellick, to BRONTE. They found the cause very low and considerable discord among the brethren. At first the congregations were very small, but earnest work on the part of our missionaries resulted in the restoration of harmony, and the interest steadily increased. During the past summer brother Mann occupied the field under appointment from the Home Mission Board, and nine were added to the church by baptism.

Brother Garside was appointed by the Society to labor at PORT PERRY. The cause here, as on most of the other fields occupied by our men, was found in a very low state. He spent six Sabbaths on the field, during which time the congregations
