

as usual for the winter months, and a large amount of relief extended in this way to hundreds of families.

The Board would direct special attention to the detailed Reports of the Superintendent and the Medical Officer, for information as to the nature and amount of relief afforded by the charity. Both these Reports, together with that of the Treasurer (duly audited), are hereto attached.

It only remains to add, in conclusion, that the resident officers in the House have given the greatest satisfaction in the discharge of their duties.
