

VICE

CANADIANS ENLISTED IN THE WAR FOR LIBERTY AND DEMOCRACY

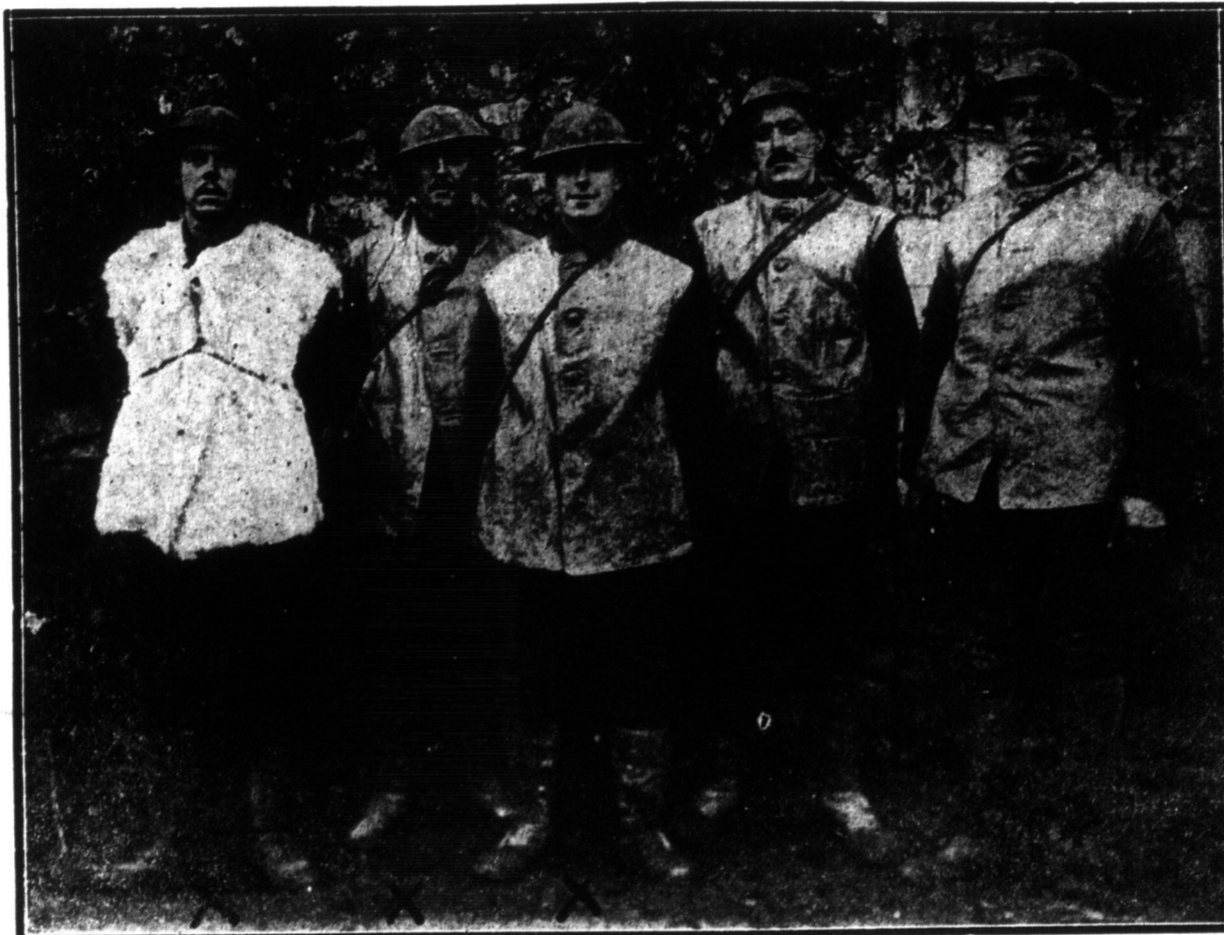

Pte. W. D. Coleman, Canadian M. G. Depot; Pte. S. W. Buckner, 180th Battalion, M.G.S.

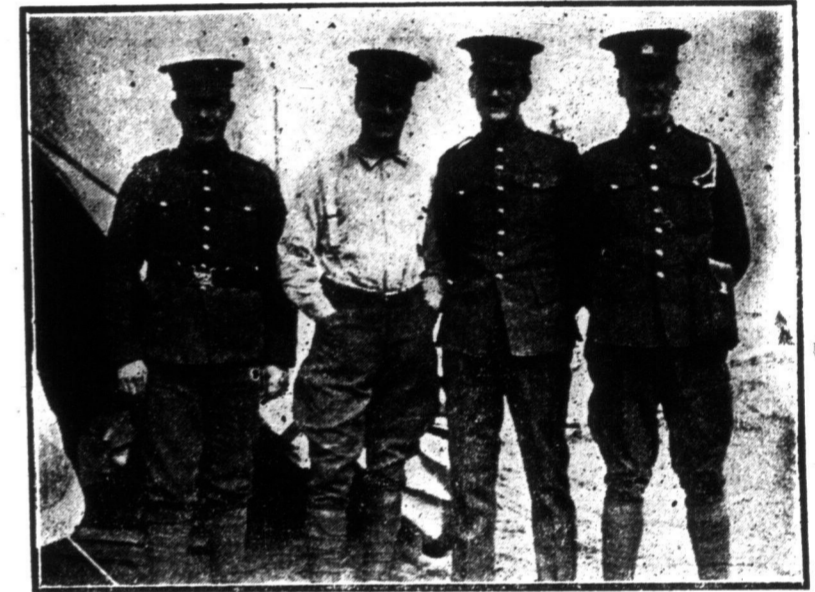

15th Battalion soldiers enjoying a brief rest. Cross-marked are Ptes. James and Joseph Tapp, who sent the picture.

Five chums in France. Standing, W. Newman, J. E. Bolton, W. G. Crocker; sitting, L. Burden and L. H. Elliott.

Pte. H. M. Lickley, 83rd Battalion, and his trench comrades.

Pte. Cyril Randall, Q.M.S. Russill, Sergts. Brown and Salter, photographed in England.

Sig. J. Blair and Sig. C. Wade'l, 87th Battalion in France.

Torontonians at West Sandling Field Bakery. From Pte. P. Mockford.

Photo of the 180th Battalion, from Pte. A. Caskie.

Sergt. E. Love and pals of the 124th in France.

Canadian soldiers in France and England. Pte. Buckles, Pte. Lyle, Pte. Carter, Pte. Kenney, Lance-Corp. Chambers.

Pte. Chas. T. Brown and chum of the 20th Battalion.